Allegiance to U.S.

SHE SCORES HYPHENISM

The man who "heckled" Mrs. Douglas Robinson, sister of the late Theodore Roosevelt, at the all-American mass-meeting last night today was feeed.

The prisoner, who gave his name as Patrick McGinty, 1720 Seybert street. was compelled to swear allegiance to the United States before a magistrate. and upon giving assurance that he did not intend to insult the speaker was set free.

Mrs. Robinson in her address at the Metropolitan Opera House had not procorded very far when it was necessary coeded very far when it was delawing for her to display the well-known Rooscrelt tack. She was quoting from an address delivered by Theodore Roose-velt when, incidentally, she mentioned the activities of the Sinn Fein.

the activities of the Sinn Fein. "Those who attack America because tiev hate England injure America," gloted Mrs. Robinson. "Sinn Fein stands for America and will always back America. The Sinn F-iners make good Americans," should a man in the gallery.

Cries of "Throw Him Out"

"Throw him out !" came from various perts of the house. The man was seized Throw inff ones. The man was selzed by those near him and roughly handled. Ushers, patrolmen and detectives made a rush for him. He was in danger of being flung over the gallery rail when Mrs. Robinson stilled the tumult. "Please don't molest him," she said. "he neant well." He was taken down to the back of the hall after he had been arrested by Pa-trolman Oliver and District Detectives O'Hara and Rooney, of the Twentieth and Buttonwood streets station. Down in the lobby Oliver, who had on a button with the American flag, rook it from his cont and forced the pan to kneel and kiss it, and swear allegiance to the American flag.

num to kneel and knes it, and swear allegiance to the American flag. The alleged Sinn Feiner was given a hearing this morning before Magistrate Carney. He said he was Patrick Me-sinty, thirty-five years old, 1729 Sey-bert street, and a native of Ireland. He said he had been in this country twenty years and had become an American citrears and had become an American cit-izen twelve years ago. "I didn't mean to insult Mrs. Rob-inson." he explained to the magistrate. "I nm a little hard of hearing, and I was overjoyed when I heard her men-tion Sinn Fein. I thought she said "Sinn Feiners would make good citi-zens." My enthusiasm got the better
