Original Sports Capes Designed Especially for Wanamaker's, $18.75

Tweed is the thing of the moment and here are two sports models of tweed really different—at $18.75.
 Good fortune, is it not?
 Our own artist designed them, so you will not find anything just exactly like them anywhere. They are fashioned of all-wool Skibo tweed, which is so soft it feels almost like velvet. Favorite shades of sage green, brown, tan and light blue can be had in each style.
 Notice the long tuxedo collar which ends only at the hem of the belted model.
 The hold-together cape with the high Napoleonic collar is relieved by a little simple stitching.
 Both are unlined and beautifully made and finished and one hasn't a single button to bother with.
 They are plenty warm, easy to slip on. Good for motoring, golf, country walks, seashore.
 Sizes 14 to 40. (Market)

An Extraordinary Sale of Fresh, New Japanese Straw Rugs at the Lowest Prices in Years

If there is any "best time" for a sale of rugs so universally useful as these sturdy Japanese straws, it is right now, at the beginning of the Summer season.
 All fresh and new and with twice as much service in them as rugs that have lain in warehouses and become dried out!
 The patterns, stenciled in oil, are attractive and the bindings are carefully sewn.
 The first group is one that a reliable importer had to turn into quick money and that, consequently, we can sell at close to bare cost of importation.

The second consists of rugs made to our own specific order. Our representative in Japan placed the large order last Autumn when prices were lowest, so saving quite a bit of money.
 The considerable savings in both cases are turned over to you!
A Large Part of the East Aisle will be given over to showing these rugs, affording you better opportunity of choosing.

WOMEN RESCUED IN WALNUT ST. FIRE

Place Where Treadway and "Boots" Lived Damaged by Morning Blaze

ROOMERS FORCED TO FLEE

Spectacular rescues were made in a fire at 2:35 o'clock this morning at 249 Walnut street, a rooming house, in which Sue "Boots" Rogers, notorious figure in the Peirce murder case, formerly lived.
 Men and women were carried by firemen down a ladder that was raised to one of the third-story side windows, while others were led down the stairway, through dense smoke to the safety of the street.
 Virtually all persons in the house were obliged to leave their sleeping quarters partly clothed. They had no place to go and were given refuge from the rain under tarpaulins on one of the fire trucks.

The house, conducted by Mrs. Myrtle Ashford, had about twenty tenants.
 The fire is supposed to have started either in the basement or the first floor rear. It was discovered by one of the roomers on the second floor. He awoke and smelled smoke. When he went out into the hallway he saw flames and smoke below, rapidly mounting.
 The damage has not yet been estimated. The first floor rear was burned out and part of the second-story rear. Smoke and water caused damage in other parts of the house.

BOARDING HOUSE RAIDED

Police Act Against Place Treadway, Peirce Slayer, Managed
 Mrs. Bertha Waldron was arrested at midnight when police of the Fifteenth and Vine streets station raided the boarding house which she conducts at 1625 Arch street, upon complaint of neighbors that it was being run in a disorderly fashion.
 The house and its proprietor were mentioned several times during the investigation of the Peirce murder. Peter D. Treadway, who is now serving a twenty-year sentence for second degree murder, acted as manager of the house in Mrs. Waldron's absence.
 Lieutenant Wagner had been investigating for a week before he made the raid. He took with him Detectives Geiser, McCullough and Murray. They arrested the lodgers in the house along with Mrs. Waldron, three women and two men.
