

DIED AT SHORE, AGED 72 Dispatch to Evening Public Ledge

Atlantic City, April 25.-A sensaanal fight for the millions left by the te George M. Oyster, the seventy-two-Washington millionaire, who r-old Washington millionaire, who d at the Hotel Ambassador here last ht, is in prospect, according to friends Mr. Oyster, here on the discovery ay that he had added a codicil to his Fourteen-year-old boy who dis-appeared from his home April 12 Il shortly before he died, cutting off twenty-six-year-old bride without was learned here today that a Washington attorney arrived here shortly before Mr. Oyster's death and that the codicil was drawn up, signed witnessed by an employe of the lotel Ambassador.

The young bride of the aged millionto noon had not been located. The body the mother said The mot The mother said Thomas left home will be shipped to Washington this afat noontime on the day of his disappearance to return to school. He did

Mrs. Oyster was formerly Miss Cecil not come home that evening, and the Ready, of Syracuse, N. Y., and her marriage to the millionaire on January next morning the mother made inquiries at the school. She was told Thomas 15 last created a sensation in Wash had not reported for classes the previous ington and Syracuse social circles. Mr. afternoon ter came here two weeks ago accom Mrs. Sussman thinks the boy played panied by his physician, and it was said at the time that he had become estranged from his young wife. The hookey and was afraid to come home, thinking his absence from school had report was that they had separated. Mrs. Oyster has been living at 77 West Sixty-eighth street. New York. It been learned at home. She is very anxious to learn of his whereabouts, said early today that she was on r way to Atlantic City. II. M. Brownard, a business associ as with Mr. Oyster when the end A brother, D. W. Oyster, hur-Washington when he heard Mr. Oyster was seriously ill, but was walking along the corridor to e apartment the aged millionaire ex-The Oyster fortune is estimated at meritus nearly $5,000,000. romance of the aged millionaire where Mr. Oyster was showing born in Scotland. He was attracted roughbred horses. Miss Ready by her fine horseman-

FIGHT FLAMES WITH SAND

Brigade Without Water Saves Cedar

Brook Hotel The use of sand prevented flames reaching the Hotel Central, Cedar streets. Lyell Rader, the speaker, N. J., last night when fire evangelist, was a speaker. stroyed the water-pumping plant in he rear of the hotel. Because of the location of the fire dunteers could not obtain water to Farmers and woodmen hastily rganized a brigade and threw hundreds pounds of sand over the flames. Firemen from Hammonton, N. J. summoned." They made the eighta-mile trip in eighteen minutes. The ize had been extinguished when the apparatus drew up in front hotel. The damage is estimated at $1000 About a dozen guests in the house helped to fight the fire, which began at S o'clock.

Deaths of a Day

rears old

City Hall Routine, Receiving Delegations, Banqueting and Issuing Statements Break All "Union" Schedules

The eight-hour day is merely a phrase to Mayor Moore, who usually spends from twelve to sixteen hours a day on the exacting duties of his re-sponsible job. The directors hurry in and discuss them.

afterne

Mayor almost invariably is accompa-nied either by Mr. Smyth, Director Caven or some other department head. The Mayor walks to a nearby restaurant and generally has a hot roast-beef sandwich and a cup of coffee. Then back to City Hall again to take up the broken thread of engagements. In the afternoon the Mayor frequently

Mayor's offices are closed officially

Issues Statements on Everything

Reductions

The wage cut recently proposed to its action to the railroad labor board now

The Mayor 's no epicure regarding food. A roast-beef sandwich appeals more to him than a course luncheon. But when it comes to work he "just eats it aliye." Mr. Moore generally rises at 7 o'clock and shaves and breakfasts at o'clock and shaves and breakfasts at his home, 269 South Fourth street. After the meal he reads the newspagiving particular attention pers, political reports and the happenings at City Hall. National politics also claims his at-tention and he keeps closely in touch with developments in Congress when that lawmaking body is in session. He Thomas Sussman Left Home April also works on contracts and ordinances After vainly searching for her fourthat require his signature. Shortly before 9 o'clock the Mayor een-year-old son Thomas since his disappearance April 12, Mrs. Lena Susssteps into a waiting city-owned au-tomobile and is taken to City Hall. man is under the care of a physician at her home, 2503 East Clearfield street, Busy With Correspondence

