

Fake Revenue Stamps and Whisky Labels Also Taken at 719 South 3d St.

TWO MEN AND WOMAN FLEE

Twenty prohibition agents, led by John B. Albany, raided a three-story house at 719 South Third street shortly before 11 o'clock this morning and seized whisky valued at $25,000, to-gether with thousands of counterfeit venue stamps and fake whisky labels Seventy ten-gallon cans of whisky were discovered by accident in a secret cave under the flooring in the basement the house.

of the house. Seizure of the liquor attracted hun-dreds of men and women who so menaced the agents that they were forced to summon a special detail of atrolmen. Two men and a woman, e house when the surprise raid was ade, fied without their coats.

made, fied without their coats. The raiding agents entered a garage next to the house and scaling a fence, entered by a rear door. Twenty barrels of the contraband liquor, said to have been misappropriated by pseudo-pro-hibition agents, were found. Thirteen of the barrels were in the basement. As the agents were leaving. the series board. It saw one stepped on a loose board. It gave way, revealing a secret cave, in which the ten-gallon cans of whisky were dis-In addition to the barrels and cans the agents obtained hundreds of quarts of whisky together with large quantities of empty bottles.

According to Albany the raided house was the headquarters for one of the largest bootlegging cliques in the city.

CHURCHMEN MEET TODAY

Reformed Episcopal Council Here for Four-Day Session

The twenty-third general council of the Reformed Episcopal Church will convene this morning for a four-day session in Christ Memorial Church. Forty-third and Chestnut streets. The opening sermon was preached by Bishop Willard Brewing, of Toronto, Canada, and a vast amount of impor-tant business is on program for the dissussion of delegates. Evening meetings are to be held in St. Paul's, Broad and Venango streets, tonight; Christ Me-morial, Thursday, and Intercession, Twenty-ninth and Fletcher streets, Fri-

The Thursday evening meeting will consist of the graduation exercises of the Theological Seminary from which four young men will be graduated. Bishop Samuel Fallows, the Rev. Edward J. S. Sonne, of Chicago, and the Rev. George H. Wales will make addresses and diplomas will be awarded to Clarence L. Holmes, of Baltimore; Alexander J. Kilpatrick, this city; William C. Lee, Belfast, Ireland, and Walter H. Stark, Toronto, Canada. the stock company at the Orpheum

CALLS LAWYER OVERPAID

Collector of Port Berry Says Attorney Got $1000 for Work

William H. Berry. Collector of the Port, today answered the suit of Dil-worth P. Hibbard, his former attorney, by taking the stand in Judge Finlet-ter's Court and declaring the lawyer had been paid $1000 in full for his services and had been "overpaid."

Hibbard was associated with the late James Scarlet in the famous slander suit brought against Berry by T. Larry Eyre, State Senator and Chester County lepublican leader. Eyre won a verdict the twenty-four-year-old brother Republican leader. Eyre won a verdict for one cent. Berry admitted Hibbard's clnim. He was to receive $50 a day for actual time put in preparation or trial of the case, but denied the lawyer had taken forty days in the matter. Hibbard said

SHE CALLS ACTING "A LARK"

Ledger Photo Service MISS CATHERINE DEARDEN Who has deserted parties and dances to appear before the footlights, and says "there is nothing like it"

"JUST A LARK," IS OAK LANE GIRL'S IDEA OF STAGE DEBUT

Catherine Dearden, Appearing || Has Footlights' Lure in Theatre Here, Calls It Camped in Oak Lane?

"Lots of Fun" There is a question disturbing the Does Not Aim to Be a Star,

to Parties

Miss Catherine Dearden, pretty little nineteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dearden, Jr., of Eleventh street and Sixty-ninth avenue, Oak Lane, has cast aside her party dresses and debutante frivolities for the time being and launched upon a stage career. Little Miss Dearden, who was formerly a student at Miss Marshall's School, in Oak Lane, is playing with Theatre, Germantown. Blonde, blue-eyed and smiling, the of home-maker. piquant young lady would refer to her footlight adventure only as a larg, when she ran away from rehearsal at the theatre on Chelten avenue this morning to "explain herself." "It's lots of fun," she said. "I just love it, but honestly. I never aim to be a great star. I'm not that good, but 1 do like to be doing things. I'm not sat-isfied just to go to parties and dance."

Brother on Stage Then an interesting piece of informa-tion came to light. Roland Dearden,

Ardmore Woman a Candidate Wister forward

HONORED TODAY

的情况的过去式和过去分词,这些是不可以可能能可以可以可以是自己的问题的是是不可能的是你们的,就是你们的问题,我们还可以可以可以可以可以可以可以能能能能能。""你们就是我们不

Will Be Given Certificate of Membership at Franklin Institute Exercises

JUSSERAND TO BE GUEST

General John J. Pershing and the French Ambassador at Washington, M. Jusserand, will be chief figures at a stated meeting of the Franklin Insti-tute this afternoon in the hall of the institute, on Seventh street near Chest-certificate of honorary membership

A certificate of honorary membership will be presented to General Pershing, who will arrive here from Washington shortly before the meeting. The Franklin Medal and honorary membership will be presented to Am-bassador Jusserand on behalf of his Government for Prof. Charles Fabry, of the University of Paris. The Franklin Medal and certificate of honorary membership will also be presented Frank J. Sprague, of New York. He is a world leader in the elec-trical field.

trical field. General Pershing will leave Wash-ington at 10:15 o'clock this morning for this city. Ambassador Jusserand will come here for the exercises from New York.

