Nancy Wynne Talks of a Newport Debut This Summer. She Hears of Many Who Will Go to Europe for the Season

IT IS interesting to us here to hear that Barbara Whitney is to be introduced this summer at Newport. Because since one of the Towers married Flora Whitney, Philadelphia and Newport seem really related when it comes to that family. You remember just about this time last year Rodrick Tower and Flora were married and, of course, Philadelphia was over there in force, because the Towers have many friends in this city where they lived for a number of years.

They had the Newbold house on Locust street. That is the house which Mr. and Mrs. Towers bought from him and lived there for several years, both their daughters being introduced at Newport. After Gertrude's tragic death they did not go back there to live. I understand the Towers, that is the Rodrick Towers, will spend some time in Newport this year from present indications, the Hamptons, of Long Island, will take a back seat again and Newbold is beautiful, but somehow Longport does mean more in the social world, and while Tuxedo Park and Lenox are very, very spiffy, they are not on a smaller scale.

NEWPORT makes me think of the Wideners, and by the way, I hear that Carter and Fifi have been over in New York with the Joe Widener stay for several days at the Ritz-Carlton. They are a delightful smaller house built on the Widener place, you know, out in Elkins Park and have been living there for several months. Fifi scarcely looks a day older than when she was married. She is, as a matter of fact, not twenty years old yet—in fact, I am not quite sure she is nineteen. She was not eighteen when they were married, you remember.

I HAPPENED in at the Bellevue-Stratford yesterday for luncheon and came upon a delightful party which Mrs. George Fales Baker was entertaining. The guests were the various women who are getting up the June fête which is to be held out in Abington, the first Tuesday in June, for the hospital out there, which the late Mr. Elkins built in memory of his first wife. Mrs. Baker has interested herself in that fête for a number of years and always has a table of ravishingly lovely things. She and Dr. Baker are going shortly to their beautiful place out in Rosemont before going farther North for the war season.

DID you ever know anything like the number of people going abroad this summer? There is Miss Anne Lewis, who lives at Twenty-second and Sanson, and her friend, Miss Florence Gilman, who expect to sail in June. I have been wondering if Miss Gilman will take her pet dog along. I never see them apart, and he is certainly a darling dog. I don't suppose there would be any more in a certain coach and a cocker spaniel of that size. He is so cute and alert. I watched him the other day. He was very inquisitive and wanted to see a certain baby in a certain coach and gazed at the baby all the while he was being vigorously called to and whistled for. After he had had his look he came tearing around the corner in answer to the call with the most innocent expression upon his countenance, as much as to say, "Why, where have you been? I've been hunting all around the place for you."

MOTHER had a little candy, and said she, "With careful division, the four of us can each have two pieces." (Mother being a bit of a child herself.) Well, she and the two older children each had their two pieces, but Marian only took one, and when the second piece was passed to her remarked, "I'll take it later, I have not quite finished this."

Mr. Clayton McMichael will entertain at a small theatre party at the Mask and Wig Club, followed by supper at the Mask and Wig Club, in honor of his sister, Mrs. Stewart B. Clark, on Friday evening. Among the guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sewell, Mrs. M. and Mrs. Emily G. Geyelin, Miss Gertrude Grove, Miss Mary Norris, Miss Elizabeth Beckard, Miss Elizabeth Trotter, Miss Virginia Hoekstra, Mr. George Grove, Mr. Harry R. Neilson, Mr. Frederick R. Drayton, Mr. George D. Fowle, Dr. William D. Stroud, Mrs. Anne de Vries, Mr. Pemberton Shober, Mr. Rodney N. Landreth and Mr. Herbert Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis R. Strachbridge, of Woodside, Germantown, entertained at luncheon yesterday when there were twelve guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Strachbridge will entertain at dinner on Saturday evening next at 1007 Locust street, and on Saturday evening, May 8 and 9.

