The Store That Gets the New Goods and the New Low Prices First

Criticism Never Leads But Suggests Things It has a tongue, but no hands or legs to do things or get anywhere.

The men and women who act take the risks, costs, spend money and time in experiments, and finally settle down to do the best they know, leaving others to do the talking and improve on what others have begun, if they know how or want to do so.

In this free country the doors are all open to initiators who have the courage to work and strive to win.

Cool Wash Silk Blouses in Summery White

Most are all white, but a few have a gay touch of color. A soft, lovely white crepe de chine blouse, trimmed with filet lace on the collar and vest, is $10.85. Another crepe de chine blouse with a Peter Pan collar frilling and tiny tucks is $10.50.

And a number of effective new models with Peter Pan collars, some piped with color, others with tuxedo collars, are of crepe de chine and are $10.75 to $13.75. To wear with sweaters-or with suits if you like-is a becoming little blouse of tub silk with Peter Pan collar. It is $5.85. (Third Floor, Chestnut)

Long Silk Gloves at $1.65 a Pair

Of lustrous, firm silk in Milanese weave, the gloves are in twelve and fourteen bùtton twelve and lengths and in black, white, pongee, tan and brown. (West Aisle)

Women's Crepe de Chine Dresses for Street and Afternoon

A group of very attractive dresses of fine, heavy quality crepe de chine have come into the Gown Salons to sell at the special price of $47.50.

There are six models, several of them quite distinctive, all of them looking much more than their price.

One of the most effective is a gown of soft Venetian blue, with eyeletted bodice, a little chemisette of tucked cream Georgette and a long, draped tunic cut in Van Dyke points. It suggests a picture frock.

Quite different is a straight chemise frock of soft gray studded with nail-head beadng in iridescent blue effect. And different still a button-back effect in beige, handembroidered in dark brown.

The colors include navy and this soft old Venetian blue, beige, gray and black. Sizes are 36 to 42.

For women who need such dresses they represent opportunity. (First Floor, Central)

Frocks for All Miss Philadelphia's Daytime Needs

are hanging in those cool, dust-proof cases in the Young Women's Salons-some of the prettiest frocks imaginable, too!

There are not many frocks of a kind-that is what makes the collection so fascinating. There are dresses precisely suited to the needs of the tall, willowy girl, straightline frocks for her shorter, plumper sister, who pines for a sylph-like silhouette; fluffy frocks and severe frocks, simple frocks and dresses of elegance. It is truly a remarkable of white sprinkled over them Checkerboard or "tile" voiles are in small or large patterns of white-and-color check. Both come in good colors, light and dark. Both are 34 inches wide. And each is 75c a yard. (First Floor, Chestnut)

Silber Plated Tea Services of Distinguished Merit

The patterns are so beautiful that many brides are choosing them for their new homes and the different pieces of the service may be bought separately if desired. Among others, there are the

St. Germain and the Pierpont services made by Gorham Company. These are among the finest silver-plated services we have ever had. The Heraldic and Hinsdale from 1847, Rogers Brothers; the Sheraton from R. Wallace and a number of delightful Colonial patterns from Reed & Barton are all of them here and they offer a great variety of selection.
