

CITY HALL COURT YARD. This unusual view was taken from City Hall tower. The archway leading into South Broad street is shown, at the left of which is the tower where the prisoner's elevator to Central Station is located. Prisoners to and from the criminal courts are handled through the tower at the right.

ROPING STEERS FROM AN AUTO—THE LATEST. The wild and woolly west is no longer so wild and woolly. The auto has taken the place of the broncho. Marfa, Texas, is the scene of the photograph.

THE TORTOISE WON THE RACE. The hare was second and last. This all happened on the campus of Wilson College at Chambersburg. The tortoise was jockeyed by Rachel Guerin, while Sara Pearce seconded the loser.

GETTING SIMPLEX READY. A Voelker, the owner, was assisted by W. J. Robinson at Essington. This boat won the Philadelphia to Atlantic City race last summer.

READY FOR THE HEAVE. John Earn, a member of the track and field team of Swarthmore College, getting the kinks out for approaching meets.

FEEDING A WHITE-TAIL DEER. C. Emerson Brown, head of the Philadelphia Zoo, spent yesterday keeping away from the telephone, as many April fool victims were calling for Miss Hove and Mr. Fox.

DOING ROAD WORK. No, he is not a pugilist. We show you Johnson, an American jockey, at Belmont Park, New York.

"FARM FOLKS." It was presented in aid of the Home for Aged Couples and Aged Men, Bala, at the Central North Broad Street Presbyterian Church. Miss Ann Henry (left) was one of the society folks, while Helen Kelly and George Hager were much in evidence during the production.

THE SQUIRE. One of the busy citizens of the Main Line is Justice of the Peace Herbert S. Sullivan, of Ardmore.

STILL AT IT. As long as the weather keeps cool, soccer players will not stop kicking the ball about. There are a few big games scheduled before the summer test is taken.

COLONEL F. P. BARBA discusses the res-sequential transportation problem in an Editorial Page interview.

THE NEWMAN SOCIETY, UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA, furnished the jury that picked today's winner. Their names, reading left to right are: (Seated) Mary K. Lovatt, E. S. O'Donnell, Hugh B. Flannigan, Catharine Haddock; (standing) Francis B. Bowler, W. E. Sullivan, James E. Moran, Harrison Lee, E. H. O'Neill, T. P. Donahue, E. L. Brown, Martin F. Varley, Clarence V. Halpin, Thomas C. McVey, A. A. Fleck, John Murren, Jr., James F. Somers.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

HERBERT WARD, 1122 Wallace street, placing exportators on shelves for baking after they have been roasted. They are left in the oven for two hours. The station is a part of the plant of Charles F. Brown, 118 South Front street.

CLIFFORD MINTZ gives a good job of music-making on his cello as a member of the orchestra of the Belmont School, Forty-first and Brown streets.

SCOTCH DANCING. Florence Reibert and Thelma Koutz are members of the special dancing group of the West Philadelphia Y. M. C. A.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN EDWARD LANDY, 2822 Wharton street, has been stationed at Thirteenth and Market streets for five years. He joined the police force ten years ago.

HENRY WHITE, Former ambassador to Italy and France, snapped as he left the White House a few days ago.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS BEBE McMICHAEL, 2333 South Colorado Street Philadelphia