Letters to the Editor

Rights of a Wife
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
I would like to know the opinion of your readers as to the rights of a wife...

Letters to the Editor

Letters to the Editor should be as brief and to the point as possible, avoiding anything that would open a denominational or sectarian discussion...

Questions Answered

Longfellow's "Two Angels"
To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—What did Longfellow mean by the opening lines of "The Two Angels"?

Our Quest After the Dollar

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—The quest after the dollar is a very real thing. It is not a quest for the sake of the quest...

The Divorce Problem

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—I want to quarrel a bit with one of your philosophers. Although I agree with him that our divorce problem is very real...

The New Slacker

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—In an up-to-date neighborhood, not far from York street to Allegheny street, and from Washington street to Thirtieth street, or Fifth avenue, there are a couple of thousand young men who served with Uncle Sam's forces somewhere during the war...

Women Fillets

To the Editor of the Evening Public Ledger:
Sir—If public filleting is to be done in a man that a heavy fine is imposed upon him, why should it not be done in women as well?
