The text of Mr. Harding's message had not reached Paris last night, and most of today's papers contented them-selves with presenting such extracts as had been cabled to this city. Editorial comment continued to interpret the mes-sage as, on the whole, favorable to ica and Europe upon the policy of good sense. Nothing could be happier for whose interests have always suffered from fanciful ideas in general, and Wilsonism in particular. President Wilson did not take into account the facts. His views had always to prevail, notwithstanding realities. "Perti-Writing in the same vein. 'Perti-

Washington, April 14.—Ratification of the Colombian treaty "as a matter of justice" to Colombia was urged in the Senate today by Senator Pomerene.

Devoting much of his address to a history of the events which led to the revolt of the Colombian province of Panama, Senator Pomerene declared that the course of President Roosevelt with regard to those events was indefensible "either in the sight of God or of man."

"Outside of literature, I have never heard of a situation such as this. Mrs. Andrews, my client, is a gentlewoman, and tells me she has endured this intolerable situation solely because of her two children. She and her husband have never been divorced, nor has he ever hinted at a desire to be rid of her.
