It Was' Like the Opening of a Great Exposition When The Gimbel Store Started This Morning The Sale of the Wonderful---

Stocks of Vantine's New York

A. A. Vantine & Co.--the country's foremost orientalist for seventy-five years--conducted at 39th Street and Fifth Avenue, New York, a great departmentized store for the selling of everything from the Orient and many things of American make that were compatible with the lines.

Each class of goods had its specialist--and Vantine Porcelains, or Vantine Furniture, or Vantine Kimonos, or embroidered linens or cottons, or wonder challis, or what not, represented not part of a hodge-podge, but the collecting of an expert.

With the Vantine goods we include many Oriental imports gathered by our experts. Yet the addition of Gimbel goods is kept clear to the public. "Vantine price; sale price" means an actual bit of Vantine goods, or package of tea, or sweetmeats. "Gimbel price; sale price" means a Gimbel import of Kimonos and equal goods. In all--
