

THEY SAW THE SPEAKER OUSTED. Many Philadelphians were on hand at Harrisburg during the upset of the Grundy forces yesterday. In the group are, left to right, Edward R. Cox, Max Meyers, Richard Weglein, John R. K. Scott, Simon Walter and Harry Wittig.

A HAPPY LEADER. Representative James A. Walker, of Philadelphia, one of the Sproul leaders, who was busy yesterday.

AT HAVRE DE GRACE RACES. Miss Myrtle Freden and Mrs. J. Baron, New York folks, during anxious moments, as the horses make ready to start. Mrs. M. C. Flood, of Wilmington, at the right, has her glasses focused upon the field in the second race.

RETURNING TO EXILE. Ex-Emperor Karl of Austria-Hungary bidding good-by to friends at Steinmanger following the failure of his attempt to regain his throne.

IN THE WOMEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP. On a Merion yesterday, Miss F. McNeely (left), of the Merion team, opposed Mrs. R. Slotted, of Philmont. They were snappy with their caddies.

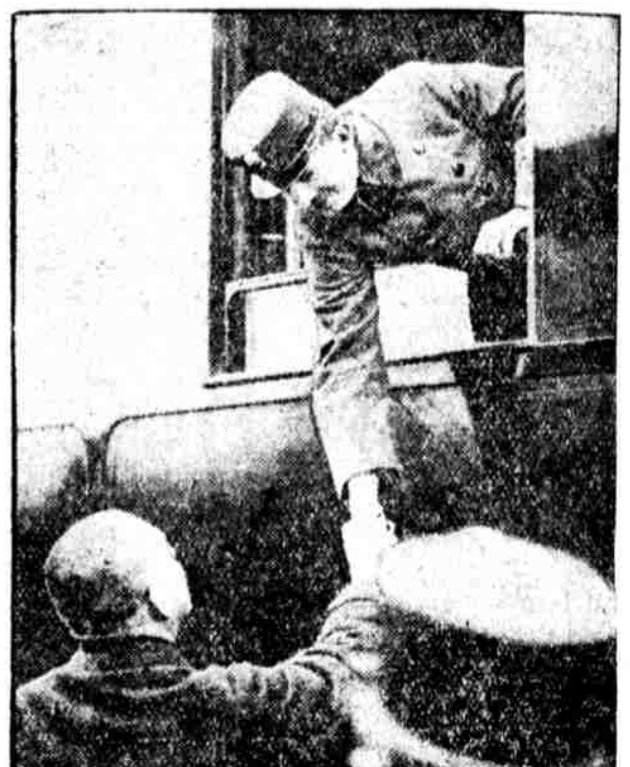

GOING GOOD WORK FOR MERION. Miss Edwin H. Fidler ready for a drive in the contest against Philmont.

ON THE BRIDGE. Mrs. A. K. Liveright is a member of the Philmont team in the Philadelphia golf championship.

SOLO DANCER. Miss Josephine Willis, one of Penn's "co-eds," who will take part in the May revel to be held on May 5, 6 and 7. She was at yesterday's rehearsal.

RETURNING TO EXILE. Ex-Emperor Karl of Austria-Hungary bidding good-by to friends at Steinmanger following the failure of his attempt to regain his throne.

COZY IN WAGON APPOINTMENT. Joseph McDemott, his wife and children were in the wagon at the corner of 31st and Ralston streets. Mrs. M. Demott and one of several children are shown.

FLOATING WATER BICYCLES. A new sensation has been introduced at Coney Island. The girls are riding the machines, which are held under the water by the tanks in front and back. They are propelled like the ordinary bicycle. Hundreds were attracted by the new device on Sunday.

A FAST FIFTY-YARD RUN. Girls of the Waterview Recreation Center, Germantown, snapped as they reached for the finishing tape.

A FAST FIFTY-YARD RUN. Girls of the Waterview Recreation Center, Germantown, snapped as they reached for the finishing tape.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

JOHN HARTMAN, 2827 Walton avenue, operating an electric cutting machine as it cuts many thicknesses of cloth in the shop of L. H. Manko & Co., 309-11-13 Arch street.

OUT AGAIN AND SMILING. Enrico Caruso and Mrs. Caruso, photographed as they return to their hotel in New York after a motor ride. The recent illness of the noted tenor played havoc with his weight.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

AT DELAWARE PIERS FOR FIFTEEN YEARS. We introduce to you Receiver Patrolman Max Seiler, who has been a patrolman for twenty-five years. He is fifty-seven years old and lives at 1019 West Orleans street.

TEN GERMANTOWN ATHLETES

TEN GERMANTOWN ATHLETES. They formed a perfect pyramid and posed well for the photographer at the Waterview Recreation Center in Germantown.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

MISS ELIZABETH FRANZ, 406 North Peter street Philadelphia.