

T. Peirce, when she and Moss were walking from the scene of the murder at 2007 Market street to her apartment murder. at 2049 Walnut street.

The girl; who was indicted with Moss on charges of murder and being accessories after the fact in the murder of Peirce, was the commonwealth's star witness against him today when his trial began in Criminal Court No. 1. Room 453, City Hall, Judge Audenried presiding.

Several statements she made under twelve: May, ten, and Robert, eight, were in the courtroom when sentence was passed. Feldkeller expressed a oath on the witness stand were entirely passed. new to the case and seemed damaging was was passed. Feidkeller expressed a desire to see them. "No, he killed mama; we don't want to go up there." the eldest child called out as the father was led to the sheriff's to Moss.

The defendant, indicted first for murder, and then as an accessory, refused celiroom, They were persuaded to have a farewell meeting with Feldkeller, but relatives who were present at the brief reunion said the children acted indifto plead guilty to the minor charge, as the commonwealth had offered to let him do, and get off with a light senferently toward their father. tence. He said he preferred to take his chances, so that he might have the satisfaction of being held guiltless on both charges by the jury.

The testimony of the girl, who will be tried on the same charges as soon sentence. as Moss' trial is concluded, made it seem that Moss might have more trouble "Speak to your counsel," Mr. Gordon seem that Moss might have more trouble entirely clearing thimself than he had anticipated. The girl testified that when they reached the apartment on Walnut "Yes," said the defendant, "I didn't "Yes," said the defendant, "I didn't street Moss had advised her not to mean to kill her; I didn't want to kill lock the door, as it might look "sus-picious"; had counseled her to feign illness if any one came to question them, saying Treadway had gone for medicine; and urged her to tell any one who might ask that she had not been out of her room all the evening.

Created Mild Sensation

The new testimony created something of a sensation in the courtroom, as it street, the slain woman's brother-in-law, said today he will adopt May, the was believed the trial of Peter D. Treadway, recently found guilty of sec-ond degree murder for the same crime and sentenced to nineteen years and six months in the penitentiary, had devel-by another relative, Charles Margin, 172 South Twenty sweth street, Camboli, Souther, while Anna is to be adopted by another relative, Charles Magin, 172 South Twenty sweth street, Camboli, South Street, Street, Charles Magin, 172 South Twenty-seventh street, Camden. About twenty witnesses testified to-day for the defense. They told of Feldoped every last shred of evidence in the So

Moss pleaded not guilty to the acces-sory charge. He had pleaded not guil-ty to the murder charge when he was arraigned with Treadway and the girl not long after all three were arrested last fall. The immediate the transformation of the stream of the children while Mrs. Feldkeller, they said, was away from home at night.

The jury was chosen in five minutes, neither side apparently making much effort to keep any jurors off the panel. Assistant District Attorney Speiser, for the commonwealth, challenged one juror, and Henry M. Stevenson, Moss' attorney challenged one. The other men called were accepted.

Moss Took Her Away

Department of Agriculture. Unless there is increased consumption "Boots" took the stand in the same of this vegetable, the department said, there will be a great waste of the old crop, of which there is now an estimated plum-colored suit she has worn every time she has been in court. She looked pale, but seemed more cheerful than when she appeared at the Treadway trial. She replied to questions in a large surplus in the spring crop, which large surplus in the spring crop, which was reported to be from two to four firm, clear voice. "When Elliott struck Peirce." she was reported to be from two to fo said, describing the crime, "Moss stag-

Continued on Page Four. Column One

degree. Feldkeller, whose crime made his three children motherless, was was allowed to plead guilty of second-degree

First Degree Proved

Asks to Address Court

where she was revived.

