

REST FOR RED AND BLUE TRACK TEAM

Varsity Performers at Penn Are All on Edge for Future Meets

ROBBIE PRAISES YALE

Captain Lawson Robertson, of the University of Pennsylvania track team, is always pulling the unexpected with his team.

"You know," said Robertson this morning, "that most people do not understand that an athlete running at full steam for weeks and weeks is liable to go stale."

"Joie Ray, the miler, went off a trifle during the indoor season last winter. Others have done the same."

"This meet with Cornell on Saturday afternoon at Ithaca will be a real test for the team."

Yale is strong. The wily Scot of the track game thinks that Yale has one of the strongest all-around teams in the east.

While the varsity is engaging Cornell at Ithaca, the Red and Blue freshmen will be entertaining the men from Lake Cayuga on Franklin field in a dual meet, which is scheduled to start at 2:30.

Varsity Trips Fresh. The varsity baseball team scored a one-run victory over the Freshman team in a nine-inning game on Franklin field yesterday afternoon.

This afternoon the annual spring regatta will be held on the Schuylkill, with eleven crews entered. The finals will be held tomorrow afternoon.

The schedule for this evening is Morris-Wheeler at Atlantic Refining, Thirtieth and Spruce streets, Charles D. Wood at Horace T. Potts, Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets, Charles D. Wood at Horace T. Potts, Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets.

Shipbuilders Want Game. The New York Shipbuilding Co. is without a game for this Saturday, May 14.

VESPER EIGHT DISBANDS

Plans for American Henley. There will be no test of speed between college and club eight in the American Henley regatta, to be rowed on the Schuylkill river May 21.

It had been planned to match a Vesper crew against the champion navy boat, but the defeat of the Middles by Princeton last Saturday and the announcement that Princeton would not send its victorious eight to the American Henley caused the Vesper committee to withdraw its entry.

Coach Lawson Robertson, of the University of Pennsylvania track team, is always pulling the unexpected with his team.

STEEL LEAGUE CHANGES NAME

Will Be Known in Future as Commercial—Same Teams in Circuit

"PIKE" CIRCUITS ARE READY

At a meeting of the Philadelphia Steel Baseball League, held last evening at 4800 North Tenth street, it was decided to change the name of the league to the Commercial League.

The teams that will be played by the teams that originally composed the former organization and the same schedule will be carried out.

President E. N. Fielding complimented the clubs on the success of the season to date, and stated that the league was in fine condition financially speaking and otherwise.

The teams that comprise the circuit are Charles Bond Co., Bernstein Mfg. Co., R. D. Wood Co., Horace T. Potts Co., Morris-Wheeler Co. and Atlantic Refining.

The schedule for this evening is Morris-Wheeler at Atlantic Refining, Thirtieth and Spruce streets, Charles D. Wood at Horace T. Potts, Thirty-fourth and Spruce streets.

A joint meeting and smoker will be held at Ambler Town Hall, Friday night, at which an enthusiastic send-off will be given to the Montgomery County and Philadelphia Suburban Leagues.

Officials and representatives of both leagues will make addresses and 200 representative baseball men of Montgomery county will attend.

Addresses will be made by Harold C. Pike, president of both organizations; William A. Diehl, vice president of the Montgomery County; Charles A. B. Hettell, secretary of both leagues; William T. Fowler, treasurer of the Suburban League; Harry Davis, of the Athletics; E. Harrison Stover, treasurer of the Montgomery County; Warren M. Louisville, Ky., May 10. — James Rowe, trainer for Harry Payne Whitney, is not convinced Behave Yourself, winner of the Kentucky Derby, is a better colt than Tryster, and has offered to race the defeated colt against Bradley's victory of last Saturday, current weights, over the Derby distance, for $50,000 a side, to be run Saturday.

Colonel Bradley, when called on the phone this morning, indicated he yet had to have a conference with his trainer before announcing a decision.
