JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Tells of the Gibson-Robinson Wedding in Pittsburgh-She Chats About Pony Show at Wynnewood and Speaks of Sedgley Luncheons

QUITE a number of people went on to von Moschzisker, Mrs. Joseph Leidy, Pittsburgh to attend the wedding of G. Warden.

C Pittsburgh to attend the wedding of Henry Gibson and Letitin Robinson, It was an extremely oretty affair, and from all I hear of the bride, she will eritainly be a delightful addition to the social set of this city. She is the instant and Mrs. Henry Pratt McKean. of Pine Run Farm, Penllyn, are spend-ing a few days in New York. Mrs. Harry C. Thayer, of Many Corthe social set of this city. She is the daughter of the James Alexander Rob-insons, of Pittsburgh and has been a rery popular number of the social set of that city and New York. Henry Gibson s the son of Mrs. Howsrd Gibson, of Ol Walnut street. His sister, you Mrs. A. Burt Riley and her daughter, Miss' Jean Brooke Riley, will leave this city on June 15 for their cottage at Fishers Island, N. Y. Miss Riley will make her debut at a ball, which her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Riley, 1509 Spruce street, will give on December 27 at the Ritz-Carlton.

is the son of Mrs. Howard Gibson, of 2001 Walnut street. His sister, you remember, was Adeline Gibson, and she did such splendid work over in France during the war. She died over there Mrs. Jeremiah J. Sullivan. of 1910 did such space of the war. She died over there during the war. She died over there from pneumonia, contracted while at cary, and last year Mrs. Gibson gave that wonderful Indian temple to Memorial Hall in her memory. You rememinal Hall in her memory. You rememinal Hall in her memory. You rememinal that wonderful for the state of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. York, Jr., who have been spending the winter at their apartment at Haverford, removed yesterday to their new home on Lancas-ter road. Ardmore. Mrs. York will at-tend as matron of honor at the wedding of her sister. Miss Eleanor I. McCaw-ley, daughter of Mrs. William Morris McCawley, and Lleutenant Commander Leo Hewlett Thebauld, U. S. N. which will take place on Saturday, May 14. Wile: Cathering Deed Mortings was given by the various art students and clubs of the city at the time of the edication of the gift. Mrs. Gibson, Mr. Gibson's mother, Mrs. Gloson, Mr. Gloson's mother, was Susan Worrell Popper, a sister of the late Mr. John Worrell Pepper and of Mr. Freddie Pepper, of this city. Her mother was formerly Miss Adeline.

orrell, and Adeline Gibson was named for her. Miss Mary Gibson and Mrs. Robert Brock are related on the Gibson side of the family, and Henry Gibson Brock was best man at the wedding yester-day. The ushers from Philadelphia were Mr. Howard Bickley, Dr. Norman Henry, Mr. Sam Crozer, Mr. Howard Savage, Mr. Frank Sartori, Jr., Dr. Debest Lowis who used to live here Miss Catherine Reed Henriques, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Henry A. Hen-riques, of Morristown, N. J., who has been the guest of Mrs. Charles T. Cress-well, of 2122 Locust street, for a few days, has returned to her home. The wedding of Miss Henriques and Mr. Rob-ort Cresswell will take place on Satur-day, May 28, in St. Peters' Episcopal Church. Morristown. for her.

Robert Lewis, who used to live here, but is now a resident of Baltimore, and Noel Symons, of Washington. understand that Mr. and Mrs. Gibwill live in Jenkintown after their wedding trip.

