TRANSIT BILL VETO URGED OF GOVERNOR

Philadelphia Senators Lay Down on Job. United Business Men Assert

ALL SAFEGUARDS OMITTED

Declaring that all safeguards for the protection of the neuric are disregarded and that corporations will have supreme power to build trolley lines anywhere they please through the passage of House bill No. 606, the United Business Men sent a protest to Governor Sproul today urging him not to sign the bill.

The communication was sent by counsel for the organization. This action was decided upon as a last effort to keep public utility concerns from constrolling the streets of the city. Although numerons members of the Senate had promised to use their efforts toward preventing the passage of the bill, it is contended by the association they were indifferent and lay down on the lob-

TWO PROTESTS ARE MADE

By a Staff Correspondent Harrisburg, April 23. — Both the "wets" and "drys" appear to be getting ready to drop the Woner prohibition enforcement baby on the administration doorstep and flee.

In its present shape the very-much-amended bill does not appear to please any one. "Wets" took some of the teeth out of it before it left the House and then per-formed some more dentistry in the Senate, where the bill still is resting in the law and order committeee.

"Dry" leaders have meanwhile de-cided to try to put back some of the ex-tracted teeth. But the real "bone drys" are beginning to weaken in their deter-mination to support the bill and unless CO-EDUCATION DISCUSSED one prompt rescue work is performed looks as though a combination of real Continuation School Teachers Not 'wets'' and "bone drys" would kill the
