

GREEK PRINCE DIES IN TURKISH BATTLE

Andreas, Brother of King Constantine, Reported Killed in Fight Near Brusa

ATHENS COMMANDER SLAIN

By the Associated Press. London, April 4.—Prince Andreas of Greece, brother of King Constantine, has died from wounds received in fighting near Brusa, says a Constantinople dispatch to the Evening News, quoting a Turkish announcement. The Turkish also assert that General Macdonald, who was in command of the Greek attack against the Turkish Nationalists on the Brusa front, has been killed in action.

PRINCE ANDREAS OF GREECE Brother of King Constantine, who is reported to have lost his life in an engagement with the Turks near Brusa.

Feeling is running high in Constantinople and minor incidents are occurring daily between the Turks and Greeks, according to the Constantinople correspondent of the Times. The Venizelists appear to have buried the hatchet, confidently expecting, the correspondent adds, that King Constantine will enter Constantinople at the head of the Greek Army by May 1.

Prince Andreas of Greece was the third son of the late King George. He was born in Athens on January 20, 1882, and served in the Greek army during the Balkan War of 1912. Following the flight of King Constantine from Greece in 1917, it was reported he aspired to the throne, but this move was said to have been blocked by M. Venizelos, then premier of Greece. After the return to Athens of King Constantine, Prince Andreas was appointed general in the Greek army and late last month was said to be in command of a division of the front. He was married to Princess Alice of Battenberg on October 7, 1903.

ANNIE LOUISE CARY DEAD

Songbird of 50 Years Ago Whose Voice Had Range of 3 1/2 Octaves. Norfolk, Conn., April 4.—Annie Louise Cary, famous prima donna of 50 years ago, died in her home here yesterday. She was the widow of Charles M. Raymond, a former New York banker, and as Mrs. Raymond she had lived here since 1888. She was seventy-nine years old and death was due to the infirmities of age.

In January, 1874, she sang the role of Mirella in the American being the first American woman to appear in a Wagnerian opera, although the opera was given in Italian in the Strakoska company. She continued singing in opera concerts and festivals until the spring of 1882. In June of that year she married. The range of Annie Louise Cary's voice was remarkable being three and a half octaves.

BUS BILL AWAITS EDWARDS' ACTION

Legislature to Stop Its Clocks Unless Adjourned by 3 P. M. Friday

READY TO DEFY ANY VETO

By the Associated Press. Trenton, April 4.—Unless present plans of Republican leaders to adjourn the 1921 legislative session here will adjourn Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock after a thirteen weeks' session, both houses some weeks ago agreed by concurrent resolution to close down the law mills April 8.

Should both Houses fail to complete necessary business Friday afternoon, the official clocks will be stopped at about 2:35 p. m., at that time the session does and the timepiece will record the adjournment hour 3 p. m.

Republican leaders are as anxious as Governor Edwards that the session adjourn without delay. Last year the Legislature remained in session the year around, meeting periodically to check up on Republican officials dismissed by the governor. The executive's meddling process either is completed or else Republican legislators do not desire to stand in the governor's way of further dismissals.

GRAYSON TO WRITE BOOK

Ex-President Wilson's Physician to Answer Lansing's Criticisms. Washington, April 4.—A defense of ex-President Wilson from the criticism made by Robert Lansing in his recently published book and magazine articles will be undertaken in a volume which Rear Admiral Cary T. Grayson is preparing to write. A close adviser of Mr. Wilson, in discussing the projected work today, said he expected it to "turn the laugh on Mr. Lansing."

Dr. Grayson's book will be prepared from material contained in a diary that he has kept during the past three or four years that he has been associated with Mr. Wilson. It is said to be a day-by-day record of the behind-the-scenes life of Woodrow Wilson. Dr. Grayson dictated the material for his diary every day while the matter he wished to record, whether fact or anecdote or observation, was fresh in his mind. Throughout these tense days at the Hotel Crillon in Paris there were few moments when Dr. Grayson was not close to his chief's side. The physical deterioration that finally resulted in the complete collapse and almost in the death of Mr. Wilson was already perceptible to his doctor.

PEACE IN IRELAND BY AUGUST SEEN

Many Developments in Situation Held to Point Way to Settlement

LLOYDS REFUSE WAGERS

By the Associated Press. Dublin, April 4.—The opinion is expressed by competent observers that the Irish situation has undergone a considerable change for the better since St. Patrick's Day. A month ago Dublin decided the peace prophets, but today predictions that there will be a settlement of the controversy in the near future are universal. Lloyds declined to accept here offered during the week that peace will be brought about before August.

Outwardly conditions have not improved. There has been no cessation of warfare in any part of the disturbed districts, and the trouble is spreading to Ulster.

Government circles do not conceal their anxiety over the prospect that the Sinn Fein will sweep Southern Ireland and win an overwhelming majority of the seats in the Southern Parliament. With the Nationalists and Sinn Feiners operating in the North, the task of establishing the Ulster Parliament is recognized as fraught with political hazards.

It is confidently asserted here that the Sinn Fein would be willing to negotiate peace on the basis of full dominion status.

Club at which General Bannbridge, in command of the troops in Ulster, is a frequent visitor. Only one of the bombs exploded, and this caused neither damage nor casualties, although it produced much excitement. The bomb throwers escaped.

Dublin, April 4.—By A. P.—Flinging columns of the Irish Republican army are officially reported to be operating in Fermanagh, Armagh, Tyrone, Kildare and Queen's counties. There has been much destruction of roads and in many cases intimidation has been resorted to. The columns invariably disappear on the approach of crown forces, the official reports say.

A light occurred last night in the hills near Dundrum, four miles south of Dublin. Crown forces had proceeded to the hills in forces to investigate reports of firing. They found twenty armed men, some of whom, after firing at the military, mingled with women and children who were fleeing, for which reason the crown forces refrained from using their machine guns.

They pursued the others, however, who were escaping to another hill and shot two. The remainder set fire to the shrubbery on the hillside and escaped in the smoke screen.