WHILE on the subject of weddings, of Leba you know McCall Keating is to be Miss Elizabeth Hood Latta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Love Latta, of 1830 South Rittenhouse square, who has been spending a few days in Pitts-burgh, will return to her home today. married June 1 to Miss Aubrey, of San Antonio, Tex., and the wedding is to take place down there. I hear that Miss Aubrey is the possessor of a most aquisite voice. I really mean an extraordinary one. Must that not be a perfect gift to have? Keating Willcox going down to the wedding, and will t as best man. and I understand that Dr. Keating will bring his wife here to live. His mother, Mrs. John Keating, and his sister, Miss Elizabeth Keating, live out in Wawa. Another sister, Mrs. Mark Willcox, lives also sister, Mrs. Mark Willcox, lives also at Wawa, and the eldest sister, Mrs. t Wawa, and the eldest sister, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. J. Bertram Lippincott William Sands, is living this year in forristown. She was Miss Edith Keat-ng, you remember, and married a son f the late Admiral Sands, whose wife as Miss Meade, a daughter of Admiral leade and niece of General Meade, of William Sands, is living this year in Morristown. She was Miss Edith Kentwas Miss Meade, a daughter of Admiral Meade and niece of General Meade, of

DO YOU realize that in a little more than two weeks we will be going han two weeks we will be going D than two weeks we will be going out to Wynnewood for the Pony Show? Think of it! How the time do ily, as I will entertain at a box party this eve-ning at the Academy of Music. Their was saying. It does not seem a year since the last ene, when I wandered along said funny shaped road from the totion and Mr. and Mrs. Dorff Moore. station and, turning into Lancaster pike, came upon a seething mass of humanity outside the Billie Clothier's gates waiting its turn to get in. Inside the gates pupples and kittens and ducks the gates pupples and kittens and ducks and other assorted "animules" met my giance, and it will be the same this year, for everyone is taking great care of his or her "dorg" and they il all be there with faces washed, and whis-kers brushed, and waving tails, if they have any, and not, if they have not. The only difference is that it's going to be at the Tom Ashtous' p ace this the Clothier family is in mourning for

The only difference is that it's going to be at the Tom Ashtons' place this year instead of the Clothlers', because the Clothler family is in mourning for the late Mr. Isaae Clothler. There was a very interesting and en-thusinstic meeting of the workers on Monday of this week and I hear that more entries for the various events have been made than ever before at this time in the preparations. A mondary of this week and I hear that been made than ever before at this time in the preparations. A mondary of this week and I hear that been made than ever before at this time in the preparations. A mondary of this week and I hear that been made than ever before at this time in the preparations. A mondary of this context the preparations of the the second s Mrs. Charles G. Rapp, of 133 Coulter

V. Close Miss Elizabeth Strong Oliver, granddaughter of Mrs. James Pendleton Horn, of the Tracy, Thirty-sixth street above Chestnut, will be married at 8 o'clock this evening at the Tabernacle Presbyterian Church, Thirty-seventh and Chestnut streets, to Mr. John Kea Huston, son nut streets, to Mr. John Ken Huston, and of Mrs. Mary Ralston Huston, also of the Tracy, the Rev. John Allen Blair, D. D., officiating. The bride will be given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Joseph A. Boyer. She will be attended by Mrs. James Pendleton Horn. Jr., of this city, as matron of honor. The bridesmaids will be Mrs. Harold Dixon Van Houten, of Westheld; Mrs. William Robb, of Phoentxville: Miss Margaret Huston, of Moorestown, and Miss Edith Hayes Ayres, of Cynwyd. The little flower girls will be Mrs. Catharine Dea-con and Miss Sara Deacon, nieces of the bridegroom. Mr. Warren Ayres Huston, of this city, will be Mr. Huston's best man, and his ushers will include Mr. Victor Wurman, Jr., and Mr. Henry Tat-nail Brown, Jr., of Mcorestown; Mr. George Thum Greiton, Or Trenton, and Mr. James Pendleton Horn, Jr., of this city. A reception at the Tracy will fol-low. After a wedding Journey Mr. and Mrs. Huston will be at home at 625 West Sedgwick street, Germantown.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mortimoore, of 409 South Fortysecond street, whose engagement to Mr. Francis F. Burch was recently announced ward J. Murray, Mrs. William C. S. Lex, Mrs. Max M. Arnold, Mrs. Affred Hopkin, Mrs. William Diehl and Mrs. Percy C. Neel.

