MAN SHOT IN HEAD BLAMES EMPLOYE

Haddonfield Decorator Accuses Boarder After First Trying to Shield Him

ALLEGED ASSAILANT HELD

After first contending he had been shot accidentally by his own revolver, John S. Smith, thirty-five years old, a paperhanger and decorator, of Haddon-field, N. J., caused the arrest last night from a smallers, accusing him of the an employe, accusing him of the ooting. Smith then disappeared and was found today in the Cooper Hospital, Camden. Smith told Chief of Police Baxter. of Haddonfield, that he was working yesterday afternoon in a garage on the perty formerly owned by the late William Long, of Haddonfield. John W. Miller, an employe, was with him, be said.

While Smith's back was turned, he told the chief, Miller fired a revolver bullet into the back of his head. The paperhanger said he pleaded for his life for nearly two hours, and Miller finally relented, but made him promise not to disclose how he had been shot.

The bullet had lodged at the base of

The bullet had lodged at the base of his skull, but Smith retained consciousness and was able to walk to his home at King's highway and Chestnut street, Haddonfield, where Miller and his wife are boarders.

sre boarders.
Smith applied for treatment to Dr.
William Anderson. He told the physician he had been removing some articles from a closet and a revolver on a shelf was dislodged and discharged. Dr. Anderson treated the wound, but advised Smith to go to a hospital for an X-ray examination. X-ray examination.

Later in the evening Smith went to Chief Baxter and accused Miller of the shooting. A patrolman locked Miller in the county jail at Camden. When the chief sought Smith for further ques-tioning the injured man at first could not be found.

At the Cooper Hospital physicians said the bullet had lodged in the bone at the base of the skull.

Man and Woman Are Nabbed on Drug Peddling Charge A spectacular chase punctuated with policemen's revolver shots ended in the capture of Louis Grosso, alias "Coker" Red, at 2 o'clock this morning at Thirfeenth and Mt. Vernon streets. With Grosso was arrested Edna May Snyder, at times calling herself Edna Grosser. The two, each twenty-seven years old, have been wanted for more than a year on a charge of dope peddling. They claim to be married and are said to maintain two establishments, one at $17
