EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, FRIDAY, APRIL 15, 1921

THE DAILY NOVELETTE

Sglvia's Wants By ELIZABETH B. DAY

Tom. I'll marry you," con-talented, brilliant, popueia, the talented, brillant, popu-eia, the half the young men in elamoring for even one evening of elamoring for even one evening of anpany, accepting Toin Trainor, anpany, accepting Toin Trainor, apparted by a seven on the seven of substant and the seven of the future, it was analyzing! It had taken it was analyzing to summon sufficient years to summon sufficient propose, and now he wonmoment why he had not Too well he knew ! His limited cirstances had at one time seemed an example barrier between them; new that he had saved a little and getting on better at the bank he stered the necessary courage to the question and we'll have a church wed six bridesmaids and all the nd. Tom, I know a dear little to live in, brand-new $9000. There's a duck of y shaar. Increase a duck of a where we can keep our own r, for we'll surely have one. , dear? And, Tom, I saw a m suite in town the other day and a solid mahogany set for You see, dear, I sort of you'd ask me soon, so I've uting around, for 1 believe it ness, you know.

ess, you know. was beginning to have in several different direc-w. Tom thought he had sized better than that. He knew was very "well off." though y: that they had a "flivver." but where had Sylvia acsuch extravagant tastes? Oh, and been a fool to dream of winbeen a tool to ... He had won ad keeping her? Was all, like some other emptyknew, with aspirations band? Surely he had a manner that would whand? to believe that he had he thought of the $4000 he managed to save, at no small sar either. Well, he was doomed to helor, for he never could but Sylvia. He was disto be sure, for he had the sincerest, truest type but he loved her none for his disappointment.

apparently mistaking his si bliss, was chattering on hap-"ducky" kitchen cabinet over and no end of alubankruptcy for Tom. speak, he must tell her that ings could not be, for years way, and probably never began, miserably.

some asperity. finished Tom lamely e you do, dear, and I lov listraction, and that is why l div wait for all the lovely going to get, together. she loved him not fo began again, and stop courage came to him, I not thought possible. that he must sneak.

not irs to take her hand o her, Gripping his, he plunged, a minute, Sylvia, to misrepresent things nust have if you think buy a $9000 house, sev dollars' worth of furni car and all that sort of thing d to save, and thought I had un until I heard your lidn't realize girls needed se hem happy. I somehow loved me enough to star of the ladder and climb but I guess I made a

Sylvia, but I can't exsalary of $2500 and $4000, out of white

DOWN STAIRS STORE

Handsome Sample

Organ Plays at 9, 11 and 4:50

Chimes at Noon

Dresses $29 and $39

Just a few of a kind and al fresh and lovely. Colors are a delight—sky blue, peach, silver gray, coral, jade, henna, brown and navy blue. Dinner dresses of radium ace and charmeuse, in navy black and brown, are $29. Checked taffetas that will elight young women are $29 Draped frocks of Georgette repe trimmed with wooden eads are $29. Eyelet - embroidered Geor

gette over gayly colored Canon crepe is $39 Handsome gowns trimmed with deep silk fringe, $39. (Market)

Serge-and-Tricolette Frocks at $5 Eighteen Different Styles at $10 and $12

It's a joy to think of getting a pretty and wearable frock of comfortable wool jersey for $5. Five dollars wouldn't buy the material ordinarily! These frocks, in seven colors, have blouse bodices trimmed with jersey buttons and a silk tassel finishes the girdle of In navy, brown, taupe, reindeer, Copenhagen, Pekin or henna, each.

Combination dresses, with blue serge skirts, have embroidered tricolefte bodices in gray, navy, Copenhagen or tan. $5.

Dresses of Mignonette, Satin, Serge or Tricotine at $10 and $12

Mignonette is a finer tricolette that is becoming to nearly everybody. In this group there is a variety of models for women and young women-dresses with braiding. flying panels, embroidered overskirts. Black, taupe, brown and navy principally. $10 and $12.

Navy blue serge and tricotine dresses have eyelet embroidered skirts, some edged with scallops.

Satin frocks are trimmed with wee ruffles set on Georgette overdrapery. Especially for young women are the dresses with corded skirts. Navy blue and brown. $10.

$15, $16.50 and $18.75

Delightful embroidered taffeta frocks, some done in eyelet work, are $15.

