

RE-DISTRICTING BILLS APPROVED

Congressional Measure Creates 36 Districts in State—Philadelphia Gains One

208 MEMBERS FOR HOUSE

Harrisburg, May 11.—Bills re-apportioning Pennsylvania for election of congressmen, senators and members of the state House of Representatives were approved today by Governor Sproul. The new judicial apportionment will be acted upon within a few days.

The three bills approved supplant those enacted at the special session of 1906. The congressional bill creates thirty-six districts out of the thirty-two lately existing. Westmoreland and Philadelphia and Allegheny each gain one. A number of changes are made elsewhere.

Senatorial bill changes only the two districts in Luzerne county. The senators remain at fifty.

House will have 208 Members

The next House will consist of 208 members and while Philadelphia does not gain, Allegheny gets three and several counties gain one, while about a dozen lose one. The judicial bill now pending is intended to supplant that of 1901. It makes no changes except in Delaware, Dauphin, Beaver, Westmoreland, Northampton and Erie. Bills for the senators have not yet been approved.

Each of the following counties will

LONDON GREETES HIROHITO

Japanese Crown Prince Delighted at His Reception

London, May 11.—(By A. P.)— Crown Prince Hirohito, of Japan, who arrived here Monday for a three weeks' visit to England, was officially welcomed to London today by Lord Mayor Holl and the city authorities.

Prince Hirohito proceeded from Buckingham Palace to Guildhall through cheering crowds. The historic edifice was crowded as Prince Hirohito entered, accompanied by the Duke of Connaught, the Duke of York and the Prince of Wales. The Japanese prince was markedly pleased with his reception.

ing Bull at the Battle of the Little

M'KEEN EXPLAINS PLIGHT OF R. R.'S

Declares Operating Costs Are Out of Line With Existing Economic Conditions

BLAMES WAGE AGREEMENT

By the Associated Press

Cincinnati, May 11.—The financial plight of the railroads and its reaction upon the shipper were described today to the convention of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association by Benjamin M'Keen, of St. Louis, a vice president of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

In 1920, he said, out of every dollar the railroads received, only one cent remained after paying operating expenses and taxes, while in 1917, 23.3 cents remained out of each dollar to pay interest on money invested.

"The total purchases on the Pennsylvania system, exclusive of equipment, in 1918, aggregated $80,000,000, while in 1920 the coal purchases alone totaled $73,000,000," Mr. M'Keen said. "The trouble is that the operating costs of running the railroads are entirely out of line with existing economic conditions."

"There is now before the Legislature of one state unnecessary, unwise and unconventional bills which, if enacted, will cost the railroads of that state, and ultimately the public, $100,000,000.

"Another result of this agreement was that several men were required to perform work which had previously been done by one man. This is one reason for the high railroad rates."

"Speaking for the Pennsylvania Railroad, I wish to assure you that it has no other desire than to pay fair wages, consideration being given to the interests of the shipper, the investor and the employee."

SAYS BRITISH UNIONS COULD LEARN MUCH IN AMERICA

A. F. of L. Official Sees Peril in Mixing Economics and Politics

The British coal miners' strike situation "indicates clearly that organized labor in America has little to learn from the English trade union movement," Matthew Woll, vice president of the American Federation of Labor, declared at the opening of today's session of the federation's executive council.

"The whole situation," added Mr.
Woll, "shows that the British labor movement has much to learn from the American trade union movement."

"British labor will soon realize the dangers of converting economic and industrial questions into political issues."
The English labor leaders have

INDICTMENT UPHELD

Judge Says Women on Grand Jury Did Not Vitate Return

Pottsville, Pa., May 11.—(By A. P.) —Judge Berger in the case of Walter A. Wolfe against the Schuylkill Haven Lodge of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen this morning refused to quash the indictment on the plea that two women had participated in the findings of the grand jury. Judge Berger reiterated his previous ruling that women were ineligible to serve on a jury, but said the proper time to attack an indictment was prior to its being submitted. Judge Berger drew attention to the fact that sixteen men and two women comprised the jury and that twelve votes were necessary to find a guilty verdict.

"The presumption is," the court declared, "that twelve men perfectly eligible to act on the bill had voted in favor of it and we will refuse to quash the indictment."
