

MRS. WILSON PREPARES FRIDAY MARKET BASKET

French Toast as Made by a Little Breton Girl Is a Tempting Delicacy; Crushed Strawberries Garnish Blueberry Pie

By MRS. M. A. WILSON (Copyright, 1921, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson. All Rights Reserved)

TO DAY I have a dear little maid from Bretony aiding me, and she is so very anxious to show me how her family planned their meals where every penny must be counted. To conserve money and not provide the family with sufficient wherewithal to satisfy their hunger would be a serious crime in the eyes of this earnest child of France.

In her own quaint way she says: "The gas—he is so very costly that he spoils the food—so cook very slowly, let it bubble and bubble two or three hours on the simmering burner; this will give the best results."

Today the markets show tiny young carrots and turnips, with other local vegetables, coming rapidly to the moderate price range. For successful results let us plan a menu for three meals on Sunday.

Breakfast
Berries and Cream
French Toast
Coffee

Dinner
Young Onions
Braised Beef with Vegetables
Macaroni au Gratin
Tomato Salad
Coffee

Supper
Cheese and Nut Sandwiches
Potato and Tomato Salad
Strawberry Shortcake
Tea

The market basket will require

- Two boxes of berries,
- Scallops,
- Radiishes,
- Tomatoes,
- Lettuce,
- Green peppers,
- Young carrots,
- Young turnips,
- Rhubarb,
- One and one-half pounds of stewing beef,
- Bacon,
- Cottage cheese,
- One-quarter pound of oysters,
- One quart of potatoes,
- And the usual weekly supplies.

Try preparing French toast in this manner: Cut slices of bread; now cut each slice in half. Place in a mixing bowl.

Beat to a smooth batter and then dip in this mixture the prepared bread. Fry until a golden brown in hot fat and then coat with honey and dust with nutmeg or cinnamon. Garnish with a thin strip of nicely browned bacon.

Flank or plate of roast cuts can be purchased at reasonable prices. Cut the meat in pieces suitable for serving and then roll in flour and brown quickly in hot fat. Lift to a saucer and add one-half cup of flour to the fat in the pan in which the meat was browned. Cook the flour to a deep mahogany color and add two and one-half cups of cold water. Bring to a boil and strain over the meat. Now scrape one-half dozen young carrots and pare one-half dozen small turnips and one-half dozen small onions. Add to the meat and cook very closely and simmer very slowly until tender. Dish on a hot platter and garnish with sliced pickled young beets and finely minced parsley.

Macaroni au Gratin
Cook the macaroni and then drain and place a layer of macaroni in a baking dish and cover with finely minced onions and a little green pepper. Repeat until the dish is full and then cover with two cups of thick cream sauce and

One-half cup of fine bread crumbs.
Four tablespoons of grated cheese.
Bake in a moderate oven for thirty minutes.

Rhubarb Pudding
Cut one bunch of rhubarb in pieces and then rub a baking dish well with shortening. Place the rhubarb in the baking dish. Now put in a mixing bowl

Three-quarters cup of sugar.
One egg.
Three tablespoons of butter.
Cream well and then add
One and three-quarters cups of flour.
Four level teaspoons of baking powder.
One cup of milk or water.
Beat to mix and then pour over the rhubarb. Bake in a moderate oven for forty minutes and then serve with Bay-bona sauce.

Saxbana Sauce
Two-thirds cup of powdered sugar.
Yolk of one egg.
One tablespoon of melted butter.
Cream well and then place
White of one egg.
One-half pint of apple jelly
in a bowl and beat with a Dover eggbeater until stiff meringue. Now add four tablespoons of boiling water to the sugar and yolk of egg mixture and beat hard to blend. Then fold the meringue into this mixture. Flavor with maple and vanilla and serve over the puddings.

Adventures With a Purse
LAST week I broke one of my pet dishes and, as a result, almost had a broken heart. A dish that I have cherished I have trusted to an old one to wash and carelessly brought it to the floor, where it landed with a thud and cracked as it hit the table. I was ready to weep for the loss and go into deep mourning, when I remembered a place that mends china.

So I tenderly gathered the dish and took it into the store where an experienced man examined it and told me to return in several days for the dish, and it would be all right. And it is, and I shall be grateful to the store forever after.

A friend of mine is going to be a June bride and her new apartment has a blue and white kitchen that looks like a chapter from a fairy story. Next week she is being given a shower, and I've been to the town over hunting for something that would fit in with this charming little workshop. In one of the stores I found a sale of White Towels, which I bought at 20 per cent. Boxes for bread, cake, sugar, everything, I guess, that is needed in the kitchen and pantry, and because they are reasonably priced I can buy her two boxes to keep fresh her bread and cake.

Children like pretty underwear just as well as you and me, yet, it seems that most of the things displayed in stores are rather plain. I found a little, made of French batiste, the kind we know as "Flannel night-gowns," and it was priced at $1.25, and little thing, and would win the heart of any child. It occurred to me that it would be rather an inducement to the little people to go to bed early, when such a pretty nightie is waiting.