"Studies in the Field of Light Radia-tion," by Prof. Fabry, will be read by Dr. Joseph S. Ames, of the Johns Hopkins University, and "Electric Trac-tion," a review, will be given by Frank . Sprague.

TODAY'S MARRIAGE LICENSES Richard M. Wald, New York City, and Syl-via Nevell, Continental Hotel, 9th and

Richard M. Waid. New York City. and Sylvia Nevell. Continental Hotel. Bth and Chestnut sts.
Michael Forman. 1017 S. 2d st., and Rebecca Lerner. 2130 S. 4th st.
Paul MacWilliams. 723 N. 16th st., and Betty Hamill. 3153 C st.
Samuel Shimik. Hushneville. N. Y., and Stella Schults. 4427 Griscom st.
Cernelius M. Decker. 2134 E. Orleans st., and Edith G. Monty. 2134 E. Orleans st.
John P. Hogan. 2014 E. Haines at., and Ruth V. Shine. 78 E. Bringhurst st.
William H. Perkins. 4487 N. Berbon st., and Ruth V. Shine. 78 E. Bringhurst st.
George C. Taylor, 1207 E. Washington ave., and Edith M. Lewis 4007 Cedar ave. Arthur M. Berger. Burfalo. N. Y., and Pauline Sokrowitz. New York City.
Wallace M. MacCurdy. 10 S. 32d st., and Charlotte M. Goetta, 202 N. 65th st., and Mabel E. Stoll. 760 N. 22d st., and Mollie Hrickman, 519 S. 4th st., and Mabel E. Stoll. 760 N. 22d st., and Mollie Rickman, 519 S. 4th st., and Mabel E. Stoll. 760 N. 22d st., and Mollie St., and Heisn Pownell. 118 W Georgis st.

The American Sobree G

FRANK J. SPRAGUE

medical attention. Harbridge, it was testified, became intoxicated at 9 o'clock last night and rammed his fist through a glass door at the Twenty-fourth Ward Republican Club, Forty-first street and Lancaster Mr. Sprague, a New York City man and a leader in the electrical field, receives the Franklin Medal and a certificate of honorary memavenue. He went to the Presbyterian Hospital and cuts of his hand wer dressed by Dr. C. A. Veasey. While the surgeon was occupied by another bership at a meeting of Franklin Institute today case, it was testified, Harbridge stole a case of instruments used in emergency MAN BEATEN WITH WRENCH Patrolman Krumbar, of the Thirty ninth street and Lancaster avenue sta Suspects in $155 Robbery Held for Two suspects were arrested last night by Detective Liebrandt in connecti tion, later saw Harbridge with the in-struments. A chase followed, during which the patrolman fired four shots. When Harbridge was overtaken he seized the patrolman's club and struck ALLEGED THIEF him several times, it was testified. The him several times, it was testined. The patroiman then used a blackjack and subdued the prisoner, who had thrown several of the instruments away. Harbridge was again taken to the Presbyterian Hospital and later to the station house. He is a son of Detective Harbridge, of City Hall. who was beaten over the head with a wrench and robbed of $155 in his sees ond-hand store at 4138 Ridge avenue yesterday afternoon. The men arrested are Charles Carr, twenty-four years old, of Thirty-fifth street near Queen lane, and August Gutche, twenty-nine years old, of Thirty-fifth street near Scott's lane. They were taken to the Samaritan Hospital, where McMonagle, im a dazed condition, could not posts Harbridge, of City Hall.

Only One Eligible for Garbage Job George W. Kelly, Jr., 225 South Fiftieth street, is the only eligible for the position of superintendent of the municipal garbage reduction plant. This was made known today by the Civil Service Commission. The job pays $400 a month with the attack on Daniel McMonagle, who was beaten over the head with a

Further Hearing

Popular Store!

Everyone feels at home at Perry's. We grow and grow because of the good will of the people!

No wonder, with such offerings as these!

Palm Beach Suits and Suits of Standard Mohair fabric, duplicates of which will sell everywhere this Summer at $20 to $25-here for

This One Week Only

at $14.50

Blue Serge Suits of fine. soft-handling Serge. Special at $29, $35, $42. Where can you touch them at such prices?

Suits of imported and domestic homespuns-fine herringbone mixtures-beautiful pencil stripes in red, blue, gray, brown, orange, gold, $40, $45, $50.

Combination Sports and Business

explain 'em Miss Mary Duncan Stewart, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Stewart, of Oak lane and Eleventh street, has gone on the stage. Mrs. Pheobe Asbury, wife of Charles T. Asbury, of Oak Lane, has launched forth in a musical comedy career.

