LINCOLN SHOWN IN MOVING DRAMA

John Drinkwater's Chronicle-Play Recreates Substance and Spirit of Master American

Broad .- Americans for whom Abra m Lincoln's figure takes on the hair reportions of devoted sainthood artyrdom, will find that figure as protagonist of John Drinkwater Abraham Lincoln. nely and human, saintly and Written by this rising English at-playwright for his own people in ime of war-turmoll and recon-in-toil, without thought of a fu-American audience, the play is y impressive for Americans laborthe same stress and vitality je without obvious, or even conwell to let Mr. Drink carry across the footlights, before his own Amer-ay perhaps be allowed two observations. people. I may perhaps be allowed people. I may perhaps be allowed people. I may be people it is not the man the peak. But I should like it to be peak but I should like it to be peak but I should like it to be peak. But I should like it to be peak but I should like it to be peak. But I should like it to be peak bu for this artistic purpose (and example of the greatest drama-bave adapted the events of hisbave adapted the events of hismy needs; feeling justified in literal fact to the service of truth as I saw it, or in the of a fictitious character, such et Hook. Precise records are i in many volumes; my hope to add a little to the spiritual ation of these.

But the suspicion creeps in that perhaps the older daughter was, herself, highly susceptible to the luxuries of the life, she him.

ales in which he gives, through finely the daughter's honor. Having chosen the oin's career, of his acceptance of career, Mrs. Moreland nomination, his judgment of John him rustic and simplefine compassion as shown inded, his fine compassion as shown his attitude toward a "gold star other" of the day and toward a delinuent boy soldier, his backing of Grant and his final tragedy. These are the tents shown in the six scenes, pages orn from American history almost literally and linked together by the sonous verse, lyrical in tone, philosophial in quality, recited by a Chronicler (Greek charts manner. chorus manner.

is not a drama Abrabam Lincoln of the old touchstones or defini-Some of its material is so faas to be in itself merely trite. import as touched by the poet's agination. It has sequence, though odly plot of action, but it has moverhetorical, rather conversa- later, after breaking with Galt. i even casual, but always in-Rightly has Mr. Drinkwater the devices of conventional g: rightly avoided "techwriting: rightly avoided "technews his offer of marriage. Mrs. More-land accepts. Then Call arrives again, formalities would ill befit the at and rugged form of Lincoln. As such large simplicity and the essendignity and the deep-seated gendignity a imagined Lincoln with start-It was a real Lincoln the au-The physical impertion of Lincoln at three periods of olo was always believable and ining. Of the two score other char-ers, not one failed to fit the scenes creditable. other historic personages were ad-table in make-up and insight.

MICHEL PENHA IN RECITAL

Cellist of Philadelphia Orchestra Leonore Ulric Stars in New Belasco Appears in Trying Program first public recital last eve-

In this country.

Ir. Penha selected a trying and on while an "ungrateful" program.

The selected a trying and on while an "ungrateful" program.

The selected a trying and on since he cannot give a son to fight.

Unlike "East Is West," of recent memory, this melodrama by George memory, this melodrama by George ty, except perhaps in the very his rendition last evening. arineipal number was the Hayda played according to the Gadiscreet changes, of the soloist. It he style of the soloist. brilliant piece of cello perform-

BURLESQUE BILLS

arzan, Novel Entertainer, at Cano-Gabby Wilton at Trocadero fasine "Jack Singer's Show" has a Tarzan is a novelty featured funmakers are Harry

Continuing Attractions

ADELPHI—"Adam and Eva." a smart comedy by Guy Bolton and George Middleton, joint authors of "Polly With a Past." The plot has to do with a rich man whose family are typical of the idle rich. The magnate engages a business manager, who by subterfuge puts the whole family on its own responsibility for winning its way, Out of the situation many amusing scenes develop. The cast includes Molly McIntyre, "William Boyd, Diantha Pattison and Berton Churchill.

Churchill.

CHBSTNUT—"The Whirl of the Town." the newest Century Theatre Promenade production. Jean Schwartz wrote the music and Haroid Atterbridge is the librettist. The scenery is colorful and striking. The rich costuming is the creation of French modistes. In the long list of entertainers are Mile. Anna Codee, of the Folies Bergere, Paris; Brendel and Burt, the eccentric comedy pair; Clarence Nordstrom. Jimmy Hussey, Clarence Harvey and Georgie Price, all noted for cleverness.