"EAT ONIONS." U. S. URGES

Department of Agriculture Fears

Waste of Crops

When you the s of writing.

the ex-ruler's visit was supplied to-day, and numerous details have devel-another upstate jurist. d from various details have devel-d from various quarters. The former ruler, it appears, came Budapest accompanied by two inds. He arrived at the palace at o'clock int he afternoon and the palace at victed with a superstate jurist. In his plea for the immediate freedom of his client Mr. Scott said: "We are not going to press a motion victed with a superstate jurist. Judge Quigley, sitting in Room 653, City Hall, who sentenced Feldkeller, said evidence had been produced to show that circumstances caused such a condi-tion of mind in the defendant that there oped from various quarters. riends. o'clock int he afternoon and inwas some extenuation for the crime, although, he said, the commonwealth vited Admiral Horthy, the regent, to there is no doubt that we would not be turn over the reins of government to granted a new trial if the application

him. The regent, however, after set. was made, ting forth constitutional and political "No man objections refused the plea and induced would be at had proved all the elements of first him. "No man; no matter how innocent, degree murder. The slayer's three children, Anna, ting forth constitutional and political objections refused the plea and induced would be able to escape conviction who the ex-monarch to promise to return to Switzerland. Charles is reported now to be at could not escape if he were in his posi-

Charles is reported now to be at Steinamanger, in West Hungary, near tion, and for that reason we ourselves on the mercy of the court. the Austrian frontier, at which place he topped on his way from Switzerland before coming to Budapest. He was ac-companied on his return journey from Eudapest by Premier Teleky. He halted at Steinamanger on the pretext of indisposition, spent the night there and refused to leave Tuesday morning. He believed, it was said, that he might win

Mr. Maloney not appeared. "District Attorney Rotan and I difover the troops there to his side After short addresses had been made C. Stuart Patterson, Jr., for the When Charles halted at Steinamanger on his journey into Hungary he defense and by Assistant District Atade an effort to align the him, pleading torney Gordon, the judge pronounced authorities there with day after he received the verdict he colwith General Lehar, in command at Steinamanger, for support. General 'May I say a few words," stam Lehar, however, refused the request, calling attention to his oath of loyalty to the Horthy government. Admiral Horthy is said to be con-vinced that the restoration of Charles would be a source of danger to Hun-gary. A large part of the Budapest garrison, as well as General Lehar's troops, are declared to be opposed to the eturn of Charles to the throne. The French, British and Italian high commissioners here held a conference ofter the ex-ruler's visit, and the Britstreet, a sister of Feldkeller, fainted in the courtroom when her brother ish commissioner, who is dean of the corps, went to the regent and reminded sentenced to the penitentiary. Court attaches carried her to an anteroom, him of the opposition of the Allies to the eturn of the Hapsburgs to power.

Children to Be Adopted

Budapest, March 29 (delayed.)-

H. J. Anderson, 2064 East Venange where they were to have spent last

Budapest, March 29 (delayed.) — Fears were expressed here tonight that a sanguinary conflict might break out between supporters and opponents of radiator leak having developed in one

Delay Due to Mishap

CARL C. SHANFELTER.

1208 N. Broad Street

Continued on Pare Two. Column Six machine.

Another Persistent Cuss

Eight times he got on the ballot, and he thanks his stars for a jury of scholars who remembered another kind of raven than the red variety. He won't mind be-ing called a "cuss," either. He was for two years and two months in the A. E. F., Enlisted Signal Corps. He knows what it is to be called a "hero" in the headlines and purpler things in company formation. Hence, possibly, his winning idea taken from Poe's bird and its meaningful "Nevermore!"

No. 87

Washington, March 30.-(By A. P.) "Eat onlons" was the advice given A sweet little miss, at the shore, -"Eat onions" was the advice given to the American people today by the In bathing, cried, "Hear the sea roar; It sounds either sad Or most awfully mad---

If it's 'raven' I'll 'Poe's' 'Nevermore."

Cold Weather Doesn't Freeze Up Jingle Boxes. Kiddles Learn Rhythm From Writing 'Em. Third Page From the Last days, but the crew is said to have been in no great danger, as the two men had provisions enough to last for a month. As the barge was lost in a frequently used sea route it was virtually certain intendents or persons in charge of ordered mines, washeries or operations when at once. used sea route it was virtually certain to be picked up. The lighter was on its way from this port to Tampico, Mexico, to take on a cargo of oil. It is owned by the Union etroleum Co. victed with a reasonable doubt, but there is no doubt that we would not be

MILKMAN SAVES FAMILY

Arouses Occupants of House When He Discovers Fire

David Weiss, his wife and their four small children, of 1624 Germantown avenue, were saved by a milk wagon driver at 3 o'clock this morning, when Instrument of District Attorney

"Mr. Maloney was the instrument of North Eighth street, saw smoke pouring e district attorney's office, used to from the house as he was delivering the district attorney's office, used to from the house as he was delivering convict all the others in connection milk. He knocked on the door until he with the Fifth ward case. I date say awakened Mrs. Weiss. She took her there would have been no conviction had two-year-old daughter, Rosie, in her arms and made her way to safety.

