MAGISTRATES AT PLAY

WHOMEVER the city magistrates were when the Rev. Dr. H. C. Brown, Henry saw in a jazz den "two young girls sitting on their laps and being fed to beer," they probably are not yet out of the city. They are being investigated by the magistrates, who are being investigated by the magistrates, who are being investigated by the magistrates.

PICKED MEN

MEN were resigning from the police force three years ago faster than their places could be filled. There were two reasons for this condition. One was that employers were offering high wages to all sorts of men and the other was that the pay in the police department was lower than it should have been.

THE DANGER POINT

BY THE simple act of transmitting the German note to the government, the President and Mr. Hughes might be regarded as having taken the country into a state of war. The question of reparations is a question that does not admit of compromise.

SPOLSMEN WILL WEEP

WHEN President Harding saw the final report of the commission on the Senate yesterday he found that to him there was a certain amount of satisfaction. The commission had found that the men who had been in the service of the government were not as good as they were supposed to be.

CAPITAL TAKES ITS MEDICINE

AT A time when labor is suffering from a reduction in wages and when the general public is demanding a higher rate of interest than prevailed before the war, the directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have found themselves compelled to reduce the annual dividend from 4 1/2 to 4 per cent.

the product of government control. Wages were increased during the war and a large number of new men were employed and rates were raised to provide money to pay the new bills. But the rates were not raised enough to cover the new expenses.

TO INDICT LEGISLATURE IS TO INDICT VOTERS

The Men in Harrisburg Are No Better and No Worse Than the People Who Elected Them

TO INDICT the Legislature whose activities are drawing to a close is to indict the people of Pennsylvania. The members of that body represent the people. They were nominated at the primaries and elected by popular vote. They represent not only the average intelligence, but the average of public spirit and of loyalty to the best interests of the commonwealth.

BIG BILL GOES AWAY

"RISE, brothers!" Big Bill Haywood used to say in the grand way that he had with him whenever he felt his feet firm upon a soap box. "Down with your boss and with all bosses, and don't let the cops scare you. Stand together! That is the important thing. Stand together for the glory and triumph of the toiler and the emancipation of the downtrodden!"

BUSINESS PRINCIPLES PREVAIL

THE familiar term, "business administration," is in at least one instance a distortion of the imputation of vagueness and vagabondage which the Senate in its prompt action upon the budget bill.

SEEING RED AGAIN

EVEN the poorest peasants in Russia even Lenin himself, if the truth were known, sees Bolshevism as an extremely disagreeable sort of joke. But the Red revolutionaries in this country are not so easily satisfied.

SENTENCING THE MOSQUITO

AS PRE-EMINENTLY playmate states, New Jersey and California have many points in common. Publicity methods in the two commonwealths, however, differ in the most striking manner.

SEA ROMANCE ON TAP

OCEAN LINER inquiries regarding the possibilities of a new service between New York and London are being made by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The company is interested in the possibilities of a new service between New York and London.

"OLDEST" SOLDIER IN HOUSE

Major Gearhart a Descendant of Man Who Crossed the Delaware With Washington—Clergymen as Legislators—A Mean Bootlegger's Trick

BY GEORGE NOX McCAIN

MAJOR J. BEAVER GEARHART is the oldest soldier in the House of Representatives at Harrisburg. And he isn't an old man by any means at that. He is only a relative term. He is just a trifle over fifty years.

CHARLES W. BAINBRIDGE

ON FUNCTION OF THE BOYS' CLUB

"KEEP the boy off the street and keep him busy if you would have him develop into useful and honorable manhood and citizenship," says Charles W. Bainbridge, superintendent of the boys' club movement in the belief of Mr. Bainbridge, who holds that the success of the organization of which he is the head depends upon the interest and sympathy of the community.

Humanisms

By WILLIAM AHERTON DU PUY

IDEAS that may sweep the world may be incubating in the new countries of Europe, says Dr. Bendrich Stepanek, the Czech minister to the United States. Compulsory voting, for instance, is written into the constitution of Czechoslovakia. That new nation has already had an election in which every man and every woman was required to vote or go to jail. It worked. The result was that the will of the whole people was recorded. Here, it is held, is the first instance of a government which is a reality by the whole people.

"DEBTS"

THEY who were insolent do so remain. And they who had no shame are without shame. As in their day of inhumanity the same, they are still insolent. Prominence in a world war had been fought in vain. For righteousness and Freedom's sacred name. Lo, Pentecost a saving gracious name. They put away, with cynical disdain. And still they trust all issues to confusion. They are still insolent. They are still insolent. They are still insolent.
