

IN THE OLD APPLE TREE. Elizabeth Miller and E. L. Gifford spent a quiet hour with their books at the Y. W. C. A. camp, Penlyn, yesterday afternoon.

LEAP FROG. Forty girls from the Central Y. W. C. A., 1800 Arch street, spent the week-end at the association's camp, Penlyn. Miss Winifred Fisher was in charge of the group.

THEY SUPPLIED WINNING INSPIRATION. These are just a few of the younger students of Girard College who rooted hard and well for their track team, which won in the triangular track tilt against Frankford and Germantown High Schools on Saturday.

HIS FACE IS ON ALL OUR NICKELS. Two Guns White Calf is the gentleman who posed for the sculptor who designed the Buffalo nickel.

VIOLINIST AND HIS WIFE. Fritz Kreisler and Mrs. Kreisler, aboard the Olympic, as they start to spend the summer abroad.

STANDING BY HER TELEPHONE. Mrs. E. W. Browning, of New York, boasts of a unique telephone. It is covered with a Japanese mask.

AT THE DOG SHOW. The Philadelphia Fox Terrier Club held a specialty show at the Continental Hotel. Mrs. W. J. Hunter was there with "Forest City Melody."

LABOR LEADERS. Frank Morrison (left), secretary of the American Federation of Labor, and Samuel Gompers, president of that organization, at the labor demonstration held in the Academy of Music yesterday.

TY COBB CHATS WITH THE BOSS. Detroit's manager and Judge Landis, high commissioner of organized baseball, just before the opening game of the American League in Chicago.

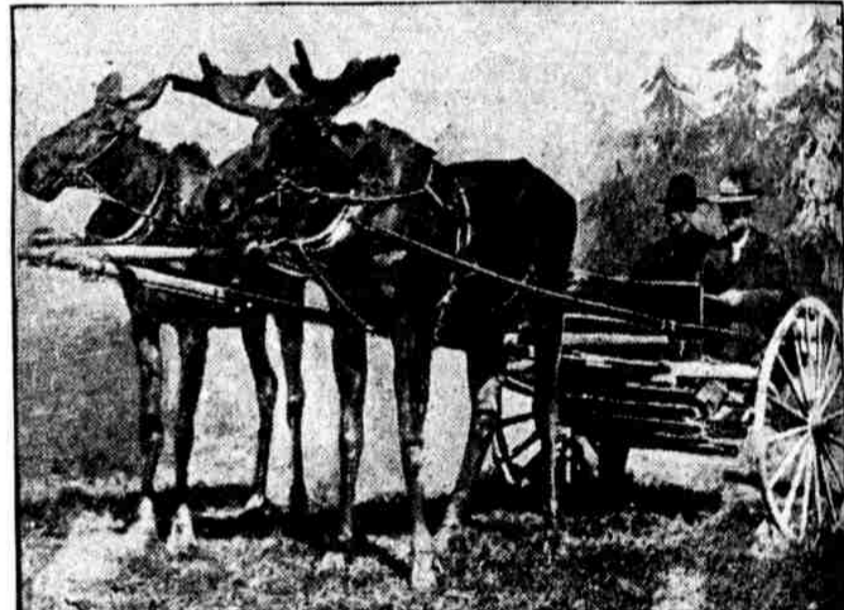

GIRL SCOUTS ON SUNDAY HIKE. Members of Girl Scouts Troop No. 175, connected with Our Lady of the Rosary Church, West Philadelphia, prepare for outing. Mary Flanigan is adjusting Gertrude Broderick's pack.

IN NORTHERN CANADA. Moose are used as beasts of heavy burden and are frequently seen pulling heavy loads between rail points.

