

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

Letters to the Editor

A Woman's Appreciation

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—It is with a great deal of joy in my heart that I write you this to thank you most heartily for your splendid, sane and fair editorial in this evening's issue—'Women in the News'—and I believe the sentiment of that fine, open recognition of their ancient vital and noble contribution to all decent and vital and glorious things, and not forgetting this newer feminine will in politics and in social reconstruction.

Working Girl's Problem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Under present conditions the mid-Atlantic working girl can be neither a housewife nor a social reformer. She is not permitted to have a home or a social life. The present rate of rent for a room will not even permit her to rent a room. She is practically thrown into the street. The only place she can find to live within her means is in some low district. Why? Landlords, you answer, first the landlord has raised the rent to an impossible figure, with the strict understanding that the tenant cannot object. Why? Second, your attention is called to one instance—perhaps there are hundreds of others—where a woman, a widow, a mother is working to support and educate her only child, a daughter. She occupies a room in a duplex residence. The widow and her daughter occupy the one bedroom. The other has been idle for many months while the little one grows up by the means of defraying part of the widow's rent and at the same time sheltering some unfortunate working girl; the landlord will not permit of this room being rented.

Wants Several War Poems

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am very anxious to get several war poems: 'Vive La France,' by Charlotte Holmes Crawford; 'Madison,' 'I Give You France,' by Henry van Dyke; 'Men of the Blood and Fire,' by Daniel M. Henderson; and 'For These They Died,' by John Drinkwater. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921. W. L. C.

Popular Classic

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I will appreciate it very much if you will please give in your People's Forum the words of the popular classic, Schubert's 'Serenade.' C. W. L. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

SCHUBERT'S 'SERENADE'

Through the leaves the night winds moving, Murmur low and sweet, murmur low and sweet. To the chamber window rustling, Love hath led my feet, O love hath led my feet. Link us though apart, Link us though apart. On the breath of music stealing, To thy dreaming heart, to thy dreaming heart.

Come Out in the Country

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am reading constantly in the paper about the growing army of the unemployed in Philadelphia and about the struggle to find a home for the families. It is suggested that to these people who are in hard luck they should go to the country. I advise the unemployed tenants in the city to become successful landlords in the country. Where the actual presence of pig and chickens will welcome them with a roosting chorus. W. L. G. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

Real Beauty

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—We were to walk along many highways in this beautiful city of ours we would see a great many improvements, such as boulevards, parkways, etc., under way. These are constructed more for their visual beauty than for their real usefulness. And meantime we are sacrificing great moral duties on the altar of physical beauty. Quite a while ago a very dear friend of mine, after a severe cold, was told by his doctor that he had developed the first symptoms of tuberculosis. The doctor said that he should go immediately out in the country, where he could breathe God's pure, unadulterated air. Being of very moderate circumstances, he applied for admission to a state sanatorium, but on account of the overcrowded conditions there was told that his application would be closed on file. Not being able to enter here, he did the only thing he could do, he stayed at home. After some time, during which period he steadily grew worse, he received word that he might enter. He went up to the sanatorium, but was greeted with that familiar repeated decree, 'You late!' He is now going of tuberculosis. His case is one of hundreds. And, citizens of Philadelphia, is it your duty to rectify this wrong? Citizens of the United States, is it your duty to rectify this wrong? Can't we devote our finances first to the alleviation of the sufferings of our brothers and sisters rather than to the pleasurable enjoyment of pleasure seekers? Go then in your little sphere and spread this doctrine—that real beauty originates in the heart of mercy and not in the vision of man. W. L. T. Philadelphia, April 3, 1921.

Questions Answered

A 'Paper Blockade'

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—What is the meaning of the term 'Paper Blockade?' L. VINCENT. Camden, N. J., April 3, 1921. This term has been applied to the assumption by a belligerent power in war of the right to declare a given coast or certain enumerated ports to be in the state of blockade. The actual presence of blockading squadrons to enforce the declaration.

