

THE TENNIS GALLERY. A portion of the tennis fans who watched the matches in the opening day of the three-day tennis tournament on the Wanamaker roof yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

BEATEN BY TILDEN. Craig Biddle as he warmed up for the match in the three-day tournament yesterday. Ledger Photo Service.

SUN WARDS HELP A LOT. Children at the Samaritan Hospital, Broad and Ontario streets, get the benefit of the roof in days of recovery. M's Goodman, the supervising nurse, is chatting with Laura Kripinski. Ledger Photo Service.

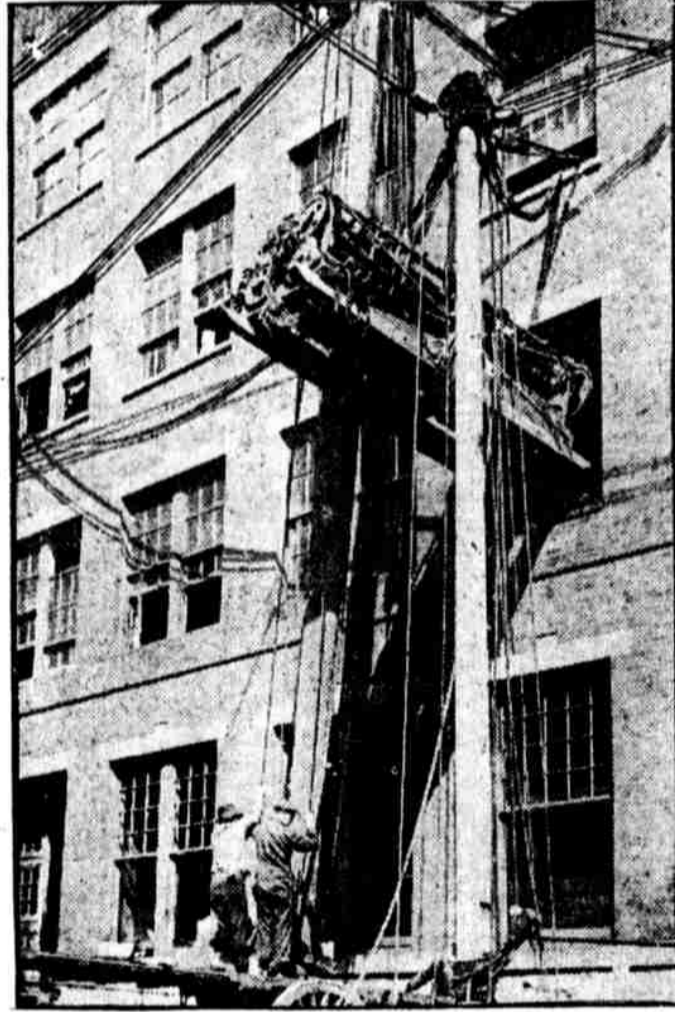

UP A POLE. Watching the game between the Athletics' Yanigans and Baltimore at Shibe Park yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

THE GOVERNOR IN TOWN. He was snatched at noon yesterday as he chatted with J. B. Hutchinson, a former Pennsylvania Railroad official. They met at Broad and Sansom streets. Ledger Photo Service.

DURING THE INITIATION. Members of the Southern High School fraternity brought E. Mansky and H. Babbitts to Independence Hall and made them play "horse". Ledger Photo Service.

MOVING AN ELEVEN-TON MACHINE. It is being taken from the second floor of the David Weber & Co. factory, Fifth and Locust streets, to be loaded on the wagon. Ledger Photo Service.

