Wonderfully Fine Sample Dresses

Beautiful materials and lovely colorings distinguish these delightful dresses. Imagine a jade-green crepe de chine frock with a tier-pleated skirt at $29. Then there are charming fringed dresses of Canton crepe, hemstitched crepe de chine and embroidered taffeta. Plenty of pretty things in navy blue, brown, white, silver gray and flesh pink.

At $15 and $16.50—Special Values

Foulard dresses and gay checked taffetas are very Summery and fresh. Then there are fringed tricolette dresses, beaded Georgettes and plaincolor ruffled taffetas. Almost a hundred different styles at these two prices.

White Dresses for Graduation

A most interesting collection of white dresses for young women. They're of crepe de chine and Georgette with deep folds or hemstitched tucks. Sheer organdie with hemstitched points and organdie flowers. Or of white Canton crepe or crepe de chine trimmed with silk fringe. All of them quite youthful and most bewitching. $15, $20, $23.50 to $27.50. Black Japanese Silk Dresses $9.50, $10.75 to $16.50

Amazingly cool in the hottest weather. Many women in mourning like these simple little silk frocks, too.

Among the New Cotton Frocks No end to the variety among the checked and plaid gingham dresses-most of them have airy sashes and some have wide bands of white organdie inset in the overskirts. $4.50 to $16.50.

Voile dresses are in foulard patterns trimmed with taffeta and in lighter, more Summery colorings trimmed with organdie. Almost every color you can imagine. $5.75, $6, $7.50 to $16.50. Organdie dresses, crisp and airy as you please, some with overslips of dotted Swiss, are $8.50,