Answers and Presents Problem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—In answer to problem by William Huff. To arrange ship's crew so that only foreigners would be thrown overboard, ranging thirty men in line and throwing every ninth man overboard. I would offer the following solution: Americans would be placed in Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17, 20, 21, 23, 28, 29, positions. Foreigners in Nos. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, 16, 18, 19, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 30.

The Kansas Soldiers' Bonus

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I understand that Kansas pays its soldiers a bonus. Under what conditions, and to whom must application be made? Philadelphia, March 31, 1921. W. L. E. No. 2—A man living in Kansas City, Mo., would be eligible to participate in the proposed Kansas soldiers' bonus if he were domiciled in Kansas at the time of his enlistment according to an announcement of Richard J. Hopkins, attorney general of Kansas. The measure was signed by Governor Allen and in 1922 the voters will decide on a $25,000,000 bond issue to pay Kansas veterans a bonus of $1 for each day of military service.

Answers Two Problems

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—In answer to the two problems sent in by Bernard Margolis I would offer the following solutions: No. 1—120 pounds hunting supplies to be sold for $200 charging as much per pound as amount purchased. 50 pounds at fifty cents per pound. $25.00 40 pounds at forty cents per pound. 16.00 30 pounds at thirty cents per pound. 9.00 120 pounds $200.00 No. 2—A lady found $2. She then had five times as much as she would have had had she lost $2. $3 she had plus $2 found equals $5. $3 she had minus $2 if she lost it equals $1. 21 times 5 equals $5. $5 she had plus $1 found equals $6. H. PERKINPINE. Philadelphia, April 2, 1921.

Wants Name of Artist

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Please give the name of the artist who painted a picture with his own blood. Philadelphia, April 3, 1921. W. D. G.

Two Careless Generals

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Can any of your readers inform me through your People's Forum what general was captured through his carelessness and exchanged for another taken in a similar way? Philadelphia, April 6, 1921. D. W. R.

A Bee Problem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Some bees alighted on a tree. The square feet of each of the next areas. Then eight-ninths of all of them went away. Then there were two bees remaining. How many bees alighted on the tree? I. BJOSMAN. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

Submitting a Manuscript

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—In submitting a manuscript to an editor of a magazine it is necessary to have the manuscript typewritten. Also, should you include a stamped envelope for the return of the manuscript? I would be greatly indebted if you would print in the People's Forum the best way to submit the manuscript. Also, how to address the envelope. W. L. G. Philadelphia, April 3, 1921.

Warning Against Propagandists

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I note in newspapers in various sections of the country an attempt on the part of Germans and war correspondents to poison the public mind against Great Britain. They think by their efforts that they are driving a wedge between England and the United States, an attempt which, which great powers, whether by general understanding or by treaty, have sworn to prevent. Doubtless most of your readers see the malice behind the efforts of these propagandists, but some may be deceived. Let us be on our guard and try to keep the jewel of liberty in the face of these enemies. W. J. HARKER. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

Depreciated War Bonds

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—The 'birds' who have been writing to the People's Forum complain about how many bonds they bought and how many were forced to buy are wanting a lot of valuable time and filling space to no good purpose. What were these bonds worth should be sold at a government that would allow its bonds to be depreciated and its citizens thus forced to a lot of brokers and stock sharks. Every one in the country who knows a cent of the rudiments of bookkeeping knows that if, at the time you had a government with any backbone no one would want to have any of them. Talk about foreign debts of the United States, repudiating the debt. How about repudiating the debt of its own citizens to its own citizens by permitting a lot of sharks to make money out of its promises? Sometimes wonder if the average

Poems and Songs Desired

'Ring Down the Curtain'

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Will you please publish in the People's Forum the lyrics of the poem 'Ring Down the Curtain.' I cannot sing to night. My little one's dying, my pride and delight. Camden, N. J., April 1, 1921. H. A. W.

Appreciates Finding Poem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I wish to express my gratitude to your paper for having procured for me, through the kindness of one of your readers, the poem entitled 'The Kid's Last Flight.' Try as I would, I could not obtain the poem elsewhere, until I wrote to the LEDGER. Thanking you once more, and with my best wishes, I am, D. V. L. Philadelphia, April 2, 1921.

