NATALIE BARNES' engagement, too, was a surprise from the very fact that she has not been living here, as she has never seen her and her sister together. Natalie is a sister of John Sellers, of Bryn Mawr, and has been living her home in Washington for a number of years. Formerly she lived at Bryn Mawr, too. She is a cousin of other Barnes, Cecily, who married Louis Gevelin, and Sylvia, who married Commander Todd, of the navy.

DEARLY I never heard anything like the engagements announced Saturday and yesterday. Just one after another. And wasn't McCall Keating a surprise! It's always a surprise when she and her sister come to town, because you will not have seen them together. I hear that Miss Aurora is very attractive and a great favorite here. Keating is a doctor, you know, having followed the profession of his grandfather and father, the Dr. William Keating and John Keating, of this city. He spent a number of years abroad during the war and did some splendid work for his country over there. He is the only son of the late Dr. John M. Keating and Mrs. Keating, who was Miss Edith Keating, his sisters are Mrs. William Bands, Mrs. Elizabeth Keating and Mrs. Mark Wilcox. Dr. Keating and his mother and sister live at Wawa.
