Grundy Is Seen in New Alliance

A prominent politician whom I regard as one of the best-posted men in the state, has outlined to me his analysis of this entire performance and its possible solution.

It is not an officeholder, nor does he belong to the army of job men who are feeding at the trough of patronage. "Penrose played both ends against the middle during the last session," said this gentleman. "It was the direct reverse of his action at the previous session in 1919. If you recall, he went to Harrisburg and took charge himself.

know sick men conjure up queer fancies and acquire queer notions. "I am convinced that the senator may pay no attention to Harrisburg during the last session. He so informed certain callers.

"He stuck to this determination, in spite of the constant dragging he was subjected to by all the factional leaders—with one or two exceptions. One of those was in the case of the Philadelphia situation. He wanted to control that without the aid of the Vares. Yet he was not above accepting the aid of the Vares without acknowledging the fact, or permitting them to assume the leadership.

"You can readily see," continued this observer, "how difficult a piece of political architecture has been undertaken by a man who is just recovering from a severe illness. It is for this reason that Penrose told Cunningham to choose his own course and act according to his judgment.

GRUNDY IS SEEN

The senator is still a convalescent. He is still under his physician's instructions to take care of himself and conserve his strength. He is doing so as he has never done before. He is steadily improving, but he isn't a thoroughly well man yet.

It is for this reason that he has, I fancy, felt offish to Spruill, though really he had little cause for such a sentiment. For months the senator was shut off from all contact with politics and political friends. The organization and everything else had to run without his advice.

He and they pretty nearly succeeded. It was to help Leslie that Crow and the administration turned in for the nonpartisan repealer.

"I have it on the highest authority that the nonpartisan measure was received rather coldly at first, and doubtless would have been permitted to die if it had not been that Grundy and Oliver had Crow and the administration backed into a corner on their other measures. It was then decided to jam the whole program, nonpartisan repealer and all, through to a finish and teach Grundy a lesson.

"Senator Knox long ago gave his friends to understand that he didn't contemplate being a candidate for reelection. When he put Mellon into the Treasury Department he suddenly changed his mind. He declared himself in the race. He has commenced to play politics. He has dictated thus far the two big appointments in Pennsylvania, Walter Lyon for United States district attorney and Cyrus Woods for ambassador to Spain.

"Meantime, Senator Penrose hasn't made a single appointment. I see he is quoted by a Washington newspaper correspondent as saying that it may be two months before he does anything, that he is taking his time to questions of patronage.

"There is that combination forming in the West. If it is dominated by George S. Oliver, and he is the only one in the clique that has political experience and a following, it will be an anti-Spruill-Crow combination. If Grundy joins it it will have an east-coast connection.

"One thing I know positively," said this man with a very marked emphasis, "one order for action at least has been given since the Legislature adjourned by a member of this new combine, and it did not come from George S. Oliver. It is aimed directly at men who have been affiliated with the administration side in this warfare.

NEWTON PRICES ADVANCE MAY 9th

A six day opportunity to buy quality coal and save Money

Newton coal is always the best coal obtainable. This is because of our experts in selection and our facilities and special care in preparing—re-grading, re-cleaning, re-sifting every ton of coal that leaves our yard. And you now have an opportunity to get Newton quality coal at the lowest prices of the year for six more days.

This is why.

The price of coal at the mines has been raised from 10c a ton to 75c a ton, effective May First. This raise is effective on every ton of coal we buy. We shall buy the best quality coal—carefully selected at the mines as heretofore. But due to the variance in the increase we do not know exactly how much this increase will raise our price.

Therefore, for two reasons:

first—Because we want to give our customers the benefit of the present low prices as long as we can and second—Because we do not intend to raise our prices more than is absolutely necessary and we want the accurate facts before advancing our price we have decided to continue our present low prices on all coal sold this week

In our opinion our present prices are the lowest of the year. It appears as if prices are certain to advance steadily and how much no one can foresee. We therefore, strongly urge you to place your order now.

By getting Newton Coal you are assured of the best service and coal. There is a big difference.

And you can use our Newton Heating Experts whenever you need them. Phone now.

is, as I am reliably informed, to be a candidate for the Senate in opposition to Knox, then Knox will have to fight if he persists in his candidacy.

"Under the circumstances it would be the organization and patronage versus the Knox and Mellon millions and the Oliver newspapers and their influence. "The situation is full of all sorts of possibilities."