Wants Several War Poems

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am very anxious to get several war poems: 'Vive La France,' by Charlotte Holmes Crawford; 'Madison,' 'I Give You France,' by Henry van Dyke; 'Men of the Blood and Fire,' by Daniel M. Henderson; and 'For These They Died,' by John Drinkwater. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921. W. L. C.

Popular Classic

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I will appreciate it very much if you will please give in your People's Forum the words of the popular classic, Schubert's 'Serenade.' C. W. L. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

SCHUBERT'S 'SERENADE'

Through the leaves the night winds moving, Murmur low and sweet, murmur low and sweet. To the chamber window rustling, Love hath led my feet, O love hath led my feet. Link us though apart, Link us though apart. On the breath of music stealing, To thy dreaming heart, to thy dreaming heart.

Come Out in the Country

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I am reading constantly in the paper about the growing army of the unemployed in Philadelphia and about the struggle to find a home for the families. It is suggested that to these people who are in hard luck they should go to the country. I advise the unemployed tenants in the city to become successful landlords in the country. Where the actual presence of pig and chickens will welcome them with a roosting chorus. W. L. G. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

Real Beauty

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—We were to walk along many highways in this beautiful city of ours we would see a great many improvements, such as boulevards, parkways, etc., under way. These are constructed more for their visual beauty than for their real usefulness. And meantime we are sacrificing great moral duties on the altar of physical beauty. Quite a while ago a very dear friend of mine, after a severe cold, was told by his doctor that he had developed the first symptoms of tuberculosis. The doctor said that he should go immediately out in the country, where he could breathe God's pure, unadulterated air. Being of very moderate circumstances, he applied for admission to a state sanatorium, but on account of the overcrowded conditions there was told that his application would be closed on file. Not being able to enter here, he did the only thing he could do, he stayed at home. After some time, during which period he steadily grew worse, he received word that he might enter. He went up to the sanatorium, but was greeted with that familiar repeated decree, 'You late!' He is now going of tuberculosis. His case is one of hundreds. And, citizens of Philadelphia, is it your duty to rectify this wrong? Citizens of the United States, is it your duty to rectify this wrong? Can't we devote our finances first to the alleviation of the sufferings of our brothers and sisters rather than to the pleasurable enjoyment of pleasure seekers? Go then in your little sphere and spread this doctrine—that real beauty originates in the heart of mercy and not in the vision of man. W. L. T. Philadelphia, April 3, 1921.

Questions Answered

A 'Paper Blockade'

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—What is the meaning of the term 'Paper Blockade?' L. VINCENT. Camden, N. J., April 3, 1921. This term has been applied to the assumption by a belligerent power in war of the right to declare a given coast or certain enumerated ports to be in the state of blockade. The actual presence of blockading squadrons to enforce the declaration.

Answers and Presents Problem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—In answer to problem by William Huff. To arrange ship's crew so that only foreigners would be thrown overboard, ranging thirty men in line and throwing every ninth man overboard. I would offer the following solution: Americans would be placed in Nos. 1, 2, 3, 4, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 17, 20, 21, 23, 28, 29, positions. Foreigners in Nos. 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 12, 16, 18, 19, 22, 23, 24, 26, 27, 30.

The Kansas Soldiers' Bonus

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I understand that Kansas pays its soldiers a bonus. Under what conditions, and to whom must application be made? Philadelphia, March 31, 1921. W. L. E. No. 2—A man living in Kansas City, Mo., would be eligible to participate in the proposed Kansas soldiers' bonus if he were domiciled in Kansas at the time of his enlistment according to an announcement of Richard J. Hopkins, attorney general of Kansas. The measure was signed by Governor Allen and in 1922 the voters will decide on a $25,000,000 bond issue to pay Kansas veterans a bonus of $1 for each day of military service.