Combination frocks with pleated skirts of navy crepe de chine and bodices of embroidered Georgette are $16.50.

Another combination shows a navy mignonette skirt used with a printed Georgette bodice. $16.50. Navy blue foulard dresses in a number of good patterns have overdrapery of Georgette. $16.50.

WANAMAKER'S

Fine eyelet embroidered blue serge frocks are made over black charmeuse foundations. $15.

$20, $22.50 and $25

Lovely new frocks of navy blue or gray Canton crepe have scalloped skirts which are faced with contrasting material. $20.

Beaded Georgette dresses, charming Canton crepes, taffetas and tricotines; are made in dozens of pretty ways, at $20 and $25.

A special group of fine mignonette dresses is marked $22.50. Some are beautifully embroidered and have wide sashes and pointed overskirts. Long or three-quarter sleeves. Some styles are especially designed for heavy figures. In rein deer, navy, black, brown and taupe. Sizes 16 to 46 among them. (Market)

Notice, Mr. Man!

WANAMAKER'S

A Sweeping Half Price Sale

hose in all sizes in black, navy, gray, tan and unbleached.

Better take a dozen pair at least-they're the most unusual value that we've seen in many a day!

> 121/2c pair, $1.50 a dozen, in the original box. Gallery, Market and Center Aisle

All-Wool Suits, $25

Men's $25 suits aren't so uncommon now as a month or two ago, but good all-wool, well-tailored suits are not to be found growing on the bushes, even now! You'll find plenty of good cheviots and cassimeres in the Gallery Store-$25.

All-wool separate trousers, $5, $6.50 and $7.50. Raincoats, at $9.75 and $11.

Students' all-wool suits (for boys just going into long trousers), $22.50 to $35.

Light-weight overcoats of all-wool tweeds, herringbones and knitted fabric, $28.50 to $38.50, (Gallery, Murket)

Sale of "Seconds" of Men's Shirts, $1.10

"Seconds" from one of the best shirt mills in the country, r "seconds" are almost as good as most makers' "firsts." Their It is always a real occasion when we can offer these "seconds" because it means really worthwhile shirts at a minimum price

Just imagine good shirts at $1.10!

1000 of them are here-ready now

Printed percale and madras, cut well, made well and fin-ished with excellent pearl buttony. Plenty of the most wanted stripes and colors. Men will choose by the twos and threes.

(Gallery, Market)

These 50c Neckties Are Mighty Fine, Sir!

You'll be amazed that such good-looking ties are possible for fifty cents. Of silks in plenty of the new stripes and plaids, as well as figured designs. All four-in-hands. (Gallery, Market)

$4.75, $6, $6.40 for Men's Uncommonly Good Shoes

Men are finding their way to the Men's Shoe Gallery in increasing numbers. They find there what they really, want at the prices they wish to pay.' No question about the shoe quality and style-and they have the whole big shoe store to their masculine selves-with plenty of prompt, careful service

Half Hose, 12¹/₂c First quality, excellent, strong cotton half

WEATHER Unsettled

13

furniture and ge was silent. Oh, if she would thing-anything to break Tom could not look felt weak and shaky and said Sylvin, snuggling begged, moving away on't make it any harder very straight. then. I've listened to you must listen to me.

ou're not the first man wh to me: in fact, you're the here in this town. I'll not their names because that would air. 1 told cach of them the ist of wants Eve told you, and at me think they could give me be things. I knew better, and them for being so dishonest, but on great big honest peach, have just how good you are. Why, iand this time he let her soug-ene and closer i, all I want is you our love, and enough to live on. mis because that would ar love, and enough to live on. little coop just big enough forwhy go further, isn't that quite

Next complete novelette-"Said With Flowers."

Porto Rican Hand-Made Blouses $2.90, $3.90, $4.90, $6.75, $8.90, $9.75, $10.75

Blouses of the fine English batiste and voile ordinarily called French-qualities that sell by the yard at $1 and $1.35 right now. Every blouse hand-made to the last little pleat. The large majority trimmed with real lace. A few have real Valenciennes, but most of them are rich with hand-made filet and Irish crochet.

More than 800 of these wonderful blouses are trade-marked models nationally advertised in the best fashion magazines. Lovely things mostly at a third less because the maker decided to discontinue

Remainder of the sale consists of the surplus lots which a Porto which set just right over suit collars.

