Necessary Changes

and Rearrangement of the Bell Telephone Directory

AS one of the preliminary steps in the introduction of Machine

Switching, or so-called "Automatic" telephone service, certain changes have been made in the issue of the Bell Telephone directory now being distributed. All users of the service are therefore urged to familiarize themselves with these changes, consulting the book in every case before calling.

There are 30 Bell Central Offices and nearly a quarter of a million Bell Telephones in Philadelphia.

To operate a system of this size by the Machine Switching method requires the dialing of the first three letters of the Central Office name (FIL bert, WAL nut, etc.) and the four digits of the number which follows.

New Central Office Names

All Die KINSON numbers have been changed to OREGON.

Many FILBERT and WALNUT numbers have been changed to RITTENHOUSE.

have been capitalized and separated slightly from the rest of the name. Spruce now appears as SPR uce, Filbert as FIL bert, etc. This change is only for dialing purposes at dial telephones, and does not affect the pronunciation of the central office names. To avoid all errors central office names should be pronounced in full exactly as at present.

3. The first three letters of each central office name

It is expected that the first Machine Switching central office will be installed within the next year, when subscribers in certain central office areas will be provided with instruments which will be equipped with dials. With the installation of these telephones, subscribers will be able to make local calls by dialing the numbers as they appear in the present directory. Because of the great number of important changes in the new directory, patrons are urged to consult the directory, always, before making a call.