There he finds a pile of correspond-office the Mayor takes time to dictat ence. For an hour the Mayor reads, deliberates and dictates replies. Somea statement outlining the subject under times a question will-require informa-tion from a department director or a bureau chief. The Mayor doesn't pigdiscussion and disclosing whatever ac-tion is taken. These statements are sent out to newspaper men assigned to "cover" the Mayor's office. The dictation of letters is resumed about 4 o'clock. The Mayor also reads conhole the matter, but gets the facts at once, then resumes his dictation. At 10 o'clock his engagements for over ordinances that must be approved the day begin. He may receive a call from a delegation of business men, a him he sometimes sends for the convisit from an association committee or a prearranged call from some promi-nent men who wish to enlist his supand said that Thomas need not fear any punishment if he returns to her. Thomas is the youngest of a family of port for a project or call his atten-tion to some special phase of a civic three. GETS BOUQUET OF HEATHER GETS BOUQUET OF HEATHER Rev. Dr. John Gordon Honored by president of the Chamber of Commerce and former Governor Stuart, who disand have been doing so all along, and that that is the only character of pledge

Ministers on 78th Birthday cussed, the proposed sesquicentennial The Rev. Dr. John Gordon, dean exposition, meritus of the Temple University Half an hour later he received a dele-and the young woman was said to have tist ministers' conference, in honor of 11 o'clock a number of business men begun at the New York state fair last his seventy-eighth birthday. He was called to talk over the gas and transit situations

Dr. Gordon for many years was mod-erator of the Baptist ministers' con-Invited to Take a Walk/ At 12 o'clock members of the Riders' week, and Drivers' Club were ushered into his But ference and during his active ministry was regarded as one of the most forceinner office. They invited him to be lation is pending in Council, he has been present at the beginning of a hike known to burn the midnight electricity ful and scholarly clergymen of his decheduled for May 14.

mination. These conferences occasionally were up the laws affecting them. The heather was presented to him by the Rev. A. E. Harris at the conference meeting held in the First Baptist Church, Seventeenth and Sansom streets, Lyell Rader, the chemist-

Refuse to Yield to Principal and Reading Signalmen Refuse to Accept city. Mrs. Harding Names Bazaar Doll Board of Education Named by Mrs. Warren G. Harding, wife of the President, a large doll, The suspended "frat" students of the

Missing Boy

THOMAS SUSSMAN

BOY OF 14 MISSING

12 to Go to School

Camden High School have subscribed signa'men by the management of the Reading Railway is to be referred for elaborately dressed, will be a feature of the bazaar conducted by San Domingo to a statement that they will not sign the pledge of the principal and Board in session at Chicago. Council, Knights of Columbus, that opens today at the council's new home, Spruce and Hicks streets. sue, claiming it is unfatt and beyond The name given by Mrs. Harding is a the jurisdiction of the school. secret that will not be disclosed until Saturday night, the last night of the The students say the attitude of the board in sustaining the principal, Miss Clara S. Burrough, has made it im-possible for them to sign the "frat" bazaar. Guesses will be submitted by visitors and the correst guesser will revisitors and the correst guesser with ceive the doll. Many features; includ-ing a popularity contest, will be held during the week. The ladies' auxiliary students says they are willing to abide by the rules of the Camden board, abide by the rules of all along, and

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES

Seek His Sweetheart

EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, APRIL 25, 1921

attends meetings of various boards and directorates. Appointments to see men or groups of men are squeezed into the otherway provides and at the states the (e) International program, and at 4 o'clock the Alleged Scranton anarchist who is being held on the suspicion that he was connected with the Wall street bomb explosion in New York. He has been identified as a man seen After nearly every conference in his standing near the bomb wagon shortly before the blast. Detectives are now looking for a girl said to be his sweethcart in their quest for further evidence