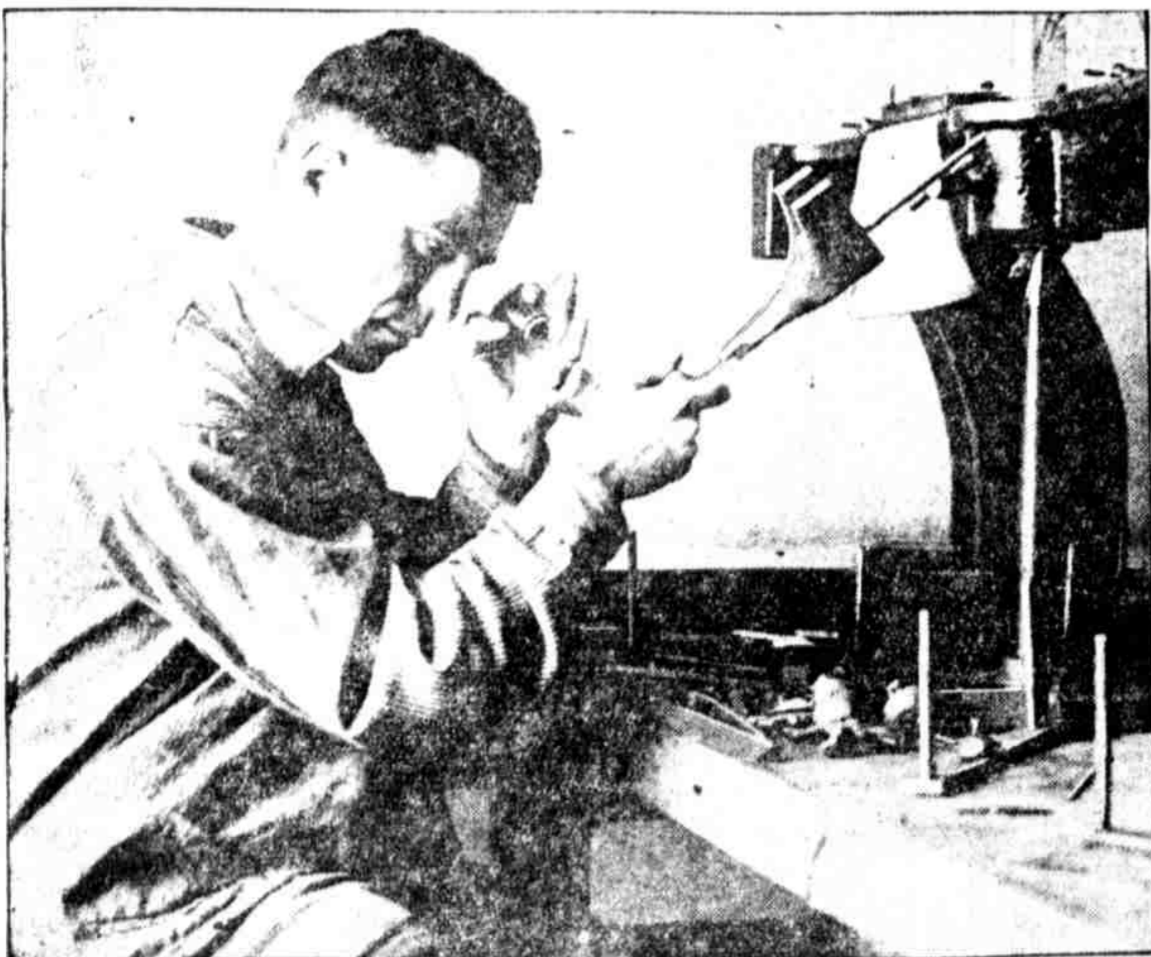

PETER A. JAY, who has been nominated by President Harding for the post of minister to Rumania.

IN NORTHERN CANADA. Moose are used as beasts of heavy burden and are frequently seen pulling heavy loads between rail points.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

J. J. SCHWARTZ cutting a diamond from the rough in the shop of Hoffman & Co., manufacturing jewelers, 227 Chestnut street.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY ATHLETE. John G. Simmons, a member of the four-mile relay team, which will take part in the Penn relay events.

SMILING JIM. He is Reserve Patrolman James L. Brown, stationed at Twelfth and Arch streets for two years. Brown joined the police force eighteen years ago. He lives at 1233 West Harold street.

FRANK J. SHEA, of the University of Pittsburgh, who will compete in the one-mile relay on Saturday.

SHOT AND DISCUS STAR. Halsey, of Princeton, who is prepared to battle on Franklin Field this week.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS MARIE ENGLISH 404 West Diamond street, Philadelphia