

1847 ROGERS BROS.

SILVERPLATE

Queen Anne

Ambassador

THE IRRESISTIBLE GIFT Whether to the Bride or to Yourself

THE sheen of fine silverplate against the blue velvet of a GIFT BOX—who can resist the inclination to possess such a gift? Perhaps for the newlyweds, or for the damask of your own home table? There is in fine silverplate all that you look for in a gift that is useful and that grows in sentiment-value.

There is in 1847 Rogers Bros. Silverplate an extra-something, that you do not pay more for and yet is priceless. This is the assurance of highest quality given by an enviable record of seventy-five years' service to American home-makers. No test tells the truth like the test of time. So would your mother tell you, and your grandmother too, for they knew the wisdom of buying this silverplate that has proved its goodness.

The Gift Boxes illustrated are only a few of the many in "1847 Rogers Bros." ware. Various combinations of pieces may also be had in attractive chests. The wide range of prices makes it easy for you to find just what you want for gifts or for yourself.

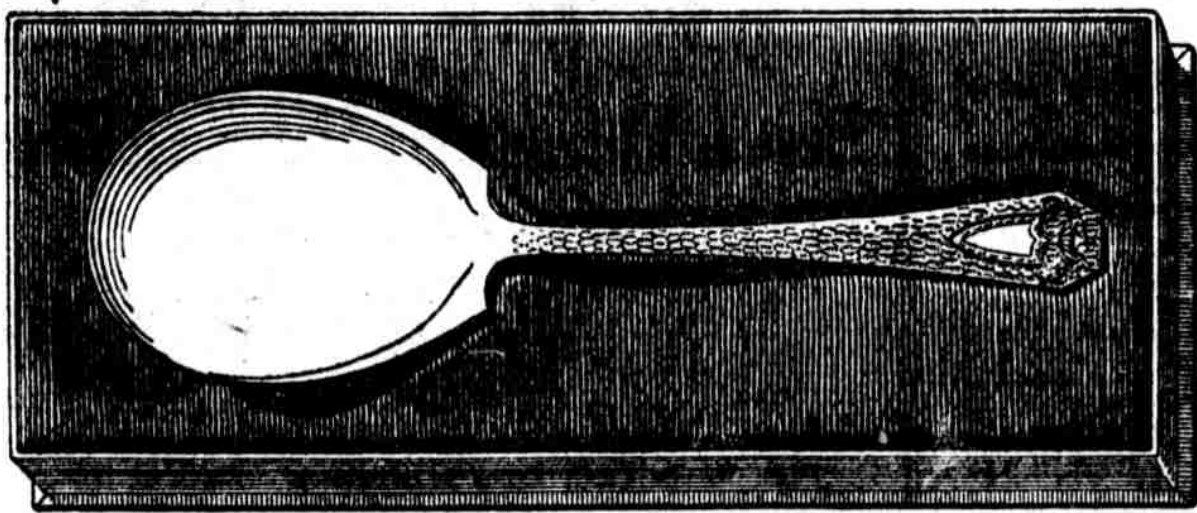

Another distinctive feature of "1847 Rogers Bros." is the fact that you can purchase a complete Table Service all in the same pattern. The spoons, knives and forks match the Tea and Coffee Sets, meat and vegetable dishes, etc.
