The men to be taken upstate are to be selected by the coach and will be veterans of the varsity and freshman teams of last fall and the best of the squad will work out on Franklin Field in the interim under the direction of the assistant coaches. The preliminary practice at George School will last for two weeks, when the thirty chosen gridders will return to Franklin Field.

Rear Wins at the Bijou caused considerable consternation in the assemblage, due to the fact that an anouncement was made several weeks ago that preliminary practice would be held on Franklin Field and nowhere else.
