Why Wall street is reading a Philadelphia paper

A business man with large interests said to us recently: "Do you know that all Wall Street is reading the Public Ledger?'

When asked why, he replied, "To get Evans' daily letter from Chicago. Bankers say it is the clearest and sanest financial letter that ever came out of the Middle West."

That the world's greatest money center, well served by an excellent local press, should look for its Chicago news to a paper published in another city, is eloquent testimony to the brilliance of the report which Clinton B. Evans puts on the wire from Chicago six nights a week.

Mr. Evans has for years been editor of the Economist, the leading financial paper of the

That cities other than New York appreciate his letter is shown by the fact that many newspapers print it regularly by arrangement with the Ledger Syndicate.