Rican maker held waiting for this sale.

this part of his business.

Some are hand-drawn in the back, all are charmingly hemstitched by hand. Now and then one sees little pieces of the material set in by drawn work. An occasional model is beautifully embroidered. Notice the quantity of laces used on many of the models pictured.

Planned to Wear With Suits 44 New Hand-Made Styles All are cut to fit perfectly and usually have the 26-inch collars

Six styles special at	$2.90
Four styles special at	3.90
Three styles special at	4.90
Seven styles special at	6.75
Eight styles special at	8.90
Ten styles special at	9.75
Six styles special at	10.75
 nelt.

Plenty of sizes 34 to 46 in the lot but perhaps not in each style. (Market and Central) green, tan or black on white grounds. Many of the designs were printed especially for us. Foulard Voiles, 50c a Yard (Central ures in pink, blue, lavender,

New Sweaters With Lace Vestees and Collars, Special at $2.25

Knitted of regular sweater wool, they are in buff, black, brown, sca green, peacock blue, henna, gray and honeydew. A lacy collar, vestee and narrow ribbon girdle turn each sweater into a blouse that will be ever so pretty with a gay sports skirt. The price is decidedly less than. usuali

(Central)

Special at $4.75 Oxfords of black and tan leathers, including Shoes and kidskin Oxfords at $6.40 are of dark tan leather in brogue style with full wing tips, Oxfords at $6 are of dark tan and black leather in English or blucher stylesgood looking. (Men's Gallery, Market)

Girls' Frocks of Fine Scotch Gingham, $4.75 to $10.75

(Sizes 8 to 16 years)

Delightful frocks and altogether different from anything we've seen in quite a while

Pin checks in gold, blue, pink and green: plain-color gingham in biscuit, rose, Copenhagen, green and maize, and richly colored plaids -so much for the materials.

Some of the most interesting are in new straight-line models or coat effects, a few have sheer white organdie aprons and others are finished with hand-embroidered touches. (Market)

Coats that have been selling in our own stock or elsewhere at quarter to almost half more.

All are of wool velour-all are SILK LINED nearly all have more or less elaborate silk stitching or embroidery.

Favorite colors, including navy, Nankin, moufflon, ostrich and brown.

There are 250 garments-sizes from 14 to 44 -and they are just exactly the kind of Summer wraps that nine out of ten women and young girls Three-quarter or long sleeves, graceful want. wrappy lines, big cape collars that set high at the back—every one has an air of individuality. It is good fortune for Philadelphia that one of our regular makers wanted to "clear Spring stocks" before starting Autumn husiness!

All the roats like three remaining in our own stocks have been re-marked to must this new price. (Market)

32 New Styles of Women's Pumps and Oxfords, $5.40 to $9.90

Style is playing a large part in women's shoes this season. But given the style one also wants to be SURE that the shoes are built for comfort and durability. When you actually wear the shoe you will find that its good leather and equally exceptional making combine to give real satisfaction.

12 Styles of 1-Strap Pumps $8.25 to $9.90

Made especially for Wanamaker's. Good inside as well as outside. Gray, brown or black suede, tan or black calf, brown or black satin. High or baby French heels and turned soles. Some combine two leathers.

20 Styles of Oxfords, $5.40 to $8.25

Black or brown kid, black or tan calf and tan leather with medium or mannishly low heels. Most of these are the fashionable brogue types that are as popular with women as strap pumps. (Chestnut)

Plenty of Children's Shoes, Pumps and Oxfords, $2.75 to $5.90 Sizes 111/2 to 2 in tan lace shoes, in patent leather lace shoes with white tops, in tan or white oxford ties and in tan. patent and dull black leather strap pumps. Shoes accurate in size and width, splendidly made and correctly shaped for growing feet. (Chestnut)

Boys' Dark Tan Shoes and Oxfords $3.50 and $5.60

Scout shoes that will wear almost forever. Sizes 10 to 1332, $3.50; 1 to 2, $3.90; 212 to 515, $4.50.

Brogue shoes with new saddle strap, sizes 1 to 51/2, $4.90. English-style oxfords, straight-lace style, sizes 21/2 to 51/2, $4.90

Brogue oxfords with full wing tips, saddle straps, sturdy welted soles, sizes 1 to 512, $5.60.

(Gallery, Market)