FLORENCE REED TENSE t might be well to recover through his programmed "Aurer, throug scrutiny.

Mr. Selwyn would have his audience believe that Mrs. Irene Moreland, posing as a divorcee, chose her profes-sion in New York in order that her reserved in many volumes; my hope reserved in it is deal at the suspicion creeps in that perhaps the older daughter was, herestless of the life she chose. The idea persists deas and fulfilled his ideals. His is arresting, gripping and moving. It is also be could provide in the way of creature comforts would make up in the mother's happiness for the loss of the daughter's hope.

Having chosen the "bad woman" career, Mrs. Moreland grows weary of it after seven years. Al Manning, the man from back home, is in New York his stand for the Constitution, his of compromise, his policy that can't do a right thing in a wrong his mastery of a Cabinet which Perhaps she would have married him without clearing up that detail. Coincidence intervenes. Mrs. Moreland's "friend" gives a little party at his home for some out-of-town business home for some out-of-town business men. Mrs. Moreland goes without the knowledge of her fiance from home, because she had promised to be present Manning goes, too, believing the party merely a business gathering, sans

Henry M. Galt. Mrs. Moreland's friend of convenience, and the business friend of Manning, clears matters in a very effective way when he discovers that his business prospect has proposed marriage to Mrs. Moreland. He stands for truth, as a matter of fact, for all his distasteful manner. The disillulot of action, but it has move-otion always forward. Much stoned home-town man leaves. Mrs.

> The next day, with a better understanding of her past, Manning of Eric

The illogical play does not prevent ined Lincoln with start- Florence Reed from making a personal but with more than mere triumph in the role of Mrs. Moreland. Again and again she wen applause with her varied and appropriate emotional-ism. Malcolm Williams, as Henry M. Galt, the moneyed friend of Mrs. was illusive; the spiritual Moreland, is a master delineater of the always believable—and inthe two score other charne failed to fit the scenes is. The players who enSeward, Lee, Meade and Moreland, is a misser delivery of the man-about-town. The work of Alan Dinehart, the Al Manning, is entirely creditable. Beatrice Noyes, as Betty Bond, gold-digging friend of Mrs.
Moreland's, added a bit of humorous

"THE SON-DAUGHTER"

nds possible upon technique, mu-schip and temperament. If Mr. not a single Occidental character, nor a had chosen the numbers which he a single suggestion of scene outside of with the express purpose of showing Chinatown. From the time that the restility in the various phases of audience passed by the quaintly almondhe could not have made a better a.

he could not have made a better the joss-scented the interest the play's pened with the P major sonata close, they had been observing the major, a work which was in companion of Pell street, the rustling tapesbegun under protest, but tries, the dark plottings, the fantastic vertheless, shows no lack of images, of the theatre's own, choicest ('hinatown.

of the first movement, the of which Mr. Penha did not a Chinatown of the theatre, despite Mr. Belasco's best efforts to impart realism. followed this with the C minor of Bach, one of the more seldom dof the cello suites, and probably tenson. Mr. Penha apparently did string to G, but the playing of string to G, but the playing of ora an unnaturally high pitch. In certain seemed to be lost upon the without this technical aid was tain scenes this method of hers was significantly as indeed it would be except it should. And it might be added that and it would be except it should. And it might be added that temperamentally Miss Ulric's Lien What beings on further complications. The played some was the Haydn was only a thinly disguised Time B.

was only a thinly disguised Tiger Rose. story has a love interest that is pretty Clark H. Silvernail gave the most and human between the lad and the notable performance among the sup-porting members of the cast, and Thomas Findlay as the unfortunate father, was his usual assured and strik finer, subtle touches in Mr. Belasco's staging. Would it not be just as proper to mention one or two points that to mention one or two points that caught the attention enough to irritate? For example, the "crowd"—off-stage throughout one act—was much too obliging in its murmuring at only quiet moments, and much too mechanical when it did shout. The moonlight also was painfully off color when one considers the usual remarkable lighting a remarkable lighting light

GEORGE ARLISS MAKES DEBUT IN THE MOVIES

His "Devil" Reveals Personality. Constance Talmadge, Marion Davies, May Allison Star

Stanley-"The Devil" serves to inroduce another legitimate-stage star to the screen. This play has George Arliss as its star, while "Kismet" had Otis Skinner, another celebrity whose work was given initial presentation in silent form at this new playhouse. Ference Molnar's story served for the scenario of Edmund Goulding, which James Young FOLLIES ARE A SPRING

This story will be rather difficult for the general public to understand because the director has not changed the Ziegfeld Show Sets New Pace for plot of the play very much to bring it 'down'' to movie audiences. The main

Arliss makes as the physician who has established himself as of importance to the screen as well as to the stage.