Answers Two Problems

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—In answer to the two problems sent in by Bernard Margolis I would offer the following solutions: No. 1—120 pounds hunting supplies to be sold for $200 charging as much per pound as amount purchased. 50 pounds at fifty cents per pound. $25.00 40 pounds at forty cents per pound. 16.00 30 pounds at thirty cents per pound. 9.00 120 pounds $200.00 No. 2—A lady found $2. She then had five times as much as she would have had had she lost $2. $3 she had plus $2 found equals $5. $3 she had minus $2 if she lost it equals $1. 21 times 5 equals $5. $5 she had plus $1 found equals $6. H. PERKINPINE. Philadelphia, April 2, 1921.

Wants Name of Artist

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Please give the name of the artist who painted a picture with his own blood. Philadelphia, April 3, 1921. W. D. G.

Two Careless Generals

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Can any of your readers inform me through your People's Forum what general was captured through his carelessness and exchanged for another taken in a similar way? Philadelphia, April 6, 1921. D. W. R.

A Bee Problem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Some bees alighted on a tree. The square feet of each of the next areas. Then eight-ninths of all of them went away. Then there were two bees remaining. How many bees alighted on the tree? I. BJOSMAN. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

Submitting a Manuscript

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—In submitting a manuscript to an editor of a magazine it is necessary to have the manuscript typewritten. Also, should you include a stamped envelope for the return of the manuscript? I would be greatly indebted if you would print in the People's Forum the best way to submit the manuscript. Also, how to address the envelope. W. L. G. Philadelphia, April 3, 1921.

Warning Against Propagandists

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—I note in newspapers in various sections of the country an attempt on the part of Germans and war correspondents to poison the public mind against Great Britain. They think by their efforts that they are driving a wedge between England and the United States, an attempt which, which great powers, whether by general understanding or by treaty, have sworn to prevent. Doubtless most of your readers see the malice behind the efforts of these propagandists, but some may be deceived. Let us be on our guard and try to keep the jewel of liberty in the face of these enemies. W. J. HARKER. Philadelphia, March 31, 1921.

Depreciated War Bonds

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—The 'birds' who have been writing to the People's Forum complain about how many bonds they bought and how many were forced to buy are wanting a lot of valuable time and filling space to no good purpose. What were these bonds worth should be sold at a government that would allow its bonds to be depreciated and its citizens thus forced to a lot of brokers and stock sharks. Every one in the country who knows a cent of the rudiments of bookkeeping knows that if, at the time you had a government with any backbone no one would want to have any of them. Talk about foreign debts of the United States, repudiating the debt. How about repudiating the debt of its own citizens to its own citizens by permitting a lot of sharks to make money out of its promises? Sometimes wonder if the average

And my heart for thee is yearning.

Did it love, be still; Did it love, be still; Did it love, be still.

Moontlight on the earth is sleeping.

Winds are rustling low, winds are rustling low; Where the darkening streams are creeping, Dearest, let us go, O dearest, let us go. All the stars leap watch in heaven, While I sink to thee, while I sink to thee; And the night for love was given, Dearest, come to me; Dearest, come to me; Dearest, come to me.

A MacDonald Poem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Please print for me the poem 'Where Did You Come From, Baby Dear?' and name the author. R. G. A. Merchantville, N. J., March 30, 1921.

WHERE DID YOU COME FROM

(By George McDonald) Where did you come from, baby dear? Out of the everywhere into here, Where did you get your eyes as blue? Out of the sky as I came through.

What makes the light in them sparkle and shine?

Some of the stary splices left in. Where did you get that little tear? I found it waiting when I got here.

What makes your forehead so smooth and high?

A soft hand stroked it as I went by. What makes your cheek like a warm white rose? I saw something better than any one knows.

Where do you get those arms and hands? Love made itself into nooks and bands.

Feet, whence did you come, darling? Things? From the same box as the cherub's wings. How did they all come just to be you? God thought of me, and so I grew.

But how did you come to us, my dear? God thought of you, and so I am here.

The People's Forum will appear daily in the Evening Public Ledger, and also in the Sunday Public Ledger. Letters containing timely topics will be printed as well as requested poems, and questions of general interest will be answered.

