A Cat and a Kitten

The Better of Woman's ProciDear Madam—I am writing to you about a mother cat one year old and a kitten two months old which I thought you might find a home for, as I am going away for the summer. They are both all black. The kitten is a female one and very cute. The mother cat is a good mouser.

The mother cat is a good mouser.

The persons who get these cats are going to be extra lucky, because they're black, and everybedy knows that to own a black cat is considered fortunate. The address of Mrs. A. F.
