

ONE WAY TO GET THROUGH THE LINE. The camera caught the British player in a Rugby match, away up in the air, with the ball clasped in his arms. A teammate is ready to protect him as he comes to earth. Central News Photo.

BUYING EASTER FLOWERS. Two sisters, Mary and Louise Miller, are dicker-ing with Davis Freeman, a flower vendor, at Twelfth and Market streets. Ledger Photo Service.

SELECTING A POT OF FLOWERS. Mrs. J. B. Pross at Nineteenth and Market streets, where she was preparing for the Easter decorations. Ledger Photo Service.

CARRYING THE LILIES HOME. Mrs. Minnie Pidgeon picked out two to her liking at Nineteenth and Market streets.

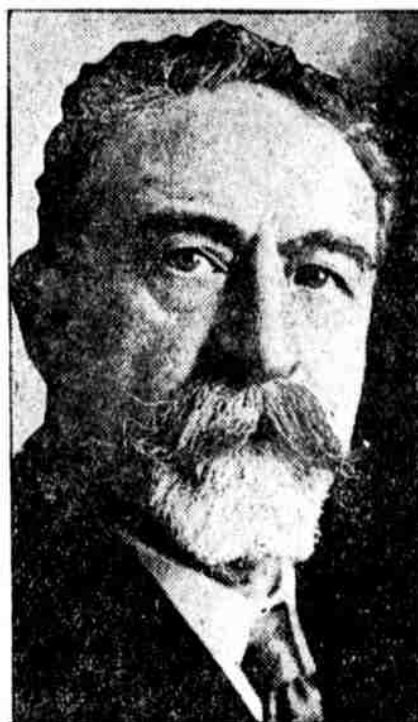

A BUSY CITIZEN. Dr. J. Solis-Cohen was snapped by our photographer as he hurried along Broad street near Walnut. Ledger Photo Service.

ONE LAD HAD ICE CREAM. Eugene Bevan kept on eating as Sylvester Francisco held on to his tricycle and just looked. The lad at the right, Raymond Francisco, laughed a bit. He didn't seem to care. Ledger Photo Service.

AT REST. "Pretty 'oarsmen'" who form the varsity eight of the St. Hilda's College, on the Thames, at Oxford, England. They are undergoing vigorous training in preparation for the early spring races. Central News Photo.

SIGNOR ROLANDO RICCI. The latest photograph of the recently appointed Italian ambassador to the United States. Harris & Ewins.

QUARTET FROM THE ORCHESTRA. George Dorwart, Arthur Hegeman, George Martin and Lawrence Jergenson, of the Belmont Public School, Forty-first and Brown streets. Ledger Photo Service.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL CLARENCE O. SHERRILL, who has been made personal military aide to President Harding. National Photo.

MOUNT HOLYOKE ENDOWMENT FUND CAMPAIGN CHAIRMEN, who selected today's limerick winner. They are, left to right, seated: Miss Florence Clement, Miss M. Margaret May, 221 North Fifteenth street, Harrisburg; Miss Helen E. Heyer, Mount Holly, N. J.; Mrs. A. M. Holding, West Chester, Pa.; Mrs. Clinton A. Strong. Standing: Mrs. H. M. Crist, Mrs. E. S. Hammond, Mrs. P. G. Crommelin, 373 Gregory street, West Orange, N. J.; Mrs. J. M. Boyd, Mrs. Charlotte K. Stevens, Cape May; Miss Louise Connolly, Miss Leah Feder, Miss Mary Hershey, Manheim.

