The arrangement submitted is only magical to the limits of the verticals, horizontals and the two diagonal sums being identical, but if the numbers were properly arranged the square would remain magical no matter how many outer rows were removed until we had only a 9 square remaining—still magical.

Mr. Taylor's arrangement falls far short of this and I think he could use a brain duater to advantage. REDATALE.

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger: Sir-Will you or some of your readers kindly help me to find the following old songs, or possibly you would be able to print them yourself. The first is called rint them yourself. The 'Alone.' the first lines are.

'Alone, I walked the ocean arrand. "Alone, I walked the ocean strand. A pearly shell within my hand; I steoped and wrote upon the sand, etc. The second is called "McGettigan's Social Solree, or Swaray," The first lines are: "McGettigan gave a swaray, and a hand of musicians he hired. A neat little note came to me," etc. The third and last is called "He Good, Be Good, My Father Said," The first lines are: "Re good, he good, my father said. The way be long and stormy, and some day you may be President.

And some day you may be Presiden Or a general in the army." etc. By obliging me with the foregoing I will be more than obliged and grateful to you and your paper. E. D. B. Philadelphia, April 5, 1921.