REFRAIN

Sadly mourning waits the whipsawmill.

And my heart for thee is yearning.

Did it love, be still; Did it love, be still; Did it love, be still.

Moontlight on the earth is sleeping.

Winds are rustling low, winds are rustling low; Where the darkening streams are creeping, Dearest, let us go, O dearest, let us go. All the stars leap watch in heaven, While I sink to thee, while I sink to thee; And the night for love was given, Dearest, come to me; Dearest, come to me; Dearest, come to me.

A MacDonald Poem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:—Please print for me the poem 'Where Did You Come From, Baby Dear?' and name the author. R. G. A. Merchantville, N. J., March 30, 1921.

WHERE DID YOU COME FROM

(By George McDonald) Where did you come from, baby dear? Out of the everywhere into here, Where did you get your eyes as blue? Out of the sky as I came through.

What makes the light in them sparkle and shine?

Some of the stary splices left in. Where did you get that little tear? I found it waiting when I got here.

What makes your forehead so smooth and high?

A soft hand stroked it as I went by. What makes your cheek like a warm white rose? I saw something better than any one knows.

Where do you get those arms and hands? Love made itself into nooks and bands.

Feet, whence did you come, darling? Things? From the same box as the cherub's wings. How did they all come just to be you? God thought of me, and so I grew.

But how did you come to us, my dear? God thought of you, and so I am here.

The People's Forum will appear daily in the Evening Public Ledger, and also in the Sunday Public Ledger. Letters containing timely topics will be printed as well as requested poems, and questions of general interest will be answered.

REFRAIN

Sadly mourning waits the whipsawmill.

Friday Store Hours, 9 to 5:30 Thursday, April 7, 1921 For Friday GIMBEL BROTHERS MARKET CHESTNUT ST. EIGHTH NINTH For Friday A SALE EXTRAORDINARY IN VALUES AND VARIETY! Women's Beautiful Low Shoes At $4.20 Intended to be $10 to $14 Had the luck to buy, exceptionally low, from the Elkin Turn Shoe Company, of Philadelphia—your mother—and probably your grandmother knew the goodness of Elkin shoes! Added a large order from William Lane, Inc., of Brooklyn—shoes made up for a prominent New York store, but diverted to Gimbel's. And such variety! White satin, white kidskin, gray kidskin—dainty novelty styles for bride's afternoon wear. Dainty patent leather pumps. 'Staples'—black and tan calf oxfords. But plain pumps, strap pumps, oxfords and shoe ties. Cuban, military, high and baby French heels. Extra Salespeople—Shoe-Trained People! Careful Fittings! —Gimbel's, Shoe Section, Second floor.

$4 Ready to Wear Hats —with the Prettiest Flower-Wreath Trimming— at $1.50 A big jobber's clean-up of shapes and trimmings. Strip- or novelty-sewn lisere braid hats, in fancy-shape crown with roll or straight brims; and short-back poke effects. Mostly blacks, browns and navy blues. —Gimbel's, First floor

Sweet Silk Chemises Pretty enough to wear under a graduation or a friend's maid's gowns— Special at $2 Japanese silk—with a lustre so high that it seems satin. And crepes de chine. Pink, of course. Lacy models—the whole tops—all around—of lace. Hand-embroidered styles. And some have the saucy little shirrings. —Gimbel's, First and Second Floors

In the lot are factory samples, and machines enclosed in cases of which the design has been discontinued. Every machine is new, good-looking and is insured by the Gimbel 10-year Guarantee against mechanical imperfections. Note these fine makes— Domestic, Willards, Cosmos, Lessings and Emblems This is an opportune time to buy a sewing machine—on the first lap of spring and the threshold of summer. And on— Terms of $1 Weekly EMBLEM AT $25

300 Misses' $29.75 DRESSES On Sale Tomorrow at $19.75 Taffetas—wonderful grades! And good, heavy crepes de chines. Ten of the new novelty styles—including the famous 'candy-stick dress,' with its fascinating color-embroidery. Some have Georgette sashes—and some of the sashes are accordion-pleated. And some have deep, effective, girlish lace collars. Brown, Blues, Grays, Tans—many two-tones. 14- to 20-year sizes. —Gimbel's, Salons of Dress, Third Floor.

