Nancy Wynne Tells of the Marriage of Dr. Laine and Mrs. Rollin White in June—She Speaks of Mrs. Barklie's Return From Trip Abroad

I HAVE just heard of a wedding of interest here which is to take place on June 11. It will be that of Dr. Damos Laine, of Hoboken, and Mrs. Rollin White, of Groven, N. Y. Dr. Laine is very well known in this city. He is a relative of the Keatings and Wilcozes and his sister, Mrs. Adolfo Santa Maria, and her family live out at Ardmore. Dr. Laine's first wife was Mrs. Morris Stroud, Jr., of Villanova. Mrs. Laine died about six years ago, leaving a daughter, Lana Laine, who is attending school at Eden Hall, "Torresdale."

Dr. Laine is one of Havana's leading physicians. He has a private hospital under his care down there and is widely known in his profession, as well as socially.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Dr. and Mrs. George Gorgan, Ross, 1721 Spruce street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Helen Gorgan, to Mr. Donelson Wood Hoopes, son of Mr. Walter West Hamcock, of 400 West Price street, Germantown.

Mr. and Mrs. Pedro G. Salvo, of 4702 Chestnut street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Marie N. Salvo, to Mr. H. Graham Carson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Carson.

Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Amhar, of Germantown, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Vents Ambler, to Lieutenant James Earle Bonner, now stationed at San Diego, Calif.

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Day Lanier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Lanier, of 227 Spruce street, and Mr. Robert Hart Bolling, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Bolling, of Rockland Farm, West Chester, will take place on June 21, at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Jennie F. De Costa, daughter of Mr. Charles F. De Costa, will be the most prominent of the bridesmaids on Saturday, May 28, when Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Cassatt, of 1505 Locust street, will marry their daughter, Miss Rosemary. Mr. and Mrs. Cassatt opened their country place last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Standley Stokes of Washington, avenue and Carpenter street, Germantown, will be the guests of honor at a dance on Saturday evening, April 30, at the Radnor Hunt Club. The dance is being arranged by Mrs. Williams Biddle Cadwalader, Miss Jennie F. De Costa, Miss Anna M. Elliott, Miss Christine Cadwalader and Miss Sarah H. B. Penrose.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Norman Henry and their three daughters, Miss Mary Henry and Miss Josephine Henry, of 1906 Spruce street, have returned from a visit to Europe on June 3. They expect to travel through France, Switzerland and Spain and will return to their home on Sunday, June 6.

Miss Caroline S. Barclay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lytle Barclay, of Grandview, is right on the job. Frances K. Winter, daughter of Mr. Owen Winter, of Butler place, Logan, will be the guest of honor at a party on Saturday, April 23, at her country place, "Perry Hill," Jenkintown.

Mrs. James Large and Miss Pauline Davis, of 281 South Fourth street, closed their town house yesterday afternoon and moved to their country place at Chestnut Hill. Miss Davis will sail on May 12 for Europe. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Louis A. Phipps and her daughters, Miss William Williams, and Miss Sarah B. Phipps, who will spend several months in Italy prior to going to France.

Miss Caroline S. Barclay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lytle Barclay, of Grandview, is right on the job. Frances K. Winter, daughter of Mr. Owen Winter, of Butler place, Logan, will be the guest of honor at a party on Saturday, April 23, at her country place, "Perry Hill," Jenkintown.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rodman Page, Jr., and their family, of 2915 Locust street, will spend the week of June for York Harbor, Me., where they will occupy their cottage, "The Anchorage," until the autumn.

Miss Polly Hayward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. McKean Hayward, of 105 East Johnson street, Germantown, will return today from Philadelphia, N. Y., where she spent a fortnight at St. Mary's Academy.

Mrs. George Fox will leave next week for Pittsburgh, where she will spend a fortnight as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Downing, Mrs. Fox and her daughter, Miss Emily B. Fox, who since their return from Bermuda, where they spent the winter, have been living at the Colonial Hotel, 1100 Market street, 8065 Crawford street, Chestnut Hill, early next month.

CHEERING UP

Living in Cuba, reminds of the fact that Margaret Dunlap's fiance, Mr. Sosthenes Behn, has been living down there, too. Margaret, by the way, has gone over to New York for a few days. And immediately I said to myself, "Trousseau! For, you know, she is to be married next month. Margaret is very pretty and always dresses to perfection. She has lived with her aunt, Miss Julia Berwind, ever since her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salfus Dunlap, died. Mrs. Dunlap was a Miss Berwind, a sister of Miss Julia Berwind, of New York, and Mr. Harry Berwind, of this city. Margaret Berwind is a first cousin of Margaret Dunlap, therefore, but while Margaret Berwind is rather dark, Margaret Dunlap is fair.

Mr. Behn has a splendid war record. He was on the other side with the American expeditionary forces and served at general headquarters. He took part in the Argonne drive and was in command of a battalion in other famous expeditions. He was with the front-line command when hostilities were over.

EVERY ONE

was so glad to greet Mrs. Archibald Barklie when she appeared at the first meeting of the Devon County Fair committee, of which she is chairman, that the meeting almost turned into a pink tea.

Mrs. Barklie has been absent for some time, and returned to this country last week. Mrs. Barklie has been in charge of the County Fair party since it was started out there, and has made it a goal each year. And while every one of the 200 chairman, terrifically hard, it is hard to feel that the one who is primarily responsible for the affair's success is here on the spot. And from all I hear Mrs. Barklie is right on the job.

The Home Brevue Orchestra (now don't call them band—they are an orchestra) is to play for the dance music every afternoon. And if that is not playing and dancing, and never having a chance to dance themselves, though there is one band player who does dance around a bit all by himself while playing. Far be it from me to tell his name, it might embarrass him; but keep your eyes peeled and you'll see him when you go to the show.

Mrs. Charlie Harrison has charge of the dancing and Mrs. John Couverse, Mrs. Alfred Devereux and Mrs. Edgar Church will chaperone also, and Mrs. Falmouth, Agnes Bartlett, Mary Hovind, Ruth Packard, Sarah Barzinger, Augusta Harrison and Mrs. H. Thayer are to be the aides for the dancing. Altogether it sounds very exciting.

AND tonight

we have the Triangle Club performance at the Bellevue-Stratford and a dance in the afternoon for the undergrads at the Princeton Club. There are to be a great many parties for the show; all the boxes have been taken and all the old Princeton men will be there. And while talking of Princeton let me tell you a tale of Betty, who is two and a half and the daughter of a Princeton man, as well as the granddaughter of another Princeton man. I know it sounds remarkable, but it's true. When Betty is asked to cheer for Princeton she remarks: "Wah! Wah! Princeton!"

Well, a couple of weeks ago on a lovely afternoon Betty's mamma took her to the Zoo and they were going through the lion house in which walked a great big beautiful tiger, Betty stood spellbound, and then with a funny