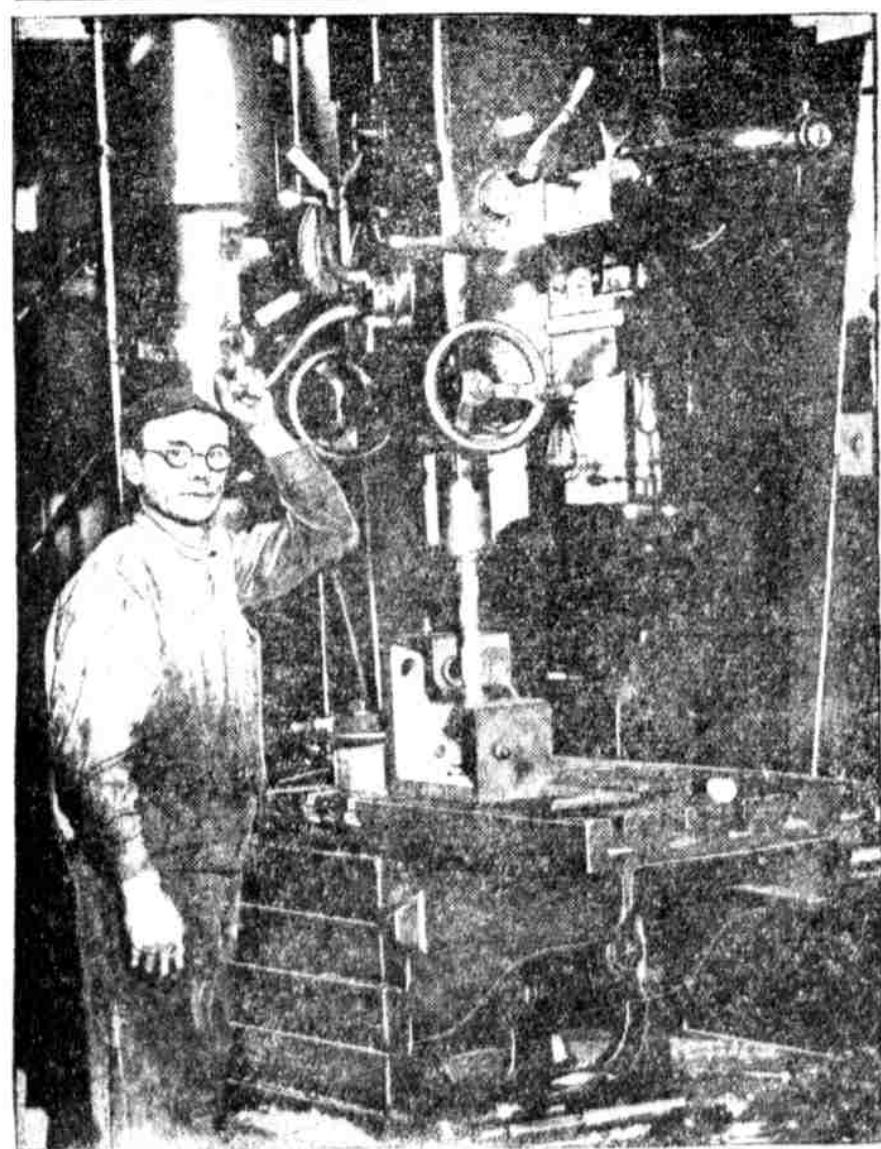

A SWARTHMORE DISCUS THROWER. William Kemp was found on the training field, where he was at an afternoon workout. Ledger Photo Service.

TAKE PART IN FLOWER SHOW. Miss Elaine Faulkner Supple, with the dogs; Mrs. Charles Carver, Jr., with a rabbit, and Mrs. George Horace Lorimer, with a lot of flowers, at the event held yesterday by the Eastern Pennsylvania League of Girls' Clubs at 1525 Locust street. It will continue today. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

CHARLES BOYD, of 3519 Sunnyside avenue, operating a radial drill press at the Link Belt Co., Nicetown. Ledger Photo Service.

A CANINE TEE. Larry Bolger, a golf professional, using a little "stunt" driving at White Sulphur Springs. His alreidae's back serves instead of a bit of sand. Bolger's aim was good. Underwood & Underwood.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

NINETEEN YEARS ON POLICE DUTY. Reserve Patrolman Samuel Ferguson, of 4223 Olive street, has been stationed at Ninth and Market streets for one year. He is forty-five years old. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS ANN RUMBERGER at the flower show held yesterday afternoon by the Princesses Post, No. 7, American Legion, at 6211 Chester avenue. Ledger Photo Service.

LEAVING THE WHITE HOUSE. Yung Kwai, Chinese diplomat, after an official visit. National Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS DOROTHY GOSS 325 De Lancy street Philadelphia