Photo by the Phillips' Studios.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gill are at their new home at 159 East Tulpehocken street. Mrs. Gill was before her recent marriage Miss Eather Kibler,

Mrs. Henry Burnett Robb and her daughter, Miss Eleanor Robb, will close marriage Miss Eather Kibler, The last of a series of twelve dinner-dances will be given at the Belfield Country Club this evening. There will be a concert and a motion picture for the entertainment of the guents. Those taking part will include Mrs. Charles O. Towner, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watt, Miss Ray Troost, Mr. George Kelly, Mr. John 8 Walker, toastmaster; Mrs. Frank Yost and Dr. Walter Stuempfig. chaghter, Miss Eleanor Robb, will close their city home, 1726 Spruce street, on Thursday, May 5, and occupy their coun-try place, Acrefair, Haverford, until the autumn. The engagement of Miss Robb and Mr. Thomas H. Lineaweaver, of Lebanon, has been recently an-rounced

WEST PHILADELPHIA

Mrs. A. Forbes, of 5230 Chester ave-nue, announces the marriage of her daughter-Miss Helen G. Forbes, and Mr. Samuel T. Jackson, of New York, on Saturday last, in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Jackson will make their home in New York. Judge and Mrs. Edward Biddle, who have been spending the winter at the Wellington, will leave early next month for their home at Carlisle, Pa. Mrs. G. Edward Atherton, of the Bel-gravia, has left for a visit to North Carolina.

Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur Paddock Klapp. of 1716 Spruce street, are occupying their country place, Mt. Vernon, Villa-nova, until the autumn. Mrs. Ernest P B. Atwood, of Provi-dence, R. I. is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Clark Adkins, of 4831 Walnut street. Mrs. Atwood will spend some time in Washington and New York after leaving this city.

Mr. Jacob Levin, of New York, an-nounces the engagement of his daugh-ter, Miss Ida Sadye Levin, to Rabbi Louis J. Haas, of Harrisburg, son of Mrs. Etta Haas, of 5229 Addison street, this city.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gaul, of 1853 Roseberry street, are receiving congrat-ulations on the birth of a daughter.

The wedding of Miss Rita MacEl-hone, daughter of Mrs. Rebecca MacEl-hone, of 2115 South Eighteenth street, and Mr. Edwin B. Rassmann, took place on Thursday. April 14, at the Evangel Presbyterian Church, at Eighteenth and Tasker streets. The bride and bride-groom will be at home at 2115 South Eighteenth street after May 1. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Dorff Moore. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Robinson, of 822 Preston street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Helen Mary Rob-inson, to Mr. Robert Paul Craig, of 5234 Beaumont avenue.

Mrs. Bernard Sweeney, of Lakehurst, N. J., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. C. Furey, of 2500 South Cleveland ave-nue, Mrs. Sweeney will be remembered as Miss Nan Furey.

Miss Anna Becker and Mr. G Becker, of 4310 Frankford avenue Furs by M. Wenger of Mrs. Mary Ralston Huston, also of

Sedgwick street, Germantown. HSS DOROTHY S. MORTIMOORE

CLOSE-MCKERNAN

A very pretty wedding was celebrated yesterday morning with nuptial mass in Our Lady of Rosary Church, Sixty-third and Callowhill streets, when Miss Agnes Loretta McKernan, of 412 North Felton street, became the bride of Mr. James Vincent Close, of 2306 North Smedley Vincent Close, of 2306 North Smedley street. The ceremony was performed by a cousin of the bride, the Rev. Father Francis McKernan, after which a wed-ding breakfast foilowed. Miss Katherine McKernan, a sister, attended the bride as maid of honor. Mr. Edward Holahan, of Pottsville, acted as best man. After a wedding trip of a fortnight Mr. and Mrs. Close will live at 412 North Felton street, where they will be at home after May 15.

LANSDOWNE The junior section of the Twentieth Century Club will give a dance at the club house on Saturday evening.

The Lansdowne Radio Club met at Mr. Albert Mershon's home, 14 North Wycombe avenue, on Monday evening. Mrs. R. J. Mathern has been visiting Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel L. Clement have returned to their home, at 242 North Langdowne avenue, after spending the winter in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Edwin Grauley will give a card party at her home. Eaton Apartments, on Saturday afternoon, in honor of Miss Alice Statzell.

