

IN THE BOTANICAL GARDENS. Fair co-eds of Penn who assisted in the May revels, which were continued yesterday afternoon. They are (left to right) Marie Curlett, Anna Dolan, Mary Monaghan, Beatrice Griffith and Elsie Stevens. Ledger Photo Service.

"THE TEMPEST." It was given last night at the Botanical Gardens of Penn by members of the Philomathean Society. Miss Widmyer (left) and Miss Schall were in the cast.

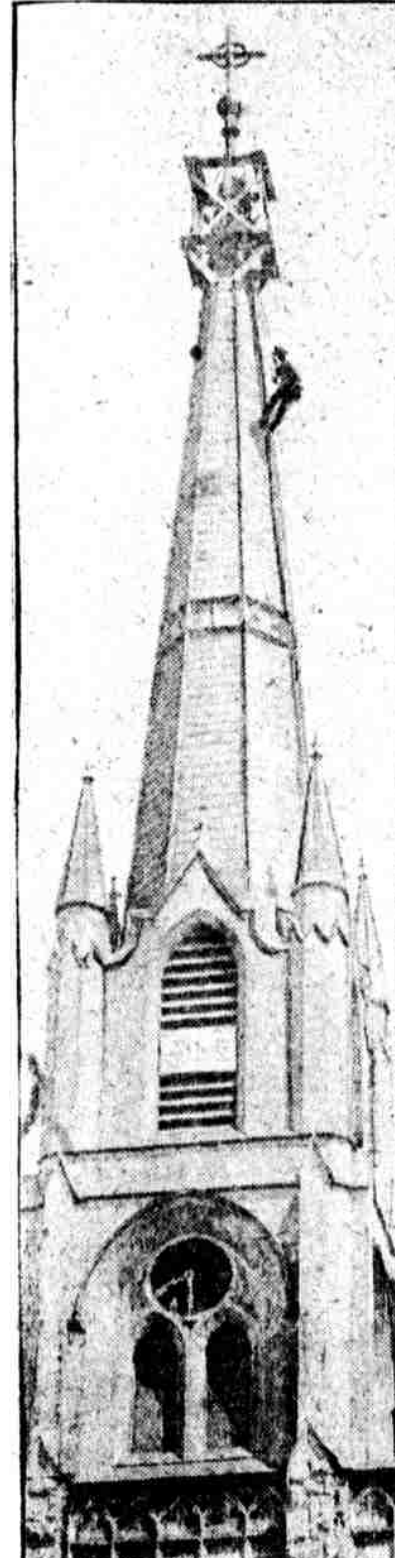

OFF TO THE CIRCUS. A few of the many orphans who crowded into automobiles at the Catholic Children's Bureau, 1708 Vine street, yesterday at noon. They were the guests of Edna A. Gimbel. Ledger Photo Service.

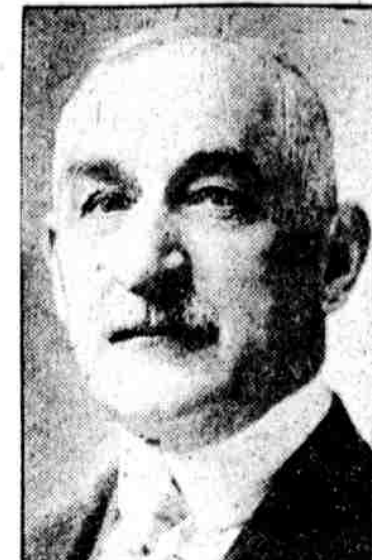

WEIGHING BABY. During the dedication exercises of the Babies' Hospital of Philadelphia, held yesterday, city officials and others were shown how the little patients are treated. Ledger Photo Service.

IN SHAKESPEARE'S POETIC DRAMA, given last night at Botanical Gardens, William Stewart appeared as Ferdinand and Miss Marion Masland as Miranda.

WALTER BOSWELL, the steeplejack, is on the steeple of a church at Ninth street and Lehigh avenue. The cross is to be taken down and regilded. Ledger Photo Service.

FRANK B. CROSWAITE, of Washington, has been appointed as a special assistant to the attorney general. Central News Photo.

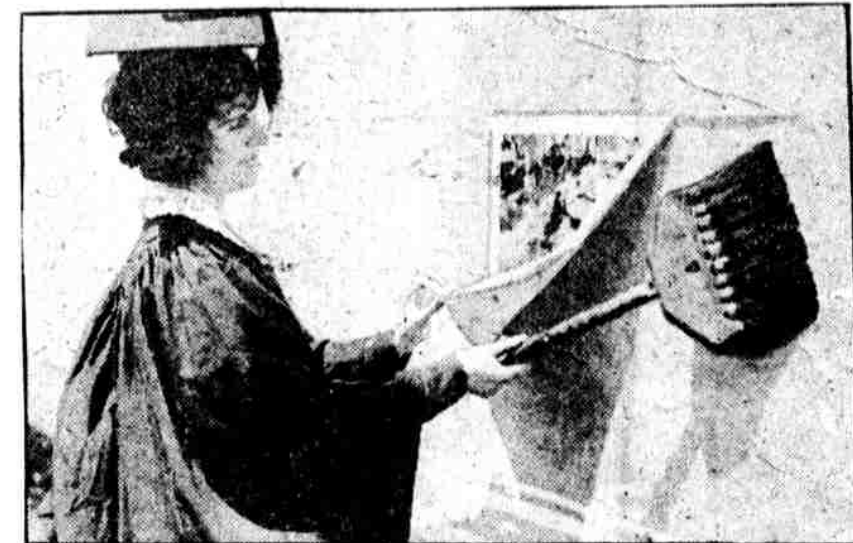

HAMPTON WINNING. The Logan school runner won the final of the hundred-yard dash at the grammar school track meet, held on the Northeast field, yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

CLIFTON LISLE discusses the work of the Boy Scouts in an interview on the Editorial Page. Ledger Photo Service.

ON THE ROOSEVELT BOULEVARD. Under the supervision of an expert, these men, studying to become city firemen, are taught how to operate and care for automobile fire equipment. Ledger Photo Service.

HELPING WELLESLEY. Among Philadelphia graduates of the Massachusetts college but yesterday posting bills was Miss Eugenia Vansant.

A WINNER. The broad-jumping laurels of the grammar school meet went to Ellwood Wink, of the W. S. Pierce School, Twenty-fourth and Christian streets. Ledger Photo Service.

CHAIRS FOR THE CABINET. New ones arriving at the White House for the new cabinet officers. The old ones were purchased as souvenirs by the Wilson cabinet members. Harris & Ewing.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

MISS ELIZABETH McKEE, 1335 North Front street, operating a machine at the factory of E. J. Spangler Co., 1237 North Howard street, that completes the making of envelopes, printing name of firm and address as well as putting glue on the flaps. Ledger Photo Service.

AT THE CURTIS COUNTRY CLUB. The Northwest Boys Club defeated the Lawndale athletes by three points. Score fifty-nine to fifty-six. J. Dechter, of the Curtis team, finishing the hundred-yard dash, Grace McFarland, of the Northwest club, failed to get over in her attempt at the high-jump. Ledger Photo Service.

HE'S AN EXPERT GUNNER. Martin O'Malley directs traffic at Seventh and Chestnut streets. He lives at 2210 North Lambert street, is 39 years old and has been a member of the police force for nine years. Ledger Photo Service.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

HE'S THE PRESIDENT. Milton Hohlfeld is leading the Industrial Baseball League activities. Ledger Photo Service.

MISS ESTELL PATASZ 173 West Lehigh avenue Philadelphia

THE BEAUTY CORNER

