

EASTER CROWD FROM AIRPLANE. This photograph was taken by an EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER photographer, riding in the LEDGER Newsplane, yesterday afternoon, over Atlantic City. The Steel Pier is shown.

OUT FOR A STROLL. Mrs. Gorham Clifton (left) and Miss Jane Hancock among the Easter throng.

WITH HER KNITTED HAT. Miss Violet McLaughlin, of Philadelphia, looked stunning in her Easter attire.

MISS MABEL COOKE as she promenaded, carrying the young pig.

SEEING THE SIGHTS. Miss Phyllis Walsh and Mrs. Brinton Lucas spent much of the day in a rolling chair.

SOME OF THE FOLKS MET IN THE EASTER CROWD ON THE BOARDWALK AT ATLANTIC CITY

NOT ON THE BOARDWALK. There was another Easter Parade yesterday. It was on Broad street, north of Girard avenue. These eight girls, attired in their Easter toggety, were photographed at Broad street and Columbia avenue.

HEADING THE BALL. A member of the Hohlfeld team was snapped in this elevated position while they were being defeated by the Hardwick-Magee soccer team in the final game for the Hohlfeld challenge cup.

COUNCILMANIC SWING. Councilman Charles Hall among those present on the Boardwalk at Atlantic City yesterday.

ALICE BUCK AND HARRY BERG took part in a Purim program given at the alumni building of the Keneseth Israel Congregation yesterday.

AT THE ADATH-JESHURUN CONGREGATION Anna Hirsch and Beatrice Stein assisted in the Festival entertainment.

EASTER FLOWERS BURN. Late Saturday afternoon an N. Snellenburg & Co. delivery automobile was destroyed by fire on the Roosevelt Boulevard. Many Easter plants were ruined.

C. C. A. BALDI discusses Americanization in an interview on the Editorial Page.

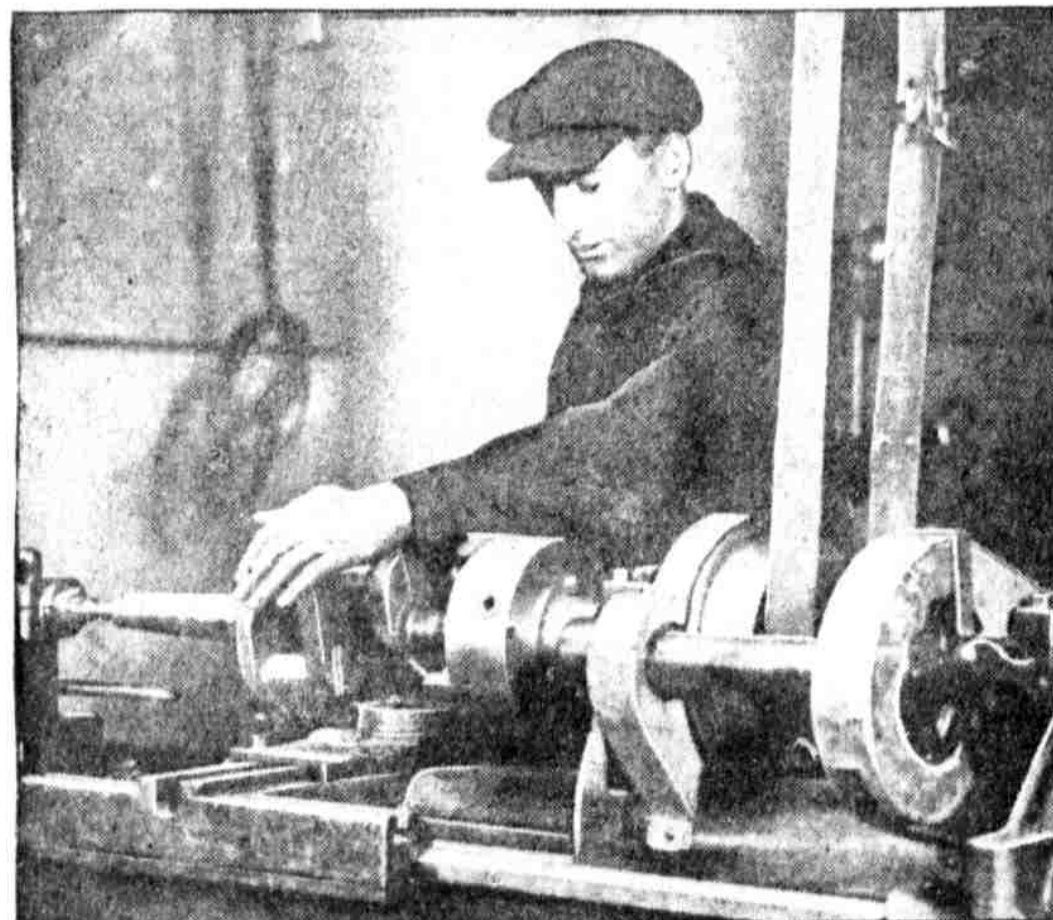

LUIGI RIENZI, COSTUMERS, 1714 Walnut street, furnished a jury to select today's Limerick winner. Their names (left to right), seated: Mrs. Violetta C. Arnold, Jannetta F. Keep, Mrs. E. F. Reber. Standing: Mrs. L. L. Dungen, Miss May Godfrey, Miss Bella Weeks, Miss Catharine I. Waters.

SUNDAY AT ESSINGTON. Everybody in sight was assisting the owners of "Eva" in the spring launching. The men are at work in front of the Riverside Yacht Club.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

GEORGE STRAUCH, 1507 North Marvine street, refinishing crankshafts in a lathe at the Superior Auto Repair and Machine Shop, 1506 North Marvine street.

TWO SISTERS IN BLUE. These Philadelphia girls, Miss Kathryn Ailes and Miss Mildred Ailes, in the Atlantic City crowd.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

NINE YEARS AT EIGHTH AND MARKET STREETS. Reserve Patrolman Leslie Patterson is forty years old and has been a policeman for twelve years. He lives at 6033 Elmwood avenue and has twelve children.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

ON HER WAY TO EUROPE. Madame Pavlova, the Russian dancer, sailed on the S. S. Finland from New York on Saturday.

MISS A. PHILIPPS 2313 North Hope Street, Philadelphia, Pa.