Thorough understanding of movie technique by Director Young has resulted in picturesque settings and the Van and Schenck captured the honors introduction of dancing girls and gorgeous bacchanales. The photography of Harry Fishback brings out weird effects in which Mr. Anliss recreates the pop-offered to local screen patrons is found in Frank Buhler's staging of the prison Central Pa scene from "Faust," with Bernard Po-land, J. Helffenstein Mason and Elsa Lyons Cook as the singers. The orches-tral music is also within keeping of the high quality of the film.

Stanton-"Good References" is recomstanton—'Good References is reveals mended as a good picture. It reveals to constance Talmadge at her breeziest.

Dorothy Farnam has provided a good scenario from E. J. Rath's story. The spring were rewarded with ample show-Dorothy Farnam has provided a good scenario from E. J. Rath's story. The direction of R. William Neil is adequate to the production. It is the sort of story for these warm days, for it s light and entertaining. The heroine of this story needs a job and har no references. So she borrow: herself when the owner of the creden-ials becomes iil. The job is secretary to a wealthy, religious woman, w of this woman returns visit from college and, as a lark, brings a friend with him in the guise of valet. At a suggestion from the friend, a ial gathering is arranged with bishop present and then things begin to hum. The youth is not present, but to hum. The youth is not present, but is present with a lot of toughs and has to be bailed out by the secretary.

In retaliation for the jealousy the girl causes she is left to get back to Arcadia - "Buried Treasure" is a fantasy, and as such permits of much latitude in movie making. Josef Ur-Marion Davies is the star of this 100 PER CENT ORIENTAL scenes. Of the story, there is not much that is thrilling. It tells how a man. known as the pirate of the Wall street erowd, insists that his daughter marry Production of Melodramatic East yacht is suggested, and a doctor is Michel Penha, solo cellist of the dispinis Orchestra, more than considered the introduce to Philadelphians a "play of bushist with Thaddeus Rich and in evicins informal recital, that he is of the great masters of the cello dispinist with masters of the daughter is suggested, and a doctor is taken along because the daughter is subject to trances. In one of these trances she sees buried treasure, and directs the yacht to an island. While the family are searching for the gold. the aid of the doctor, recovers the buried loot. The captain of the yacht marries the girl and the doctor, thus > Regent-"It's A Great Life" made from Mary Roberts Rinehart's novel, "The Empire Builders," and shows a delightful excursion into the boyhood ideas of a number of college youths. The author knows how to write about boys; some of her hes works are about them, for she has som of her own. In the selection of E. Mason Hopper for director, a man has been chosen who has a deep feeling for the ideas of youth.

thwarting the plans of the father,

The fact that this is a story so true to life that one is apt to forger it is a movie makes it doubly interesting. Much of the story has to do with the dreams of a student when he imagines he is a king in a South Sea Island domain. Pearls are so plentiful mere that the natives do not appreciate them. This thought is shown to have develstory has a love interest that is pretty professor's daughter. In the cust are Culien Landis, Molly Malone, Clara Horton, Ralph Bushman.

Capitol- The Marriage of William Ashe' brings Margaret Mayo's adapta-tion of Mrs. Humphry Ward's novel which Edward Sloman directed. The Otto Hoffman and Snitz Edwards.

The featured funnakers are Harry and Willie Lander. Both are tramp of merit. Sam Wilson, a colored consedium, adds much fun to the riow, which is very good. Ameta process is featured among the women and diancer.

Trocadero—Joe (Gabby) Wilton is diarred in his own show. "Hurly burly, which is well as a sum of the plot there is not much use to linger. It has all the elements of a good melodrama. It holds from start to finish, even though it never converse to be a versatile singer and diancer. It entertains, even if it does not stir even momentary thought and careful consideration. There are momentary which is throughout. It has nany function as well as a sum of the plot there is not much use to linger. It has all the elements of a good melodrama. It holds from start to finish, even though it never converse of drawings which get into the careful consideration. There are momentary thought and careful consideration. There are momentary which is the continuity.