WINS HONOR AT PRINCETON

Sidney L. Wright, of Logan, Gets tractor and gets first-hand information before signing the document, From 5 o'clock until about 6:30 hc Charlotte E. Proctor Fellowship Sidney L. Wright, Jr., of Fisher's confers with directors and bureau chiefs lane, Logan, member of an old Philaand receives calls from politicians allied delphia family, is one of two residents with the administration. Friendly of this city who have way Charloffe the administration. of this city who have won Charlotte councilmen also call during that period. Dinners and night meetings then have Elizabeth Proctor Fellowships at the graduate college of Princeton Univer-sity. The other Princeton graduate is 8. 1. Levingood, of Wayne, Pa. Mr. Wright is honored for his excelclaim on his time. He is bombarded with requests to speak "here, there and everywhere," and although many invitations are courteously declined, an asdence in chemistry and Mr. Levingood for modern languages. The fellowships asserted they have not seen her in pable the winners to take elective subtonishingly large number are accepted. The Mayor cats at few of the dinners, preferring plain food to the claborate menus of the banquet tables. Mr. Moore keeps his evening clothes puble the winners to take elective subjects at the graduate college for a period of a year. period of a year. Mr. Wright attended Germantown

Mr. Wright attended Coundated unsuccessful rin his office and is ready to go from City Hall to a dinner or a meeting with-our first going to-his home. His "at-Uniper streets. In 1914 he entered being made. evenings average two or three a Princeton, where he specialized in the udy of chemistry But even there, when critical legis

When the United States declared was in 1917 Mr. Wright enlisted in Base Hospital No. 10. Later he transferred the air service and performed into hemical work in Paris. Upon the completion of his under-

FRAT' STUDENTS STAND PAT CUT UP TO U. S. RAIL BOARD graduate course at Princeton Mr Wright became associated with a chemmanufacturing company in this Stealing Auto Three This was the result of a conference today between H. C. Kinzey, repre-sentative of the Brotherhood of Railmen jumped from an automo-

The proposed cut, ranging from 15 twenty-eight years old. Mascher street near Cumberland; Godfrey Conrad.

to 30 per cent, was to have gone into eighteen years old, Mutter street above effect tomorrow, but will not become York, and John Stentz, twenty-four operative, due to failure of the men to years old, Front street near Cumber accept it. Today's conference was the last of

John Tracey
John T

LIGI'S SWEETHEAR SOUGHT BY POLICE

Lackawanna Valley Scoured for Girl Friend of Bomb Plot Suspect

HUNT FOR EVIDENCE IN MINE have

Barre is being scoured by detective: for the mysterious "Hetty," who is said to be the sweethcart of Tito Gatchell, of that place, a former nurse Ligi, the Wall street bomb suspect, of the Hahnemann Hospital. She has become the central figure in the investigation of the Scranton. New Street Methodist Episcopal Church. tork and Federal officials into the While Standbury was in Contesville suspicions that have been aroused by making quick plans for his wedding. the admission of Ligi that he is an Mr. Shingle board of his presence there anarchist and his identification Saturrest. day as the man who stood beside the death wagon minutes before the explosion. "Betty" is described as a pretty Italian girl who has been in the company of Ligi for more than a year. She at one time worked in a restaurant where the suspect was a waiter and dis-appeared simultaneouly with his arrest Tuesday afternoon. Friends of the girl insist she can account for Ligi's movements between September 8 and September 25 last, and thereby dislodge phia.