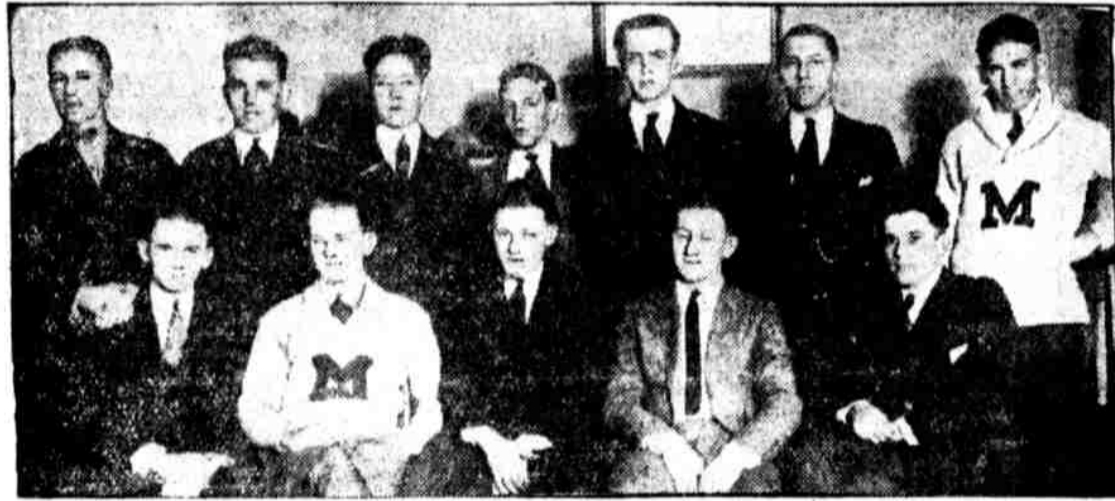

BALTIMORE WINS FROM ATHLETICS' YANIGAN TEAM. Keefe has just hit the ball and is on his way to first. Lorian is the Baltimore backstop. The umpire is Keenan. Ledger Photo Service.

DOING A 440-YARD. Girls at Cambridge, England, in the tryouts for the international races. Central News Photo.

GOING TO CITY HALL. Judge O'Leary, of the Superior Court, going north on Broad street yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

THE MYSTIC THIRTEEN FRATERNITY selected today's limerick winner. They missed one member, why, nobody knows. Names, reading left to right (first row): Harry W. Lank, George F. Brough, George C. Farnival, Carl W. Judick, Albert Schelller; (back row) George B. Lex, Harry F. Hauck, LeRoy A. Singley, Carl Sandberger, William E. Tribbit, George L. Schoenberg, James McCallister.

MRS. WILLIAM B. ABBEY discusses housing in Philadelphia in an Editorial Page interview.

SPEECH-READING CLUB AWARDS JACK JINGLE PRIZE. Captains and lieutenants in the campaign to raise $50,000 for the Speech Reading clubhouse at 1406 Locust street formed a Jingle Jury. From left to right (sitting), Rose Knize, Louise K. Holman, Priscilla Magoun, Mrs. A. E. Wood, Mrs. H. F. Weeks; (standing), D. J. Hotchkiss, Mrs. Bruce Ford, E. L. Whitaker, Mrs. A. L. Smith, L. H. McKee and D. Ellis Lit.

REGAINS HIS VOICE. It was during an airplane flight at an altitude of 14,000 feet that Henry A. Renz, Jr., of Washington, underwent this change. Central News Photo.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

RUBIN SCHWARTZ AND L. D. HANDY welding a condenser head of a ship at the National Electric Welding Company, 6 North Twentieth street. Ledger Photo Service.

MRS. WILLIAM H. TAYLOR (left) and Miss Dorothy Middleton appear in "Farm Folks" for the benefit of the Home for Aged Couples and Aged Men, Bala. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS ELIZABETH MOHN. She is a member of the Vassar College players, now touring the country.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN JAMES TOMPKINS, who has been a member of the police force for nineteen years, is stationed at Twelfth and Arch streets. He is 52 years old and lives at 2322 South street. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

J. BORTON WEEKS, president of the Keystone Automobile Club, who is doing much for better roads. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS IRENE RUBIN 2546 South Sixth street Philadelphia