

A CARDINAL'S FLAG. It was held by Aileen Dougherty, Margaret McAleer and Gertrude McAleer, of St. John's Catholic Church. They stood at Broad and Chestnut streets. Ledger Photo Service

MEN AND BOYS FROM ST. MARTIN'S. This was part of the group that gave the Cardinal a tremendous ovation last night at Broad street and Indiana avenue. Ledger Photo Service

THE HOME FOLK. This group headed the delegation that came from Girardville, Schuylkill county, where Cardinal Dougherty was born. They stood at Broad and Sanson streets. Ledger Photo Service

BACK IN PHILADELPHIA. Cardinal Dougherty and Mayor Moore, in an automobile at the North Philadelphia station, just after the church dignitary had arrived from New York. A moment later the automobile started through the "standing parade," along Broad street. Ledger Photo Service

"FASCINATING FANNY BROWN." A musical comedy was presented by the members of "Les Mechantes," a social club, last evening at the New Century Drawing Rooms. In the group are the Misses Mabel Dickson, Margaret Moffitt, Emma Moffitt, Veronica Conwell, Fern Fritz, Anna Nickles, Lillian Townsend and Marian Lerch. Globe Photos

ARDMORE WILL CELEBRATE "SPRING OPENING" TONIGHT. The event is under the auspices of the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce. Among the willing workers are (left to right) Agnes and Jeanne Arnold, officers of the Junior Club of Ardmore, and Miss Helen Grenelle. Ledger Photo Service

AT CAMOUFLEURS' BALL. The event was held at the Biltmore Hotel, in New York. Miss Margaret Montgomery appeared as the Princess and Allen C. Eldredge as the First Prince. Paul Thompson

DR. LEWIS B. HARLEY talks about a city college in an interview on the Editorial Page. Ledger Photo Service

E. L. STOCK. He was elected governor of the fifth Rotary Club district without a ballot. Washington is his home. Harris & Knott

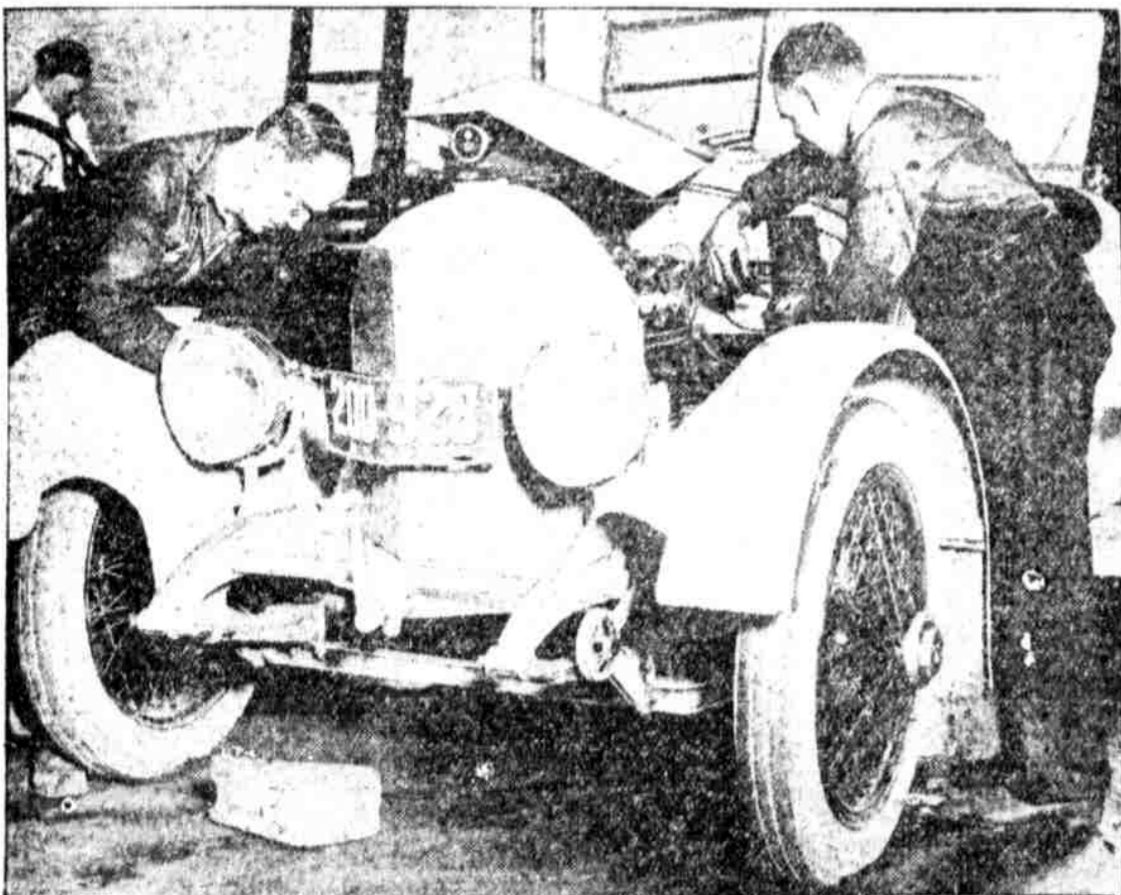

BUSY TRAINING DAYS. Members of the Haverford College track and field team working out, as spring meets are planned. Nash is going over the pole in the high jump, while Garrett Roberts is seen at low hurdles. Ledger Photo Service

EMPLOYEES OF QUERN'S BROTHERS, manufacturers of women's underwear, selected today's limerick winner. Seated are Johanna Weinberg and E. F. Magee. Standing, from left to right: J. Freedman, Elizabeth Pfister, Lena Russon, K. Annable; (in front) Sophia Schuster, Reba Sherman, Ella Blyler, Sarah Scullin, Mae Foster, Peggie Mann, Pius Becker, Bernard Lynch. Ledger Photo Service

MISS MARGARET SUMNER. She will interpret Humperdinck's opera, "Hansel and Gretel," before the Art Alliance on Monday afternoon.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

CHARLES KORB, 5834 Warrington avenue, and Robert Miller, 2437 Arlington street, assembling motor cars at the Meteor Motors, Inc., 3907 Lancaster avenue. Ledger Photo Service

BACK FROM THE RIVIERA. Mrs. William Barton (left) and Mrs. Robert Mandell, of New York, return on the Olympic. Central News Photo

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

RESERVE PATROLMAN CHARLES A. McGUIGAN, who is stationed at Front and Chestnut streets. He is forty years old, lives at 439 North Edgewood street and has been a patrolman for fifteen years. Ledger Photo Service

SIR THOMAS HARDER

SIR THOMAS HARDER, the famous English physician, arrived in New York on Wednesday. Central News Photo

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS LILLIAN SINDEL, 2437 South Tenth street Philadelphia