Please Tell Me What to Do

By RELEN DECIE Sorry, but your letter was far too long to publish. If later there is more room in the column Cynthia will try to put some if not all of it in. Mr. L. aged thirty-five, who wrote to Cynthia last week;
A good friend has suggested a practical way of helping your loneliness. Send Cynthia another letter with full name and address again and she will write the plan suggested. It will put you in the way of meeting nice people.

Doar Cynthia—Will you packs away me solve a problem which troubles me? Thank you.

A year and a half ago I not a certain young man, and being properly introduced we got along fine the first night. Well, when the party was over he asked to escort me home, and having no particular friend. I consented. Then he had to go back to his home that was in austicer sity, and he asked me if he could correspond with me and I told him he might if he wisited. Ever since then he had seen sending me friendly letters such as friends would write until about a mouth ago he began sending me letters declaring he loved me, and tells me to come to him and that we will both be married.

Now, Cynthia, I love my parents just as much as I bece him, and it would have a very decided talent and then we will both be married.

A NEGATIVE REFERENCE IS ALMOST WORSE THAN NONE

When You Say a Girl Is Not Dishonest, You Imply That She Is Not Honest Either—If You Can't Prove It, Don't Say It

"CAN you give her a good reference?" one moment that you really mean good looking, honest, or amiable.

It is one of the easiest, kindest but most unmistakable methods of giving a direct slam!

a new maid of the woman comployed the maid-before,

"Well, she is a good enough cook, and she's willing enough, but I'm not sure that she's honest," replied the other woman, other woman, and she steal from you?"