FRANKFORD

FRANKFORD The Frankford High School Alumni will entertain the members of the Fathers' Association this evening. The speakers of the evening will be Mr. Ear Harrison, Mr. Austin Homer and Mr. Henry Medar. An interesting entertain-ment has been arranged and the Mask and Wig Trio. Mr. Kilhour. Mr. Bingham and Mr. Thorp, will assist in entertain-ing. Mr. Charles Seltzer will give a humorous sketch and cartoons by sev-eral students will also be given. Mr. and Mr. William Dean, whuse and students will also be given. Mr. and Mrs. William Dean, whose marriage took place on April 9, are spending their wedding trip in Altoona and Atlantic City. Mrs. Dean before her marriage was Miss Gladys Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Foster, of 3606 Benner street. A musicale and entertainment will be given this evening by the Summerfield Methodist Episcopal choir for the bene-ft of the Ladies' Ald Society, Central Methodist Episcopal Church, at Ortho-dox and Griscom streets. Mrs. Gustay Becker and her children.

Mrs. Gustav Becker and her children.

Chertak Millinery

AN EXCLUSIVE DISTINCTION CHARAC-TERIZES THE UNUSUAL HATS NOW

SHOWN BY CHERTAK WENGER, AND

ORIGINAL SUMMER FUR FASHIONS BY

MORRIS WENGER ARE SO FAR IN AD-

VANCE AS TO FORECAST THE DELIGHT.

COLD DRY AIR STORAGE

House of Wenger

1229 Walnut St.

At 13th Street, Opp. St. James Hotel

FUL CONCEITS OF 1922.

apend the summer traveling in Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Swope, of 1512 Foulkrod street, have left for San Francisco where they are visiting their daughter, Mrs. C. F. Schleigh. Mrs. 1. Trotteur, of Harrison street, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Agnes Trotteur, is spending several weeks at Atlantic City.

KENSINGTON

Miss Stella Heim is spending severa reeks visiting in Cleveland, O.

The ladies auxiliary of the North-eastern Hospital will give a dance at the Mercantile, Broad street above Master, on Monday evening, May 2. NORRISTOWN take place on June 11. The newly elected officers of the Woman's Club of Swarthmore are Mrs. William P. Potter, president: Mrs. J. V. L. Bishop, first vice president: Mrs. Herbert Onyx, second vice president: Mrs. Walter Fritz, recording secretary; Mrs. George Simmons, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Horace Walter, treasurer. The new directors include Mrs. Harold Calvert, Mrs. J. Russell Smith and Mrs. Edwin A. Yarnall. The inaugural meeting was held on Tues-day, April 12. The Little Theatre Club, of Swarth-NORRISTOWN Miss Marie M. Roland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Roland, of 509 Haws avenue and Mr. James MacIntosh, of De-Kalb street, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. MacIntosh, of Oberlin, O., were married on Tuesday afternoon in the Grace Luth-eran Church. The pastor of the church, the Rev. C. M. Snyder, officiated at the ceremony. The bride and bridegroom were unattended. The ushers were Mr. E. Leidy Brendingler and Mr. Randolph P. Roland. Upon their return from a wedding trip to Bermuda Mr. and Mrs. MacIntosh will live at the Alsace Apart-ments, 202 East Jacoby street. They will be at home after June 1. The Little Theatre Club, of Swarth-more College, will present "Dear Bru-tus" on Friday and Saturday evenings, April 29 and 30, at the college.

ning.

Mrs. Charles A. Raymonde, of Llan-crch. will entertain the Musical His-tory Class of the Philadelphia Music Club, of which she is chairman, at tea at her home on Tuesday afternoon. April 26.