A woman wants to beln her husband as political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political and social way. Being the continuity of a political rival and social way. Being the continuity of a political rival and social way. Being the co

Photoplays Elsewhere

PALACE — Mae Murray, in "The Gilded Lily," VICTORIA—"Earthbound," by Basil King.
COLONIAL—"Heliotrope." Soptano solos by Mina Dolores.
ALHAMBRA—"The Jackknife Man." GREAT NORTHERN—Nazimova, in

IMPERIAL - Otts Skinner in "Kismet."

MARKET STREET—Constance Talmadge in "The Perfect Woman."

CEDAR—The Dangerous Paradise."

LEADER—Dorothy Gigh in "The Ghost in the Garret."

STRAND—"Heliotrope."

LOCUST—Fatty Arbuckle in "Brewsster's Millions."

BELMONT—Monta Blue in "The Kentucklans."

RIVOLI—Nazimovn in Billions."

COLISEUM—Dorothy Gigh in "The Ghost in the Garret."

DELIGHT AT THE FORREST

Quality and Comedy Forrest-Coming here at the lag end iden back of this Hungarian drama- of the season after a long road tour. Selwyn Problem Play Has Some is obsessed with the idea that evil can overcome truth. To those familiar with the operative version of Goethe's in plot.

Illogical Premises

Illogical Premises

Illogical Premises

Illogical Premises

Illogical Premises

In outstanding feature of this picture is the wonderful figure that George

Lyric—"The Mirage" serves admir
In outstanding feature of this picture is the wonderful figure that George

In obsessed with the idea that evil can overcome truth. To those familiar with the idea that evil can overcome truth. To those familiar with speaking, the girls are pacemakers from Beautyland. The melodies haunt the ear; the comedy is new and hilarious and the scenic splendor of the production has never been approached in anything offered here in recent year.

Lyric—"The Mirage" serves admir
Lyric—"The Mirage" serves admir
Aslies washed with the idea that evil can overcome truth. To those familiar with speaking, the girls are pacemakers from Beautyland. The melodies haunt the ear; the comedy is new and hilarious and the scenic splendor of the production has never been approached in anything offered here in recent year.

Lyric—"The Mirage" serves admir
Aslies washed with the idea that evil can overcome truth. To those familiar with speaking, the girls are pacemakers from Beautyland. The melodies haunt the ear; the comedy is new and hilarious and the scenic splendor of the production has never been approached in anything offered here in recent year.

Lyric—"The Mirage" serves admir-

score of comedians and almost a here. wears the label of "The Devil" because of his fiendish delight in breaking up happy romances. The star is before the camera for much of the time of the story's unfolding. Without his interest.

rest.

Other movies are being prepared for the attractions on view. From an arthe star and they will certainly be tistic standpoint the living pictures con-worth attention because in this one he ceived by Ben Ali Haggin are the big-in which Mr. Anliss recreates the pop-ular conception of the devil at the finish tage. Ray Dooley, whose home is in this the story.

What is probably the finest prologue as all others with her eccentric characterizations. As a baby abaudoned in Central Park, and later as a faded prima donna, she kept the laughs mov-ing. William C. Fields, Jack Donahue. ing. William C. Fields, Jack Donahue, Lillian Broderick, and especially Carl Randall, were the principal funmakers, Moran and Mack helped along in black-

Irving Berlin and Victor Herber ers of applause.

"OPPORTUNITY" AT WALNUT WITH JAMES CRANE a position and takes the place Owen Davis' Melodrama of Stock

Market Appeals Walnut - "Opportunity," a Brady

nelodrama of the New York stock ex-hange, money, matrimony and morals was well received last night, with James Owen Davis, the playwright, has taken as his subject the old figure in Wall street and placed him in new surroundings. Crane, an admirable young actor whose work in "Forever After" gave him a permanent footing as an ar-tist, is the lucky Larry Bradford, who strikes it rich, falls in love with the broker's stenographer and sticks to her when a wealthy married plunger compromised her position. Brad marries Joyce Wayne, remarkably well is, the large simplicity and the deep-seated genne greatness of Lincoln are outanding on the stage and ever comanically to the audience. He is in anical beyond it—the great figure of stiny—and doom—and democratic specific conditions.

In the end Mrs. Moreland atones,
She gives up Manning. He asks her when he may see her again. She tells him not until she is fit to see him, and stiny—and doom—and democratic specific cooking.

