

10 Woman's Life and Love

By WINIFRED HARPER COOLEY

Are Widows More Attractive Than Maids? There were enough widows to supply the demand, it is doubtful if there ever occurred a marriage... The widow, however, is a more desirable hostess for the dinner-party than the girl who has just taken her first steps...

Winifred Harper Cooley

A ONE-MAN WOMAN

By HAZEL DEYO BACHELOR Copyright, 1921, by Public Ledger Co. Harry Neil was sent to prison for embezzling funds, but Harriet, his wife, because she believed in his innocence, determined to prove it to the world. She obtained a position with Barry's father, the other one, and there attracted the attention of Charles Harmon, the son of the head of the firm.

An Impulsive Move THAT'S not an interesting subject. Harriet returned, smiling faintly. "I'm just a very ordinary girl, living a very ordinary kind of life." But you're the kind of girl who ought to be living the most extraordinary kind of life, Harry returned. "You're the kind of girl men want to do things for, you go to a man's head."

SET YOUR COLORS FIRST

It is safer to go to a little trouble before you make up your dress materials than to take the chance of having them run afterward.

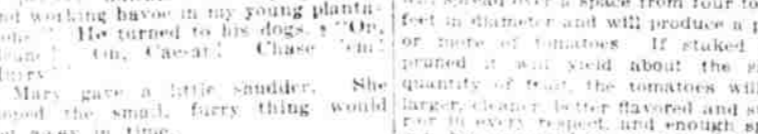

WASH materials are still expensive, and no pains should be spared in making them to insure their being satisfactory. Most materials will be thoroughly shrank if they are well covered with boiling water and allowed to remain until the water is cool, then pulled straight and hung in smoothly indented until just damp enough to iron easily.

Soaked at Collette's Attitude Dear Cynthia—Please publish this in reply to Collette's answer. Collette, you may believe me, very nice friend, that will not help the best friend she has in the world, don't think you realize how very good she is to the world to you.

AT CUPID'S CALL

By MAY CHRISTIE

The Creeping Shadow MARY finished up her letters and prepared to accompany Carrington Bellairs upon his stroll. The grey-south wind was blowing hard, but what a lovely day! Mary drew a long breath of the fresh air. "I love the fresh smell of the earth, the woods, everything following me." Carrington Bellairs puffed at his pipe. He flung a sidelong glance at Mary. "You like the country?"

Two Minutes of Optimism

By HERMAN J. STICH

Reversing the Rule You frequently see the best way to prove a principle or a line of action is to reverse it. As the man discovered who went down his collar looking for a gas leak with a lighted match.

THE WOMAN'S EXCHANGE

Which Should Be Used? The dear Mrs. C. writes: "I have just received two packages from you. One was a box of 'The Question Corner' and the other was a box of 'The Depilatory'."

The Question Corner

Today's Inquiries How can I get rid of my hair? I have used the depilatory but it does not seem to do any good. I am a widow and have a very long hair. I want to get rid of it but I do not know how to do it.