An old-fashioned fancy-dress party will be given on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. John Stade Carter, of will be given on Saturday evening by the Woman's Club of Media, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Clifford Wood-Curren terrace, are receiving congratu-lations on the birth of a daughter, Mary Eccleston Carter. Mrs. Carter will be remembered as Miss Kathryn M. Tyson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B Tyson, of 1500 DeKalb street. bury.

remembered as Miss Kathryn M. Tyson. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry B Tyson. of 1500 DeKalb street. Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan M. Shainline. of Abrams, just above Norristown, will celebrate the seventieth anniversary of their wedding day on Sunday. Mr. Shainline is ninety-one and his wife will be ninety on her next birthday in June. They live with their only grandchild. Miss Charlotte Shainline. Miss Bessie Fising. of 524 East Mar.

Miss Charlotte Shainline. Miss Bessie Frisina, of 534 East Mar-shall street, celebrated her birthday an-niversary by entertaining a number of her small friends at her home. Among the guests were Miss Cornella Daperele, Miss Mary Borzollo, Miss Emma Roden-baugh, Miss Lillian and Miss Theima Potter, Miss Ruth Laferty, Miss Mary Rose, Miss Else Blackburn, Miss Sarah Scallania, Miss Mary Frisina and Master David Frisina.

City.

PHILADELPHIA'S FOREMOST THEATRE Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Campion. of Media, will go on Friday to Annapolis, where she will be the guest of her cou-sins, Commander and Mrs. James Estis, with whom she will attend the hop at the Naval Academy on Saturday eve-ning. dent. Mr. John G. Pettit gave a talk on "Thrift." Twenty boys were present. Miss Dorothy Sharp, of East Second street, is spending a week in Atlantic GARRICK LAST & EVGS. Positively Last Week City

TO GIVE OMAR'S SONGS

The marriage of Misf Alice Statzell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan P. Statzell, of Lansdowne, to Mr. Tracy M. Purse, of Chattanooga, Tenn., will take place on June 11. Philadelphia Quartet to Take Part in Benefit Musicale "In a Persian Garden," the song cycle which Mrs. Liza Lehmann built up from verses selected from Omer Khayyam's "Rubaiyat." will be sung in Witherspoon Hall by the Philadel-phia Quartet tomorrow evening for the benefit of the Speech Reading Club of Philadelphia. The musicale, which will include

Stratford.

The musicale, which will include other selections, has for its patronesses Mrs. W. Percy Simpson, Mrs. Paul Clayton, Mrs. Bruce Ford, Mrs. Ai-banus Smith, Mrs. William A. Hol-man, Mrs. Edward S. Farnum, Mrs. Oliver B. Judson, Mrs. Pierre du Pont. Mrs. Nathan Todd Porter, Jr., Mrs. Albert E. Ford, Mrs. Samuel Vauclain, Jr., and Mrs. Samuel Henry Cregar.

SPRING CONCERT TONIGHT

Matinee Musical Club Will Have Native Indian Soprano

Friends and Admirers The spring choral concert of the Matinee Musical Club will be given to-night in the ballroom of the Bellevue-NEXT MONDAY for a Short Stay Seats for 2 This Very Day Princess Watahwaso, an American

DAVID BELASCO.

Saturda

A FLAY OF NEW CHINA

GRAND OLD NA

Be Among Their Philadelphia

GEO. M. COHAN'S Comediane

In the World's Greatest

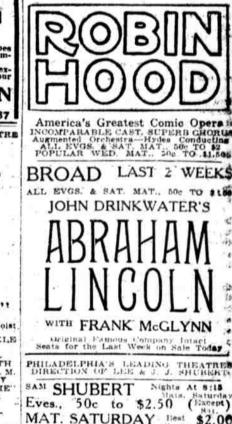

Musical Success

FORREST LAST 3 EVG8. LAST POP. MAT. Saturday LAST POP. MAT. SAT. LAST 4 TIMES

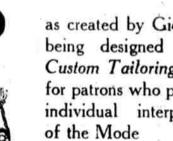

Princess Watabwaso, an American Indian dramatic soprano, will be intro-duced at the concert, presenting in the second part "The River of Stars," the legend of Ningara. The concert is given by the club chorus of 125 voices, assisted by Prin-cess Watabwaso, Clarence Bawden, composer-planist; the Matinee Musciai Club harp ensemble, Henry Boothroyd Buckley, accompanist, and the Eurydice string quartet. The chorus is directed by Helen Pulaski Innes. Mrs. Eugene Pettit is in charge of the program. A NATIONAL INSTITUTION ettitt is in charge of the program.