In the supporting cast are Vincent Coleman, Ned Sparks, Nellic Parker appears, and lures the lucky Bradford Spaulding, as the aunt and, as the bishop. Arnold Lucy, who is appearing the market and the hero is apparently flat. In a striking scene—a little too striking for the good of the play—Bradflat. In a striking scene—a little too striking for the good of the play -Brad-ford renounces the gay life and returns to his faithful wife. He attempts to reto his faithful wife. It is the confidence habilitate himself, regains the confidence of the "pool" he is operating and is of the "pool" he he market when he latitude in movie making. Josef Urban supplied the designs for the claborate settings, while the lightings, no doubt, had his supervision. Hal Rosson, the cameraman, did some good work, under the supervision of Director George D. Raker. The story is by F. Britten Austen.

Of the "pool" he is operating and is about to return to the market when he former friend of his wife, who manipulated the market to his ruin, finally is caught "cornered" and Bradford finds himself safe financially and O. K. in his wife's arms.

Crane's work is excellent throughout

Crane's work is excellent throughout piece, and it is to be noticed that she in depicting the quick changes of forbe in effective pictorially, and does

She is effective pictorially, and does

Clifford Dempsey's work as the honest was that of broker was good, as was that of Leonard Willey, the villain, and Con-stance Beaumar, "the vump," acquitted

There is even time despite the rush the action for some comedy, which ably handled by Kenneth MacKenna. Clifford Worman, Norah Sprague, Ada Howell and others, who have minor parts which help to fill in a picturesque background.

Timely Satire at Dumont's Dumont's-"Dorothy of Trenton or lasy to Get $1000," is one of the funniest satires seen here this year. Funny situations are spread throughout the two hours' show. There are also man

There are also many specialties on the bill, including that of Richard Lee, whose chatter pleases. WE GUARANTEE PAPAR $11.50

We offer to reupholater a N-piece parlor suit in tapeatry, velour or leathereste for $11.50 and up. Springs reset and frames repollahed like new WE GUARANTEE FIRST-CLASS WORK Send us a postel card or phone and our representative will gladly call.

Reliable Unbalance 2. 200-2 N. 10TH ST. Phone Fiber 3857 FORMERLY OF 221 N 10TH STREET LARGEST HOUSE IN TOWN

DOOLEY BROTHERS

Local Boys Have House in Laughter-Other Bills of Good Vaudeville

Keith's-William and Gordon Dooley, those acrobatic native comedians whom laughter last night. Their travesty restories; Usher Quartet; Ward view, "The Two Vagrants," gave them Glory, musical offering, and the view. "The Two Vagrants," gave them Cabaret," opportunities galore to display their alent and helped them prove to a communication of Philadel - Past, Present a comedy feature.

showing off some new falls. Miss Pat-however, and much of their material broadway—"The Chinese Tourists," unusical comedy farce, carned honor pohere. A real new "blue" song would sition. Hudson and Jones, in a "mother." and presentation, got a nappy romances. The star is before the camera for much of the time of the story's unfolding. Without his interest sagain that the action almost takes one's breath away.

Loopelling personality it is doubtful if the film story would hold absorbed in the story will film the misader. Showed they were well trained. The showed they were well trained. The photoplay "Heliotrope" was flashed on whith the misader. The showed they were well trained. The photoplay "Heliotrope" was flashed on whith the misader. The showed they were well trained. The photoplay "Heliotrope" was flashed on whith the misader. The showed they were well trained. The photoplay "Heliotrope" was flashed on whith the misader. The showed they were well trained. The photoplay "Heliotrope" was flashed on whith the misader. The showed they were well trained. The showed they were well trained. The photoplay "Heliotrope" was flashed on whith the misader. The showed they were well trained. The showed trained that they are showed they were well trained. The showed they were well trained. T and Snym. T TOP KEITH'S BILL and held the house throughout its entirety.

Lorner Girls were seen in several dainty excellent photoplay. Globe - Al Fields and a clever company bring out all the entertainment values of the headline. Catchy music features "The Little Cafe," in which pretty girls are prominent. Charley Chaplin in 'The Kid' is a special engaged pleture attraction. Others include the numerous performers endeavor to im- leclandic Glima Troupe, acrobatic personate, had a packed house rolling in stunts; Jarrow, magician; Mallon Cast. acrobatic "Bird novelty.

