WILLIAMS SCORES WIN OVER BURMAN

Veteran Upsets the Dope by Defeating Chicago Youth in Eight-Round Bout

THE KID STAGGERS JOE

By LOUIS H. JAFFE

The unexpected again was pulled in the 24-foot ring at the National Kid Club last night when the veteran Kid Williams came through with a victory over Chicago's young champion contender, Joe Burman, in the star bout of eight rounds.

The former champion started to pile up points early in the fracas and he had the bout sewed up before Burman got into the running in the latter rounds.

Williams started the contest in spots by tying up Williams in the clinches, handclapping the kid time and again.

Williams won three rounds, four were even and one belonged to Burman.

Because of his fast pace Williams appeared to tire in the fifth round, but he worked more with both hands and opened an even break in the exchanges.

This round ended in a fifty-fifty split, but in the next period the Windy City kid stepped up and showed to advantage.

This was Burman's best round. He staggered Williams with a right cross on the jaw, but Williams' body swayed and he was unable to follow up.

The fight lasted even in the last two rounds. Most of the execution on both sides was done in the half clinches, and referee Frank O'Brien had a hard time stopping the battles.

Williams weighed 121½ and Burman was a pound lighter.

Johnny Mahoney, of Hazleton, at 135½ pounds, pinch-punched for Young Andy Honey, who was announced as taking his fight in New York and was unable to come here for his meeting with Harry Kid Brown, 128½.

Before the set was over Mahoney looked as if he were ill. Browne looked sick and looked Mahoney throughout the eight scheduled rounds.

Max Williams made such a good showing against Abie Friedman in Boston last week that he now issues a challenge to Kid Williams.

Young Willie, a 107-pounder, wants to meet Little Jeff, Sammy Gold and Hobby Wolgast, writes his second, Philip Baker.

William ("Bill") Brown, of New York, is being considered a member of the board of the new boxing commission of the State by Governor Miller, according to Willis H. Brown, who has been in the boxing in New York.

ROUNDING UP BLACK SOX

All Indicted Players Who Haven't Surrendered to Be Arrested

Chicago, April 26.—The period of leniency for the men indicted in connection with the 1919 world series scandal who have not surrendered has passed, and warrants for their arrest have been sent to various cities, it was announced today at the state attorney's office, following receipt of official information concerning the arrest yesterday in California of Hal Chase, the first of the indicted men to be taken into custody.

Only four men—Gladio Williams, Joe Jackson, Buck Weaver and Carl Zork, the latter the alleged leader of the reported conspiracy—have given bail. Arrest of Eddie Cicotte, Happy Felsch, Fred McMullin, Rachel Brown, J. J. Sullivan, Swede Risberg, the two Levi brothers and David Zeller, other indicted men, may be expected any day, it was said.

The state officials have given up hope, however, that Abe Attell, former featherweight champion, will be brought to trial, it became known. Attell, the officials have learned, is in Canada where he cannot be extradited on a state warrant. The fact that he went to Canada immediately after the first indictments were voted last fall and did not appear when the case was called has caused the officials to "leave him out of their plans."

There are three purse races featuring the Havre de Grace card today—the Cindrella purse, the spring handicap and the Conrade handicap. The Cindrella is for maiden two-year olds.

The Ashland Oaks, $3000 added, is the feature at Lexington today. The race is for three-year-old fillies, all carrying 121 pounds.

Three of the Phils left today for New York where they will be held for sometime. The players are Frank Whitton, catcher; "Swatland Yards" Singleton and Lefty David, pitchers.

Frank Bruner is making a huge hit with the Phils fans. He is a hard hitter, a good worker and a fast runner. His baseball work thus far, which is one of the best in the country.

It has been the usual belief that a playing manager falls down in his mechanical work on the diamond. This speaker didn't, however. The question is, Will Cobb's playing be affected by his new position? You can't judge by one or more games; nevertheless, there was up the time yesterday without getting a hit.

"No Mercy," Says Ban Cleveland, April 26.—President B. J. Johnson, of the American League, who arrived here today to participate in the American League championship arrangement, announced he would leave for Washington after today's game to arrange for extradition of several men wanted in connection with the 1919 world series betting scandal.

President Johnson said he expected heavy cooperation from federal officials at Washington. "No mercy will be shown the gamblers," he said. "We will ask for speedy trials and the utmost limit of the law against all offenders."

Law Segal, who is training Willie Ferguson, will box with his charge in one of the seven bouts on for the Jimmy Ryan benefit here. Segal wants to be a star featherweight here. He refuses to commit himself as to whether he is training for a comeback.

EPICUREAN ROOKY CATCHER EATS WAY OUT OF LEAGUE

Cincinnati, O., April 26.

TOM CONWAY, a young catcher who won fame by his work as a backstop in a crack club overseas, drew his release from the Reds today, and Artzyan Douglas, of Ft. Worth, will be carried as third catcher.

Conway's doom is supposed to date from a day when the Red players were told to eat dinner and charge it to the club. And Conway ate $7.70 worth.

Unassisted Triple Play by Outfielder

Knoxville, Tenn., April 26—George Smiley, center fielder of the Pioneers, Knoxville's team in the Appalachian League, earned a place in baseball's hall of fame yesterday when he made an unassisted triple play against Jellico.

With a man on first and second, a drive that had the earmarks of a sure hit was laced over second. Smiley came in fast, caught the drive, stepped on the just-vacated second bag and touched out the runner from first.

This is believed here to be the first unassisted triple play which an outfielder ever made.

CHARLES PADDOCK MAY RUN IN EAST

Los Angeles, Calif., April 26.—Charles Paddock, world's premier sprinter, will tack his spiked shoes to the wall soon after July 1 next and will forsake the cinder path for journalism, he announced here today.

From the shoes will hang five blue ribbons, symbolic of the five occasions when Paddock, representing the University of Southern California, where he is a student, bested five world's sprint records in less than a month's time.

Paddock will be graduated this summer. He said he expected to put his "racing days away with his school days" and "settle down" as soon as possible to "real work."

Paddock announced that his last race would be in the national championship meet at Paddock Field, Pasadena, which was named for him after his Olympic triumphs. This meet opens July 1. He plans to enter the 100-yard and the 220-yard dashes.
