

Yanks Drop Fifth Straight and Senators Take First Place, Aided by Lewis and Mogridge

WASHINGTON WALLOPS YANKS FOUR STRAIGHT AND LEADS THE LEAGUE

Griffen Put Over First Big Surprise of Season in Defeating Fence-Busters From Gotham—Brooklyn Startles National League With Victories Over Giants

By ROBERT W. MAXWELL.
Sports Editor Evening Public Ledger

IT'S never too early for surprises in our great and only national pastime. Anything is likely to happen, and for a moment, to say nothing of positive proof of this statement, get an example of the son and lost column of the American League today.

The strange starting, but true, the Washington club actually is leading that tempestuous organization. Then after that take a peep at the National League standings, and Brooklyn will be found resting comfortably in second place, while the Giants are only one notch above Boston. All of which proves that that's that.

The biggest surprise of the embryonic season is the work of the Washington club. For some reason or other the Senators have captured the animals of the New York Yankees and slipped over four straight victories. Four in a row against the Yanks is something unheard of, especially when the Huston Ruppert extravaganza is performing with an against Washington. Shuggers like Ruth, Mouse, Hobbie, Schang and Peckinpaugh have been handled like the American League.

New York was looked upon as the real, regular ball club in the American League. These was all kinds of offensive strength, the defense was not to be sneezed at and it was hard to figure how they could lose a game. They mopped in the Athletics and Boston with the ease and grace of experts and willard mavericks. They then collared with Washington the same as William Colquhoun with Dempsey.

Washington has a good ball club—much better than was expected. Down in Texas this spring Clark Griffith said he would win the pennant if his pitchers come through and it looks as if he made a good guess. If a gang of barflies can turn back the somnolent, heavy hitting Yankees, they are good enough to maul the hurries to put the Indian sign on any ball club in the league.

A weakness of the New York club has been discovered. Keep the score box and there is more than one slip chance to win. Stop the long distance clotting and the rest is easy. Griff evidently was all set for this series and put over the first big surprise of the year.

Now the other clubs will take heart. They have seen how the touted pennant winners have been beaten four times by Washington and will try to hand out more of the same.

Brooklyn's pitching staff has rounded into shape and what the Dodgers did to the Giants was a shame.

YESTERDAY

YESTERDAY they looked like a shrewd guess, turning out to be the truth. Brooklyn put off to a poor start, but catch the champions from now on.

Dodgers Pitchers Now Are in Great Shape

BROOKLYN has a good hard luck on the training trip. New Orleans proved to be more or less a failure because of the mucky, mucky weather and the persistent rain storms. The club did not get in shape and when the club is mentioned in connection with the pitching staff. Boston took a fall out of them in the first series and the Phils will even. Then came the Giants, and see what happened.

The Dodgers have the greatest pitching staff in major league. Pfeffer, Grimes, Marmora, Cadore, Mohr and Miller, right handers, and Sherrod, Smith, Kautzer and Mitchell, left handers, are all top notches. One is as good as the other, and Robinson can put in a relief barrier at any time without losing any strength in the box.

Brooklyn will be dangerous for a few months because of the premier pitching. At this time of the year the moundmen are most effective if they have any stuff at all, and from now on don't be at all surprised if the men toiling for Mr. Ebbets step into the front rank. They might not hold it long but they will be up there for the time being.

There is another club in the National League worthy of mention. The St. Louis Cardinals are putting on an excellent losing streak, having won only one of the nine games played. This makes it possible for the Phils to be in seventh place today.

The Cards have a good ball club. The infield and outfield are high class, nobody can cast aspersions at the pitchers, and the pitchers are all well. This is because of a lot of cold weather in the West which all but ruined a class of salary wags. Therefore Branch Rickey has been suffering untold tortures, while his club is doing its best to emulate our own Athletics.

Cincinnati also has sprung a big surprise. Without Gron and Rosen, Moran's men have won six of the fourteen games played and have been stacked against some tough opponents. Yesterday the Cubs were beaten 2 to 1, Bill Marantz forming the team. Ross has signed the papers, it is reported, and will be in the box from now on. Eddie will strengthen the club and it will not be long before Gron and Rosen are back in with a signed contract. A swell little outfit game has been boxed to smithereens in a few short weeks. When the players learned their bluff had been called they hastened to get back to work.

PITTSBURGH had its first win in a good game, the official report says. The Pirates are going strong and should continue. The team is a much more evenly balanced and has a lot of reserve strength.

And Now Phils Are in Seventh Place

BOSTON failed to gain on the Phils yesterday, grabbing the contest by the score of 2 to 2. The Braves took advantage of Cassa's let-up in the seventh, and showed how well they act over the playground. Four runs were scored in that frame, which proved to be more than enough to win.

