

HOLDS HER SCHOOL HIGH-JUMP RECORD. Jeanette Robey going back to earth after she cleared the bar at the Lansdowne High School, during practice, yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

A FRIENDLY COMPETITION. Dorothy Bowers is flying through the air as the hurdle falls over. Her teammate is Kathryn Lyle. They are members of the Lansdowne High School girls' track team. Ledger Photo Service.

GOING TO FOREIGN LANDS. Mrs. Arthur Woods and Mrs. William Brown Meloney, both well known in New York society, sailing on the Olympic. Central News Photo.

JOHN P. (JACK) CUDAHY AND CHILDREN. Cudahy committed suicide at Los Angeles on Wednesday because of financial worries. He was a son of the multi-millionaire Omaha meat packer. There are four children. International.

MUCH SHAD FISHING THESE DAYS. Fishermen in the Delaware river at Gloucester City make ready to drop their net. Ledger Photo Service.

NEW YORK ART STUDENTS HOLD ANNUAL BALL. At the left is Miss Peggy Goodman, who appeared as a Spanish dancer. The French maids are Miss Ruth Brucker and Miss Irma Case. Central News Photo.

MAYS WARMING UP. The New York American pitcher didn't make any home runs yesterday, but when Athletic runners were on bases he became airtight. Ledger Photo Service.

BEATING OUT AN INFIELD HIT. Walker, of the Athletics, is just getting back on his feet as he makes a wonderful slide to first base, at Shibe Park, yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

RUSHING THE SEASON. Representative William E. Mason, of Illinois, thinks it's warm enough for a Panama hat. Central News Photo.

DEVEREUX MILBURN, captain of the American polo team, sails to England to give battle to the British polo representative. Central News Photo.

THEY ROOTED WELL, BUT NOT ENOUGH. Women and men from the Frankford car barn of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Co. on their way to a ball game yesterday morning. Their team was defeated by the general office nine. Ledger Photo Service.

HIS AERO RUNABOUT. A. S. Butler, the first Britisher to use a personal airplane with a uniformed mechanic-chauffeur. He is leaving London for Paris to spend a few days. Central News Photo.

CHILDREN WATCH THE WORK. This photograph was taken as a student of the Academy of the Fine Arts did some work at Sixth and Chestnut streets. Ledger Photo Service.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

WALTER HOLNQUIST, of 2145 North Orianna street, molding a stove door for the Kappler Fox Foundry Co., in its foundry at 2027 East York street. He can finish thirty-five in a day. Ledger Photo Service.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

SAILS FOR ENGLAND. Bainbridge Colby, ex-secretary of state, was a passenger on the steamship Olympic. Central News Photo.

RESERVE PATROLMAN CLARENCE HINKLE, stationed at Fourth and Market streets. He has been on the force eight years, lives at 4345 Fleming street, and is thirty-one years old. Ledger Photo Service.

IN AMERICAN LEGION SHOW. Miss Genevieve Houston, who did clever dancing in a production at Carlsbad Club. Ledger Photo Service.

MRS. LLOYD GEORGE ENTERTAINS. She is shown at the left, as she takes London friends about the grounds at Chequers, the estate where the British prime minister and his family reside. Central News Photo.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS JEAN GORDON 2521 South Darien street Philadelphia. Ledger Photo Service.