And now-Miss Catherine Dearden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dearden, Jr., of Eleventh street and Sixtyninth avenue, has gone on the stage.

and you know I'll have to admit that I'm rather fond of the idea of the career of home-maker. "I love the outdoors, hiking and all that sort of thing. f'm even quite keen about going to live in the country. Do you think that would fit in with a ca-reer on the stage? I don't know; it often makes me wonder." The thoughtful little actress stopped suddenly, hearing something no one else heard.

else heard.

"They're calling me." she exclaimed. "T've got to run back to rehearsal. After all, it is a great lark. There's nothing like it."

Mrs. H. Wilson Moorehouse, 111 road, Ardmore, has been put by the League of Women Voters of Lower Merion Township as a candidate for membership on the town-### residents of Oak Lane. Are the immortal shades of Shakespeare hanging over the burg but Prefers Dramatic Work or what? Consider these facts and libbard said ervices were worth $2000 and sued for $1000 balance

WORKER FALLS OFF ROOF

Man Who Cut Finger Lost Hold on Top of House Could play.' you can just guess I Miss Dearden's stage ambitions self-Top of House

Frank Dager, a workman, fainted on the roof of the three-story dwelling of shall's school with the kindly willows C. C. Herron, in Narberth, this morn- that border Asbury Lake acting as very ing and rolled to the ground. He was stanned and bruised. Dager had previously cut his finger constituting a not too critical audience accidentally on a piece of tin. He grew weak from loss of blood and collapsed. "I have always loved the stage," she explained. "The urge began in school when I was a little girl, but I am not at all sure that I shall adopt it as a permanent preference. Fellow workmen summoned Dr. Edwin C. Town, who attended Dager and took him home. He lives in Narpermanent profession berth. Would Prefer Home-Making

"You see, it is this way: I do not believe that a girl can follow two pro-Woman Dies-Stricken in Auto Mollie Freedman, fifty-six years old, 933 Bainbridge street, died in the Pennsylvanin Hospital last night from heart disease. She was stricken while sutomobile riding with her family. Her father, M. J. Freedman, proprietor of a clothing store downtown drown here a between careers a clothing store downtown, drove her home after she complained of being faint. On her arrival she grew rapidly worse and she was hurried to the hos-pital, where she died shortly after being admitted.

It takes actual physical strength to keep a firm grip on yourself, your associates and your affairs. The way suggestions are followed has a deal to do with the lung power behind them. Collins' men are always full of reserve energy. You'll understand why when you-come in for a trial treatment.

COLLINS INSTITUTE OF PHYSICAL CULTURE OLLINS BLDG., WALNUT ST. AT 15TH

Message to Congress April 12, 1921

"The motor car has become an indispensable instrument in our political, social and industrial life."

PHILADELPHIANS prominent in all walks of life

re owners of the famous

W. A. KUSER, President LEXINGTON MOTOR COMPANY OF PENNA

POLISHED GIRDLE DIAMONDS For Graduations Engagements Anniversaries

Mounted into any desired style

Spring Suits and Top Coats of superior quality and workmanship are $30 and upward. Very special values at $45 and

BUY Clothes Wisely ¶ Buying Clothes is a matter of deliberate judgment. But buy Good Clothes. No matter what price you pay, you should consider that price alone doesn't prove economy. The longer the Clothes serve, the more economical they are. And Wear isn't a matter of chancethere's a definite way of putting it into Clothes-all-wool fabrics and skillful tailoring produce it. Our Clothing is reliable, correct and in approved taste.

JACOB REED'S SONS 1424-1426 Chestnut Street

All the standard makes of Rugs such as Alex. Smith and Sons-Stephen Sanford & Sons-John Bromley & Sons-Bigelow-Hartford Co.-Roxborough Carpet Co., etc.-and none of them have any direct selling agents in Philadelphia and none of them sell direct from the factory-no factory that manufactures Wilton, Axminster, Velvet or Brussels Rugs retail them, not one.

Constantinutes and the second s	Suits—Coat, Vest, Knickers, Long Trousers—either or both—$45 for three-piece Suit; $9 for extra
AN CONTRACTOR OF STREET, STREE	knickers. With a host of willing and accom- modating salesmen, and a scale of prices consistently low, value considered, at every price! PERRY & CO. Sixteenth and Chestnut Sts.

Clearance Sale of GARDEN ORNAMENTS at Greatly Reduced Prices

- 40-inch carved marble bench, with carved bracket feet. Reduced from $55.00 to $38.00.
- 50-inch carved marble bench, with carved bracket feet. Reduced from $90.00 to $60.00.
- 67-inch carved marble bench, with carved bracket feet. Reduced from $150.00 to $100.00.
- Carved marble fountain, 54 inches high, with carved marble bowl 29 inches in diameter. Reduced from $150.00 to $100.00.
- 48-inch marble seat, with finely carved back, bracket feet and arms. Reduced from $375.00 to $250.00.
- 33-inch circular marble table, with white fluted terminal legs, white bowl and veined top. Reduced from $250.00 to $150.00.

AND MANY OTHERS

THE ROSENBACH GALLERIES 1320 WALNUT STREET Philadelphia