Although Mr. Donovan's athletes scored first, they didn't have a chance. The lead was washed out in a most thorough manner and a single bombardment spoiled the end.

The Phils are in the present financial situation. They say that two or three times a week they are going to the bank, and that the club is in a tight place. They are going to get out from under the load, but will have to stop to keep up with the profession. The sports games found the pitchers in none too good shape and games were won. Now they are rounding into form and will get better as the weeks roll on. While we are not pessimistic, we must admit there are some gloomy possibilities. The soft spots are gone and forgotten.

Yesterday a Boston game brought along something new, something new, something new. It was a rare case of a pitcher getting excellent during the sixth stanza, when with seven on base, which is being for loaded sacks—and one out, he fanned the next two batters.

But this coming last, in the seventh one double, three singles, a sacrifice fly and an error showed over four runs.

Boston looked better in the last game and perhaps Fred Mitchell will be able to do something with the club. Defenses is all right, and has some good hitters in Southworth, Cruise, Powell, Boeckel, Holke and Barber. If the pitchers come through, as was the case with the Washington club, the Braves will have a formidable aggregation. The trade which brought Barber, Nicholson and Southworth to the club in exchange for Marantz evidently was a good one. I M. S. F. has been good, because the club has been winning.

Ralph Miller is using the new no-hit shortcut for the Phils and the same are beginning to appreciate his work. The youngster is not a speed merchant, but a real sprinter. He's only a volunteer. After the first day he stepped into a great shape and started to hit the ball. He didn't hit any home runs yesterday because he had no chances. However, he connected with two home runs and seven runs, which is enough for one afternoon.

THE Phils and Braves plan to meet this afternoon, weather permitting, and then will play against team here. The A's and the league leading Senators are here tomorrow.

Found—One Dark Horse in Relays

A PHILADELPHIA department is a wonderful institution. It digs up a lot of interesting news items, and puts them in a readable form and hands the masterpiece to the Daily Old Phil. The most recent publicity person is Bill Brandt, one of our well known writers, who claims Mühlenberg as his alma mater. Mr. Brandt, while looking over the papers, read a small item and was intrigued by an idea, leading off the following:

The League Mühlenberg idea, that was developed, was a dark horse for the pennant as the Penn relays in the shape of Corp. Reinartz, the Mühlenberg freshman, who placed in five events. Reinartz and Arlan Kline, the Middle States intercollegiate hurdles champion, contributed the major portion of the score by which Mühlenberg triumphed over rival neighbor.

Both these men are entered in the Franklin Field carnival, and for the first time since the late 1910's it is likely that the Cardinal and Gray team will get into the spotlight at the annual regatta.

Reinartz hauled the seven 100 feet but in his practice work he has done better than that. Reinartz's sprinting is his main pentathlon asset. He has done 10.1-5 in the 100 yards seven times and ought to be a real opponent for Billy Young of Redlands in the 100 meters.

"KLINE's Mühlenberg track captain and is entered in the 100 and 200 yard sprints. A top delegation from the University of Pennsylvania will be down to meet their dark horses on May 1st. (Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co.)

HORSEME FORM NEW RACING BODY

Organization Seeks to Standardize Race Meets in This Section

SCHEDULE SIX FALL EVENTS

More than a score of amateur horsemen, especially interested in point-to-point racing, met last night at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel and formed the Penn Hunt and Racing Association. The enthusiastic owners and breeders were brought together as guests of Ralph Beaver Strassburg, of the Normandy Farms, Gwynedd Valley, at a dinner. Mr. Strassburg proved an ideal host, being so closely identified with flat and steeplechase racing.

All the hunt clubs in Delaware, Chester and Montgomery Counties were represented. J. G. Leiper, Rose Tree Hunt, was chosen temporary chairman, and Charles E. Mather, Brandywine Hunt, representative of the National Hunt and Steeplechase Association, was chosen to select an organization committee of seven members to formulate rules and start the association on a solid footing.

The purpose of the organization is to standardize hunt club meets in this section of the country, to make courses and jumps uniform, to encourage events for two-year-olds and the breeding of the cross-country horse generally.

Encouraging sentiments were expressed by Samuel D. Riddle, owner of Man o' War, Charles E. Mather, W. Pinkney, and J. G. Leiper, and J. G. Leiper, Man o' War, William M. Kerr, E. Chester, the great amateur cross-country rider, Edward E. Marshall, Huntingdon Valley Farm, and W. Brookes, Lem Riddle, Stanley W. Stokes, of polo fame, Stanley Reese, Walter Stokes.

Tentative dates for Hunt Club meets were announced as follows: October 1, Bryn Mawr, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31,