The father, who also was awakened fer in our ideas. I say Maloney should ran to the third floor, where the other ing to the fact that the gasoline tax not have been convicted. Since that three children slept. They are Frank, bill, only offered last Monday night, time he has been in a hospital. The nine; Sadie, eight, and William, four was reported out of the ways and verdict was a terrible shock to him. The years old. He hurried them to the means committee of the House last street. The lower floor of the dwelling is used pital up to last Thursday. The punish-ment he has already received I think is store. A defective flue is said to have sufficient. When the men were brought been the cause of the blaze. was confined to the first floor. Damage

Continued on Page Four. Column Eight was estimated at $800. NAVY FLIERS EN ROUTE

HELD FOR STRANGE ACTIONS Resume Journey to Virgin Islands.

Man Accused by Milk Driver of Trying Many Doors

Richmond, Va., March 30.-(By A. P.)—Two marine corps airplanes which innded here yesterday from Washington en route to the Virgin Islands, and con-cerning which much concern had been expressed, took the air again at 9:30 today, bound for Fayetteville, N. C. this morning. A milk driver reported to Patrolman Jefferies that he had been watching the man for some time and when the patrol man approached him he took to his

He said he was Michael Felin, twenty-eight years old, of 521 Randolph street, but he is thought by the police to be William Wright, of Norristown. He was held under $400 ball by Magis. trate Magner today for further hear ng.

Former Helena Zimmerman Reported to Have Obtained Decree

New York, March 30. - Has the Duchess of Manchester been granted a it is an open secret in English society that the former Helena Zimmerman. House Passes Bill Requiring Proof Mother Asks Police to Find Youth of Cincinnati, has been granted her With Rate Rise Requests marital freedom. Should these reports be correct they Harrisburg, March 30 .- The Mc-

Toward the end of the world war applying for approval of higher rates his home at 603 Endly street, last Sat-Toward the end of the world war the Duke and Duchess of Manchester patched up their differences, and, it is said in London society, had decided to begin all over again. The attempt was midently not successful. The Duke and Duchess of Manchester public Service Commission data show-ing the necessity for increased rates, passed finally in the House. The Duke and Duchess of Manchester Public Service Commission data show-ing the necessity for increased rates, passed finally in the House. The Ducke and Duckess of Manchester Public Service Commission data show-ing the necessity for increased rates, passed finally in the House. The Ducke and Duckess of support. The Arch. Mrs. Hawti

Another McVicar bill, repeating the "filers" chess and her four children

The duchess and her four children— Lady Mary Montagu, Lady Louise Montagu, Lord Edward Montagu and Viscount Mandeville—are living very quietly at Lakenham, their estate in North Devrashire, England.

Want U. S. P .ps as Symbol So far as tro os on the Rhine are concerned, France hopes that we shall through the lower chamber. Penrose however, suddenly changed that and keep a few of our men there as a symcharge of ordered that the bill go down to defeat bol of our association with our late Allies, Allies, though it does not expect us to use them against Germany in any event. If his bill, on special order for passage, it was evident he was clear through. He sailed into an herself from the allied nations by pass-ing the Knox resolution. It is not feit to be an essential in the relations of States should accept the Versailles "For the most part," said the spon-sor, "the present Board of Education is treaty with whatever amendment will, chooses. But France hopes she will, This would be another country is in general agreement with the Allies. The tone of Europe has greatly changed since the days of the Peace Conference when Mr. Wilson was in "Some of the members of this board have been so long in the service that the board is owned, operated and con-trolled by its chairman. Mr. Greek controlled by its chairman, Mr. Gratz, and one or two others. It is an autocratic undemocratic body, run without regard wanted in the Lagung of the Prace France wanted in the League of Nations a super-government with an armed force. It wanted this country to assume obli-Blamed for Low Wage

'By failing, for example, to use its gations in Europe to keep Germany

Il taxing power, the board has al-wed the schools to slip. "It failed to sell bonds to give the moral participation in the affairs of the world. At Paris the Allies were constantly suggesting the cancellation of war debts, of America's guarantee of its national war loans. Today that is seen to have been a mistake and the future of war loans is left to be deter-mined by coming economic develop-ments. Europe is asking a great deal here then it none caled less than it once asked.