RALPH DUNBAR'S REVIVAL

THE Wynnewood fete is usually the suggement of her daughter. Miss Kathryn ragement of her daughter. Miss Kathryn L. Rapp, to Mr. George W. Super, also of Ardmore. first of the spring season and is fol-wed by several others, including the Anoth Horse Show and ending up with the June fete for Abington Hospital.

which is about the last of the important affairs before the hot weather sets in, and we all retire to rest until the Bryn Mawr show late September or carrly October each year.
THE first Sedgeley Club luncheon have started up, you know, and quite a number of the members will entertain

Insve started up, you know, and quite
Insve started up, you know, and quite A number of the members will entertain this afternoon, first at luncheon and the rowing on the river. Mrs. Harry Thayer will give a luncheon and Mrs.
Russell Duane, who is president of the club, will also entertain. Jane Maule Metawley, who is to marry Lieutenant Commander Thebauld on the 14th of May, and Retty Elliott, whose en fagement to Arthur Pew was an founced last month.
That Sedgley Club lunchroom is a

Bounced last month. That Sedgley Club lunchroom is a most attractive place. You know the old lighthouse tower in Fairmonnt Park goes right up through the middle of the room. like a huge pillar and then at the model the room there are many win-

NANCY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

SUCIAL ACTIVITIES or James Weir Robinson, of 326 th Sixteenth atreet, entertained at mall dance at his home last night in or of the marines on the Kansas, party was chaperoned by Mrs. An-w Wright Crawford, Mrs. J. Parker trin and Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkin-tring guests attended. Among se present were Miss Ellse du Pont, thirty guests attended. Among se present were Miss Ellse du Pont, se Eloise Warriner, Miss Ellzabeth misson, Miss Mildr.d Longstreth, s Mary Fahnestock and Miss Violet liern.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bartol, Jr., of 8 South Twenty-second street, are ing congratulated on the birth of a m, on Wednesday, April 20. Mrs. Bar-d will be remembered as Miss Malsie will daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benja-in Rush.

Miss Catharine Howard Coffin, daugh Miss Catharine Howard Coffin, daugh Miss M. R. Coffin, of 426 Meadow-and road, St. Davids, enteriained at a seridge and kitchen shower yesterday in fonor of Miss Louise Butterworth, laughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Werner But-erworth, who will be instriled to Mr. Frederick Heinsley Levis the latter part of June. The engagement of Miss Coffin and Mr. Stanley A. Weish was recently unnounced.

A reception will be given this after-oon at the Emergency Aid, 221 South Spliteenth street, in honor of Dr. Wil-rid T. Grenfelt. Among these who will saist in receiving will be Mrs. George forace Lorimer. Mrs. Henry Brinton oxe. Mrs. J. Willis Martin Mrs. Char-magne Tower. Mrs. Cornelius Steven-on. Mrs. Arthur H. Lea, Mrs. Robert goes right up through the middle of the room, like a huge pillar and then at the end of the room there are many win-daws which look out on the river. It's all done in creteonne and wicker, and it's most attractive. NANCY WYNNE.

Miss Minnie Hexamer will entertain

GERMANTOWN

CHERRY CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR CONTRACTOR 1021 Chestnut Street Disney Dream Hats Tomorrow 350 New Ravishing "Dreams" Offered in a GREAT SPECIAL SHOWING Lovely Modes Everyone Worth $8.50 to $12.50 Heralding the arrival of the gorgeous New Hat Modes, comes this Extraordinary Offering of New Hats that were made to sell at $8.50 and $12.50-Tomorrow as "Disney Dreams" they will be marked at $5.75. Stunning large and small modes of the popular Canton Crepe-Crepes de Chine in dark and pastel shades-chie Taffetas with fascinat-ing bows, flowers, etc.-Georgettes in artistic color combinations.