Allegheny - A delightful headliner is Present and Future, musical feature, "Nomads of the The action moves rapidly with few North 1s the thrilling movie; Verna did intervening moments. Helen Patterson, William Foran and a sextet of nion, songs; Conroy and O'Donnell, neetty damsels assist in the funnaking, skit; Goerdon Germain, comedy feature. "Nomads of the distribution of sextential few North 1s the thrilling movie; Verna decretal dancer; Harris and Matter a act which stood out was that of Mang and Snyder in an exhibition of skill with honors. Marie Sabbott and George and daring. This act closed the bill hand held the house in their seats throughout its entirety.

the audience. Dave Gibson and Sylvin Frank Fielder is seen in the title role. Sidney and Townley in "A Subway Price, eccentriques, ended the show, lirtation" get many laughs. The "Polly of the Storm Country" was the > Walton Roof-A beautiful dance in springtime, offered by Viola Max, was well received. Dora Duby presented Delightful Revue Pleases Again With dancing numbers, and the White Way Trie sang the latest songs with comedy effects. Nip and Kelp, acrobatic the effects. dancers, and Bigwood and Barnes also won approval.

Grand-Quality comedy is the best designation for the act offered by Leona Stephens and Lon D. Hollister, called "Back to Beverly Hills" brightened by snappy lines. Entertain-ing acts were presented by Charles McGood and company and musical unters, Arthur Fields and Harry Watkins. Nixon-Songs and comedy of Shapire pace for hit making. Wilson and Mc-Avoy were seen in some Chesterfieldian omedy, while John Blondy and sister in acrobatics and Lucille and Cockie, the latter a bird, also scored. Shirley Mason in "The Lamplighter" is the photoplay attraction.

and Jordan, two elever girls, set the Orpheum—"Clarence," the agreeable and droll comedy by Booth Tarkington, which enjoyed a successful run this season at the Broad Street Theatre. us presented by Mae Desmond and her "Clarence" deals with the misadvento advantage, and has the support of Miss Desmond and the full strength of the versatile resident company.

"AS YOU WERE" RETURNS

Irene Bordoni and Sam Bernard

Shubert-"As You Were," which opened its second engagement in this city last night, wears exceedingly well. It is model of what a fantasy-revue ought to be. It possesses the whimsical qualiwith a fantasy, and it has the amuse ment qualities which are demanded it hat form of show labeled "revue.

It is a "revue" in a real sense, sinc fr does 'revue' a series of things, in this case periods and personages of history. The burden of it is that through all time women have been fickle and nen rather foolish

The music by Herman Darewski and Ray Goetz, fits nicely the book adapted Glen MacDonough from Rip's "Plus under which title the piece had a big success in Paris. It also has won approval in London, as well as country-wide American plaudits. The deft stagecraft of George Marion Is responsible for interesting effects in the several scenes, which range from the forest primeval to the Royal Gardens at Versailles, "Julian Mitchell devised the pictorial and novel dance numbers.

The cast is still headed by demurely ophisticated Irene Bordoni, who has looks to commend her to the eye and ability in creating illusions in her

Well-Known

Corsets

At Half and Less Than Half Price

Bon Ton-Royal Worcester-

Snellenburg Special

with medium or long hiplines; made in coutil and silk brocade of excellent quality. Must be seen to be appreciated, at these extraordi-

$3.50 Corsets, $1.45

narily low prices!

Girdle top, low and medium bust styles

We've Just Received a Marvelous Newly Purchased Lot of

Women's & Misses' $25 to $40 Silk Frocks of the Distinctly Finer Sort For Street and Afternoon Wear

To Sell $15.00 Each Tomorrow at Lovely models of taffeta, crepe de chine, satin, mignonette, georgette, printed georgette, charmeuse, tricolette, foulard and stunning combinations, Long-line, blouse, tunic, overskirt and basque models, braided, hand-embroidered in solid or eyelet effects. Ruffled, corded, tucked, frilled, finished with graceful sashes and fluttering ribbons.

New and Tremendously Smart—In All the Best Colors of the Season. Phenomenal Values

Women's Dresses on Sale Women's Department

Misses' Dresses, Sizes 14, 16 and 18 Years on Sale Misses' Dept.

SNELLENBURGS Second Floor

omen who require extra-size apparel | You May Choose Among 100 Distinct will find a wonderfully fine assort-

Fashionable Silk Dresses In Extra Sizes Here Now $33.50 At Only . .

