Splendidly Ready for the People Who Want New and Cooler Clothes

To Put a Lighted Match to a Haystack and not expect it to burn is the extreme of folly.

Inflammatory words printed in the newspapers, said to be spoken in secret meetings of labor organizations, at this particular time are making it harder for employers to maintain full forces and full present wages, while the buying public is in a waiting mood for lowering of prices.

The interests of work-givers and work-doers are indissolubly bound together.

"REDLEAF" STRAW HATS FOR GIRLS—A SPECIAL GROUP AT $3.75

Of fine, English straws in navy blue, black or the natural color, these good-looking hats are in the simple tailored style which so many well-dressed girls wear.

They are finished with gros-grain ribbon bands and streamers, are in mushroom shape and of medium size, and are quite exceptional for the price.

They will fit girls up to eight years of age.

THESE PRETTY IMITATION JADE BRACELETS ON A PRETTY ARM

will be prettier still! They will look well with light frocks and short sleeves, and are most attractive.

The bracelets are flexible affairs, in carved link style, finished with carved pendants. Some are entirely of the imitation green jade, and others are set with glistening rhinestones.

They are very new, very effective and the prices go from $5 to $13.

An Early Summer Millinery Fashion—Black and White Hats

This means all-white hats, black hats trimmed with white, and white hats trimmed with black.

It is Dame Fashion's newest whim for early summer, and a charming yet sensible whim it is, for the hats, in addition to their becomingness, are most practical because they will go with so many colors. The hats are wide brimmed and shady; they are flower trimmed, usually, and they are as distinctive as they are charming.

From our own workrooms, of course, and $10 to $22.

$25 Goes a Long Way on Women's Suits and Dresses

Tomorrow it will buy any one of nearly two hundred dresses which a short time ago sold for $10 and $15 more. They include Georgettes, jerseys, taffetas and crepes de chine, in grays, black, taupe, tans, browns and navy, and the styles are very many.

Also it will buy any one of a hundred suits—which were $15 to $25 more before this reduction. They include homespuns, tweeds and chevrons, many of them of imported materials. Many of the suits were made in our own workrooms and are admirable in cut and tailoring; also the range of colors is good—browns, grays, russets, heathers.

All sizes in the lot applies to both groups.

Attractive Slippers and Pumps at Moderate Price

$9.75 is not only a moderate but a very low price for women's slippers and pumps so attractive and well-made as these:

A navy blue satin slipper with Louis heel, pointed toe, light turned sole, and one strap buttoning at side.

The same style slipper, with slightly less pointed toe, and buckled strap, in light-weight tan calfskin, or in brown kidskin.

A pump of light-weight tan calf, with small tongue, Louis heel, and turned sole.

A small-tongued pump on the same model, of gray suede.

Each of these is $9.75 a pair, and we do not know when anything so good in footwear has worn this small price.

(First Floor, Market)

No Woman Who Tries to Improve Her Appearance

ever really fails at it—she may not be a tearing beauty, but she is far pleasanter to look at than if she had never made an effort, and if her efforts run in the direction of corsets so much the better!—a well-designed, beautifully made corset of the Parisienne type has more to do with an attractive figure than anybody would ever imagine.

Among the new Parisiennes we are showing are these—

A very low model of pink satin embroidered with pink flowers and blue bow-knots. Price $28.

A pink silk tricot with pleated net and lace trimming is stitched with blue. Soft and cool for evening and summer, $28.

A pink satin, topless, has pleated net and ribbon trimming, $15.

A pink broche, also topless, has an elastic section in the waist, long skirts and heavy boning, $25.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Jersey Bathing Suits for Women

Bathing suits which will do perfectly to swim in, being very, very simple, even though they are made up with tights. They are of worsted in gay and quiet colors—sometimes there are even as many as three colors in one suit. Prices are $9.50 to $15.

(First Floor, Central)

WOMEN'S REVER HEM HANDKERCHIEFS $4.20 A DOZEN

This is a style much liked by women who want handkerchiefs in quiet, good taste, but not absolutely plain.

These are of sheer and snowy flax, they have narrow hems, with the dainty finish which the Rever hem gives.

$4.20 the dozen.

(West Aisle)

A VELVET RIBBON SPECIAL

Because we have only cherry, cardinal and green left among the colors, we are clearing out a few hundred yards of velvet ribbon at 25c and 35c a yard. The widths are 1½ and 2 inches.

The Suits Best for Men to Buy are the suits best for any store to sell, that is to say, any store to which the future or its own reputation means anything.

We regard it as a supreme advantage to know that our men's suits are right; to know that there are none better for the money and none cheaper that are as good.

The things that make for excellence in men's suits are the same today as they have always been. These are the goods, the style and the workmanship.

Only suits that are unexcelled in all three are good enough for the men who place their confidence in this Store.

They will find us ready with what they want.

Prices $35 to $65.

Youths' suits, $25 to $40.

(Third Floor, Market)

2400 Men's Splendid Neglige Shirts Tomorrow at $1.55

These are some of the nicest percale negligee shirts you ever saw.

And—mark this well—they are fast color.

Not a job lot, but genuine Wanamaker shirts made up to our own extra roomy specifications.

We haven't seen anywhere shirts as good as these at anywhere near the price—we haven't seen shirts of a fabric so firm and closely woven and so well made.

They are in tasteful patterns and at this special low price they should go out very rapidly.

(Main Floor, Market)

More of the Fine Silk Knitted Neckties at $2

These handsome ties are made of all bright silk and are extra desirable because of the firm satin hand that is sewn in the back of each of them to give free movement under the collar.

The man who likes fine neckwear will want to choose one of these ties.

(Main Floor, Market)

There Is No Fixed Style in Men's Straw Hats

A man may with perfect propriety select for himself the hat which in height of crown and width of brim best suits his particular type of face and physique.

That is one reason why most men are glad when straw hat time comes.

And the store that gives proper straw hat service will have a wide and varied assortment of shapes to choose from and will not try to put the same style on every man, big or little, stout or slim, whether it is becoming or not.

Lincoln-Bennett and Redleaf London straw hats in unequalled variety, $3 to $6.

(Main Floor, Market)

Boys' Washable Suits

The best kinds in full choice at moderate prices.

For little chaps of three to nine, Summer's wash suits in Oliver Twist, Middy and shirt styles and in plain colors and striped effects at $3.75 to $6.50.

For boys of eight to eighteen, Norfolk style suits in Palm Beach, gray crash and tan linen at $8.50 to $13.50.
