

R.R. BOARD DECISION PLEASES PHILA. MEN

Roads and Workers Should Settle Own Disputes, Jeffery Says

16 PRINCIPLES OUTLINED

The decision of the railroad labor board, abrogating the national agreement, has been received by railroad workers here with intense gratification. "We are tremendously pleased," said H. S. Jeffery, representing the Brotherhood of Railway Shoppers...

negotiating is also recognized. The new ruling goes a long way toward solving the existing problems confronting the roads and men.

STEEL UNION PLAN MAY BE DEFERRED

Depression in Metal Trades Gives Pause to Proposed Organization Drive

By the Associated Press Washington, April 15.—The proposed campaign to organize the steel industry may be deferred until industrial and economic conditions have improved, M.

F. Tighe, president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers, said today at the first session here of the executive council of national and international organizations in the steel industry.

does not mean abandonment of our proposed work, for the committee is determined sooner or later to proceed with its organization campaign and will continue formulating plans and build up a solid foundation for this work.

Corporation will reduce wages have reached the committee, the labor leader said, and probably will be discussed at today's conference.
