

AN ACTIVE HALF DOZEN. English shop girls are being trained in athletics. The photograph was taken at Sunbury, England, in a field adjoining the polo grounds, where the American poloists are practicing. Kadoi & Herbert.

HELEN ANN MATTHEWSON

HENRY SANVILLE AS JACK FROST AND DONALD SANVILLE AS VIOLET

ELEANOR BEATRICE STONE showed the sole of her right shoe to the photographer.

AT THE MAY DAY FETE AND BABY SHOW held at "The Oaks," Twelfth street and Valley road, yesterday. The Preston memorial fund of the Review Club, of Oak Lane, benefited. It was under the direction of Mrs. E. Clarence Miller. Ledger Photo Service.

PLAYING WITH THE FAVORITE TEAM. In the men's golf championship of the Suburban League, which started yesterday on the Aronimink links, the home team was considered the favorite. The players are H. W. Merriman, Harry W. Summers and "Billy" Gray, of Aronimink. Ledger Photo Service.

MAY DAY DOINGS. The annual fete of the Friends' Select School was held yesterday afternoon. Father Time is crowning the Queen of the May, who is Gertrude Anderson. The children at the right are Margaret Castor (left) and Jean Eaton. Ledger Photo Service.

SNAPPED AT ST. DAVIDS GOLF CLUB. Among the many women who played in the invitation golf tournament for women yesterday (left to right): Mrs. E. V. Murphy, Mrs. George Wharton Pepper and Mrs. Richard Norton. Ledger Photo Service.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD RIDER. Harriet Mitchell is making the jump with Home Again at the National Capital Horse Show. World Photo.

LOADING THE TRUCK. One of the barrels taken from the cellar by the prohibition agents in a raid at 719 South Third street yesterday afternoon. Ledger Photo Service.

EDWARD WHITE, head of the statistical division of the Income Tax Department in Washington. Central News Photo.

FAIRMOUNT CLUB JUNIOR EIGHT. They are spending much time at practice on the Schuylkill River. Left to right, they are: Staggers, bow; Gamp, Kuhn, Hartman, Buxton, Carlin, Hermann, Adams, stroke; Sayers, coxswain. Ledger Photo Service.

DR. HARRY N. ETTLESON discusses naturalization in an interview on the Editorial Page. F. S. Hunt.

OUR CITY'S WORKERS AND WHAT THEY DO

OPERATING PAINT MIXER. James St. Lawrence and George Spiller mix hundreds of gallons of paint in a day at the factory of Yarnall Paint Co., 1038 Race street. Ledger Photo Service.

HER BUSY DAY. Mrs. Walter Waring Hopkinson, fortune teller at the Flower Market, in Rittenhouse Square. Ledger Photo Service.

SEMAPHORE SENTINELS

AT FOURTH AND CHESTNUT STREETS. Reserve Patrolman William Morrison lives at 5540 Broomall avenue. He is thirty-five years old and has been a member of the police force for eight years. Ledger Photo Service.

THE BEAUTY CORNER

WATCH THIS GOLFER. Miss Edith Cummings, who recently won the Florida championship, is on her way to fight for honors in the international tilt in England. Central News Photo.

MISS ALMA BURKE 1243 Jackson street Philadelphia. Ward & Posch.