Of splendid quality and in a variety that permits vide selection. These dresses, in addition to embodying all the newest style features planned to give maxi-and adapting them to the particular needs of larger women are mum service-with adequately full sleeves and skirts and comfortably fitting waists. Yet nowhere will you note a suggestion of bulkiness; fit and making couldn't be better!

Sizes 4212 to 54; all best Spring colorings, in taffeta, Georgette. satin and crepe de chine of markedly superior Quite a number of these dresses marked at less than original COST! One model pictured.

Charming Organdie Frocks for Little Girls

In a Very Special Sale at Only $2.95

Made with ruffles and finished with ribbon bows in the quaint, pretty style pictured. Very sheer and crisp in quality; in pink, blue, maize and orchid, Sizes 2 to 6 years.

N. SNELLENBURG & CO.

Babies' Pillow Slips, Daintily Hand Embroidered, Special. 79c Infants' Madeira

Bibs. 39c & 65c
With hand-scalloped edges, beautifully em-

Styles and Patterns if You

Have Your Spring Suit Custom Tailored by Snellenburg's
Our Price $42.50
Is Only...

We've just added a number of brand-new styles to our line, so that now our unrivaled $42.50 offer includes 100 distinct colors and patterns. Fabrics include some of the finest custom tailoring suitings from Hockanum and the American Woolen Company. Plain and unfinished worsteds, cassimeres velours and cheviots. In stripes, plaids, checks, herringbones; plain colors and fancy A Few of the Many Specials in Our

Clearance Sale of Arteraft Wall Papers 30c to 40c Wall Papers at 81/2 c & 121/2 c

Bedroom, hall and dining-room papers, with raight or cut-out borders to match at 10c to 50c Wall Papers at 29c Roll

Two-tone designs, grass cloth and foliage tapestries. Cut-out borders to match at 15c 60c Plain 30-Inch Oatmeal Papers,

35c Roll With pressed applique borders to match at $1.25 High-Grade Wall Papers

30-inch grass cloth, tapestries and plain ipples. Decorative binders to match at 15c aperhangers' Tools and Paste at Low Prices Ask for Circular on "How to Hang Wall at 64c Roll

Special Purchase of High-Grade Woven Madras Shirts for Men To Sell a Third Under

Fine assort ment of newest striped effects and all the most

All sizes in the Most exceptional, Men-and sure to be in tremendous demand, so come early:

SNELLENBURGS First Floor

$4.50 Corsets, $2.19 $6.50 Corsets, $2.95 $7.50 to $8.50 Corsets

Women's Brassieres and Bandeaux

39c ¹⁰ $5.50 In a great variety of good styles: back or front fastening.

SMELLENBURGS Second Floor April Sale of Toilet Articles and Drugs

Quantity Sold to Any One Purchaser Quantities in Some Cases Are

We Reserve the Right to Limit the Limited. War Tax Not Included

Toilet Preparations Holmes' Frestilla. 21c Rose Cold Cream. 22 Snellenburg's La Charme Depliators Special 39 Cots's Face Con- 650 Witch Harel. 10 39 Derwille for the 75° Snellenburg's No - Odor Peroxide of Hr. 17c Gilt Edge Perex- 22 Violet Ammonia. 19c

Cutes Cutiele Re- 26e Daggett & Ramsdell s Creme de 23c 4 45c Face and Talcum Powders

Palmotive Pacr 45° Powder, Special 45° As the Petals 25° Talcum, Special 4 Dorin's La Dorine Complexion Powder, a Special 35 Chinwith Talcum 15c

Paste, Special Tooth 35e

Powder, large can 15 Spacial National Section 180 Woodbury & Face 23

Dental Preparations Shellenburg's Den- 18c

No mai, or phore orders, blaster a to a pur Hair Preparations

Sargeani's Mange 55° Britishes 10° to $2 Ever Wave. Spr. 50c

Toilet and Bath Soaps

Snellenburg's Hard Water Soap, Special, 75c Doz. Palmolite 90r dor

tercen Cuattle 39c bar White Pleating 39r bar El-Minoda Castile Sono Patent Medicines

Herlick's Malted Milk S2.79

Phenol Sodique. 42 Eckman's Al- $1.39 Suxated Iron. Spe- 75c

SNELLENBURGS First Floor

of Figs. Special at 10 Freezone, for 27e

Wampele's C od 70 Special Hypo-Cod. 89