Great Powers Less Arrogant

Also the great powers are much lose togant than they were when M. arrogant than they were when emenceau told the small nations in Paris that they were only there on the suffrance of the big military victors of the late war. A curious illustration of this change of attitude and of the way the League of Nations justified itself at Geneva is found in view of the Vi-

Continued on Page Two, Column Two

LT. CONEY SINKING RAPIDLY

Physicians Attending Injured Aviator See Little Hope

Natchez, Miss., March 30.-(By A. P.)-Lieutenant W. D. Coney, trans-continental aviator, who fell near Crowville, La., on a return flight from Florida to California last Friday, was sinking rapidly today, according to the attending physician.

WOMAN ON FEDERAL JURY

Mrs. Norris Scott Said to Be First Selected for Criminal Case

Mrs. Norris Scott, said to be the first woman juror called in a criminal case in federal court, was today chosen as member of the jury before Judge Thompson to decide a case against John vicar bill, providing that all utilities teen years old, who disappeared from Dunn and Elwood McCloskey, on the applying for approval of higher rates his home at 603 Enfly street, last Sat-charge of selling whisky illegally at charge of selling whisky illegally at Dunn's saloon. Fifty-sixth street near

> Mrs. Ida Williams, Mrs. Edward T. Hawthorne and Miss Mary L. Seltzer were called, but when objection was made by counsel for the defendants they avenue station have sent out

They made no comment on the ob-iections voiced by the defendants' counsel. There are seven women in the Recent arrivals from England say will mean that another international Vicar bill, providing that all utilities teen years old, who disappeared from alliance has been shattered.

fire attacked their home. Samuel Rosen, the driver, of 1607 prison of the women and of the rural legis-lators for immediate action, are point-night, and that the coal tax bill will go

5, her agents said.

of the amendment.

UTILITIES TO PROVE NEEDS

Friends of Joseph R. Grundy, presi-prepared for market or shipped, the tax to be fixed daily. The act would be-come effective July 1, 1921, and fifteen days after December 31 annually sworn "bot" clear through. He sailed into an reports on the tonnage and tax are to be made and the tax is to be paid as are other taxes to the state. Provision He explained that he was not moved by this country and France that the United made for the state's fiscal officers to personal animosity to offer the bill.

review any report if necessary, but in case of failure or neglect on the part of a coal producer to make a report composed of venerable, respectable, honest men in all walks of life. But officers are to make a settlement and add 10 per cent penalty. This sum the people of Philadelphia do not know is to be payable in thirty days and no what goes on in that body. It is all appeal can be taken as may be done other settlements of the tax. A penalty of $500 fine and a year in

The tax is to be assessed by super-

$172,000,000 Asked in Bills Sproul leaders, in answer to demands in today.

Continued on Page Two, Column Three Continued on Page Two, Column One

a vote, the vote is gone through with Paris, prison or both or either is prescribed for a person violating the act.

to the people.

full

FIRE ON STEAMSHIP GUIANA EXTINGUISHED

Guiana, of the Quebec Steamship Company, reported yesterday from St. Kitts in messages to relatives of passengers, has been extinguished, and the ship has resumed her voyage to Lew York.

representatives of the company here have been advised. She is due at St. Thomas today and is expected in New York about April

SIX-HOUR DAY DEFEATED IN VICTORIA, B. C.

VICTORIA, B. C., March 30 .- A proposed amendment to the

MISSING BOY SOUGHT

Who Disappeared Saturday

The mother of Nathan Lerman, fifcoal regulation act, calling for a revision in the working day of miners from eight to six hours, has been defeated in the legislature. Thomas Uphill, labor member from Pernie, was author

NEW YORK. March 30 .- The fire on board the steamship

lowed the

done in star-chamber proceedings, and when the propositions are presented for