Miss Hazel A. Coffin, 507 Hansberry street, Germantown, will entertain at dinner at the Polyan Club tomorrow evening in honor of Miss Emily L. S. Shipley, of Pennington, whose marriage to Mr. Ralph Raymond Hierick will take place on Saturday. The guests will include Mrs. Thomas H. Miles, Mrs. Shipley Thomas, Miss Elizabeth Van Dusen, Mrs. Russell R. Robinson, Mrs. John D. McIlhenny, Jr., Miss Margaretta Shipley, Miss Anne Shipley, Mrs. Calvin M. Smyth, Jr., Mr. Ralph R. Herriek, Mr. Charles F. Young, Dr. Calvin M. Smyth, Mrs. Shipley Thomas, Mr. Raymond Thomas, Mr. Russell R. Robinson, Mr. Munro Robinson, Mr. Edward King, Mr. James Reeve, Mr. Charles Steele and Mr. Roy R. Coffin.

One of the most interesting of the coming season's debutantes will be Miss Jean Douglas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stacy B. Lloyd, of 1823 Spruce street and Wyse House, Ardmore, who will be introduced to society by her parents at a tea on Saturday, October 1, at Tyny-Coed, the home of Mrs. Lloyd's parents, Mrs. Edith Ann B. Morris, at Ardmore. Many other entertainments will be planned in Miss Douglas's home, which she will attend at school in Paris, will arrive in this country early in June. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd will spend the summer at Saranac Lake, N. Y., where they have rented a lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Goodman, Jr., of 1840 Germantown Avenue, Chestnut Hill, have taken a lodge at Saranac Lake for the summer, which they will occupy early in July.

Rankin, who is studying at the Ritz-Carlton school in Paris. Mr. and Mrs. Rankin will be accompanied by their son, John Rankin, who is studying at the Ritz-Carlton school in Paris. Miss Rankin will be introduced to society at a tea which her parents will give at their home on Saturday, October 1, at Tyny-Coed, the home of Mrs. Lloyd's parents, Mrs. Edith Ann B. Morris, at Ardmore.

Obersteuffer and Miss Bertha Dale Benson will give a musical tea on the benefit of the social service building fund of the Presbyterian Hospital at the Belgrave tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Among those who will be present are Mrs. Obersteuffer, Johnstone Baseler, Miss Elizabeth Latimer, Miss Elizabeth Torr, Miss Alice MacColl and Miss Louise Hamilton.

Colonel and Mrs. John S. Muckle will give a farewell dinner next Sunday evening at their home, 2025 Walnut street, to the French track team now in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James Francis Sullivan and their daughters, Miss Frances L. Sullivan and Miss Elaine S. Sullivan, who spent the winter at the Ritz-Carlton, have returned to their country place, The Woods, Radnor. Miss Elaine S. Sullivan will leave for Europe in October, and will attend at the Ritz-Carlton, where she will be introduced to society at a tea which her parents will give at their home on Saturday, October 1, at Tyny-Coed, the home of Mrs. Lloyd's parents, Mrs. Edith Ann B. Morris, at Ardmore.

Mrs. Norman Grey, of 1830 Pine street, will entertain at an auction holding party at her home on Thursday afternoon, May 5.

Dunlap, of 102 South Twenty-first street, and Lieutenant Colonel Southworth Behn, of Havana, Cuba, will be married on Tuesday, May 31, in St. James Episcopal Church, Twenty-second and Walnut streets, will on their return from a wedding journey spend the summer at their estate at Havana, Cuba. only the immediate families attended the reception, which followed the wedding at Birdwood, the bride's home in Torresdale. Miss Bullitt is a granddaughter of the late John C. A wedding of social importance took place this morning when Miss Jean Christian Bullitt, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Logan M. Her veil was worn over the face, and was arranged on the hair with a strand of pearls across the forehead and two small sprays of orange blossoms at the back of the head. She carried a bouquet of calla lilies.

Mrs. Logan M. Bullitt, Jr., a sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Her frock was of soft gray lace and chiffon and the ash of the gown was faced with pale pink. Her hat was a black lace model and she carried a bouquet of pink, lavender, blue and yellow spring flowers.