the suspicions that have been in the minds of the authorities. the suspicions that have become fixed in the minds of the Scranton "Betty" Before coming to Scranton "Betty" is reported to have lived in Old Forge, is reported to have lived in Old Forge. eight miles south of this city. Old Forge was the center of radical ac-tivities - of Northeast Pennsylvania Pennsylvania during the war. The headquarters of 1. W. W. workers in that town was raided two years ago and more than 150 arrests were made by the Pennsylvania State police. vania State police. Old Forge was one of the first places the detectives went to yesterday. They interviewed a number of persons ac-quainted with the girl, but all of those tectives proceeded to Wikes-Barre where the missing girl was at one time employed, but their search was equally unsuccessful there. While the search for "Betty" was being made. Cornelius Brown, detective sergeant, of the New York bomb squad, and Detective John Gilroy, of the Scranton police, revisited the abandoned mine-shaft in South Scranton. The police authorities, have expressed the belief that the Wall street bomb was manufactured in a mine shaft in the Lackawanna Valley and possibly in the

The detectives took ropes and tackle, and Detective Gilroy was lowered through the shaft to the second level and groped around with the aid of a flashlight for a distance of several hundred feet in every direction, but with

New York, April 25. - The New sentative of the Brotherhood of Rail-way Signalmen of America, and F. M. Falck, general manager of the Reading, at the Spring Garden street Y. M. C. A.

MAN SOUGHT FOR LARCENY MAY FACE BIGAMY CHARGE Former Coatesville Promoter Wanted

Paul S. Stansbury, a former promoter, of Coatesville, is being sought The offer is being made to American business houses the consulate stated, by a "certain Chevalier Andre Lebano of London" who asserts for a fee he can obtain diplomas and medals of the by the police.

313 Vine street, who says he lost considerable money through the promotion schemes of Stansbury, swore out a warrant for his arrest on Saturday, on the charge of larceny. There is also a possibility that Stansbury will

The letters of solicitation state business men would find it useful to mention that their wares had been "awarded" a diploma and gold medal. face charges in connection

Scranton, April 25. — The . Lacka-wanna Valley from Scranton to Wilkes-bis first wife, and fled to Texas two On Saturday. The Shingle declares that he made partial payment on an automobile to in Wall street a few Stansbury and that the latter sold the car to some one cise. Stansbury, it is believed, heard of the warrant, for his arrest and, in order to avoid anything depressing on his second wed-thing day, quickly changed his plans and cloped. After the ceremony was performed in this city Stansbury, with > the bride, was called on the telephon and asked for a parental blessing, it said that he refused it plished, and a number of persons lost heavily in the venture, it is said."

Women Called for Jury Duty These women were summoned for jury service in the United States Distric Court here today : Mrs. C. A. Crooks Norwood, Delaware county : Mrs. Florence Keiser, Pottstown, Ruth Verlin-den, Darby, and Elsa Morris, Frick'

THE HOLMES PRESS. Printers 1315-29 Cherry Street Philadelphia

Combination? Coat-Golf or Norfolk model - Knickers and long trousers - some with vests - three and four piece Suits.

"Accademia Fiscio Chimica" of Paler-

(NBT)

What Sort of Suit?

Tweed or homespun

mixture in a Sports mo Italy.

3

Nifty? Well, you've said it! Knickers for the Country Clublong trousers for the counting house! $35. $38, $45, $55 - Extra Trousers or Knickers. $7, $10, $12.

Straight out - and - out business Suits - pleasing men every day right down to the ground!

Wonderful array of Pencil Stripes. Same of light grays.

All in all—Fine Spring Suits!

$30 to $65

on Several Charges today warned business firms against an offer of a "first class diploma with gold medal" for the equivalent of five Eng-lish pounds sterling.

L. H. Shingle, a leather dealer, of with his matrimonial aspirations.

wife No. 2, it is alleged, went home of a brother in West Philadel-

When Clarence Gatchell, father of Mrs. Jane Heck Stansbury, wife No.

vorced in Texas after leaving my sis ter-in-law." said Shingle, "but as she received no notice of such a divorce she has already taken steps to bring action against him. Stansbury starte to promote a railway in Coatesville a few years ago. Notaing was accom-is Shingle's sister-in-law. "Stansbury claims that he was di-

Lock, Montgomery county.

no result York police continued their investiga-tion of the suicide yesterday of Adolph