Each model is made by the Domestic Sewing Machine Co. So smooth running and so serviceable and practicable. Guaranteed by the Domestic Company and backed by Gimbel's. You can't go wrong at $25. Domestic Parlor Cabinets at $69 Cases are unusually handsome in design and will harmonize with any room in the house. Not a better sewing machine made. At $69.

Just a Hundred— Perfectly Stunning Plaid Skirts —the style pictured— several different color-combinations. On Sale Tomorrow at $9.75 A lovely new skirting—rough wool canvas—wean as anything that has yet been specially woven for the making of smart skirts. Pleated all around. Ask especially to see the soft blue plaided with tan and overlaid with brown. —Gimbel's, Salons of Dress, Third floor

Sale of 250 Selected Golf Clubs Made by the Burke Golf Co. with the Gimbel Brand—of itself a guarantee of excellence. Two hundred and fifty of these Clubs— $2.50 Brassies, Drivers, Mid-Irons, Putters, Mashies, Niblicks, Mashie-Niblicks. Every head selected by a competent golfer. Every shaft well seasoned. An expert golfer will give you his assistance. —Gimbel's, Fourth floor

25c Maine Corn at 15c a Can A thousand cases of "Lenox" highest grade Maine Sugar Corn, in case, dozen or half-dozen lots, at 15c a can. Regularly 25c. 10,000 lbs. "St. James Blend" } 3 lbs. $1 50c Coffee, Freshly Roasted— for $1 STEEL-CUT COFFEE Lord Calvert, chaff removed, 3-lb. can $1.45 VANTINE TEA Orange Pekoe Dal-Dal Chop, for 5 o'clock serving. Yantine price $1.15—sale price 60c INDIA CEYLON TEA Monarch Chop $1.00 Black Tea, half price at 3 lbs. for $1.45, or 1 lb. 50c PORK—BEANS Lenox Tiny Beans, tomato flavored, No. 2 sanitary cans; 1 lb. value; case, dozen or 1/2 dozen lots, at can. 12 1/2c HAND-PACKED TOMATOES Lenox Brand—could be used for frying, big sanitary cans. Case, $4.65; dozen, $2.35; or 5 cans for $1 LIBERTY BELL COFFEE Rich aroma, smooth drinking coffee. 3 lb. value; in 10, 5- or 3-lb. lots, at lb. 25c CALIFORNIA PEACHES Lenox Brand—Luscious peach halves in heavy syrup; 60c value; dozen, $9.95; or 3 cans $1 BROOKFIELD TABLE BUTTER Received direct from the creamery, cut in 1/2 size cubes; counter delivery. 58c BREAKFAST COCOA Lenox Brand—Freshly ground, in bulk; 46c value; 200 lb. 4 lbs. $1 EARLY JUNE PEAS Lenox Brand—Delicious flavor, new pack; case, $3.85; dozen, $1.95; 6 cans. $1 —Gimbel's, Pure Food Store, Chestnut St. Annex —Gimbel's, Sixth floor and Subway Store

No Sooner Said than done! HEINZ OVEN BAKED BEANS From a can on the pantry shelf to a delicious hot dish on the dining room table—just a matter of a few minutes! And aside from the convenience, there's nothing quite so good to eat, so nutritive and so economical. Oven baking does it —plus perfect seasoning and flavoring with Heinz delicious tomato sauce. Actual oven baking retains the food value as well as the flavor—and it is these things that mean food economy. FOUR KINDS HEINZ Baked Beans with Pork and Tomato Sauce HEINZ Baked Pork and Beans (without Tomato Sauce) Boston style HEINZ Baked Beans in Tomato Sauce without Meat (Vegetarian) HEINZ Baked Red Kidney Beans One of the 57 Varieties