

SEEK TWO MEN IN HOLD-UP ORGY

Series of Highway Robberies in Opposite Parts of City Ascribed to Same Thieves

MORE THAN $100 STOLEN

Two men are being sought by the police of every district in Philadelphia for a series of hold-ups Saturday night and last night, in distant parts of the city.

Their operations extended from West Philadelphia to Germantown. It is believed the same men were guilty of more than half a dozen hold-ups, as the descriptions furnished by the victims were very similar.

Wayne avenue, was at Labor road and Wayne avenue when two Negroes stopped him and searched him at the point of a revolver. He had no money, so they took a watch worth a few dollars.

SHOULD CONGRESS SPEED UP AND GO HOME?

Business men are urging that Congress pass important legislation immediately and then quit work, according to a special story from Washington by Robert Barry, in this morning's Public Ledger. Why Congressional leaders oppose that action was also told.

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

Such a Glorious Array of New Cotton Frocks One Seldom Sees

We've never, even in those bountiful days before the war, shown anything approaching this collection, in beauty, variety or numbers:

Ginghams in all the checks and plaids and the daintiest and wildest colorings.

Linens in white and the loveliest shades, including gray; made on coat lines.

Linen-and-Voile Dresses, in white and colors, that made one woman exclaim, what many think, "That's sensible—voile sleeves are so cool."

Organdie Dresses, so crisp and perky, in white and pastel tints.

And Voile Dresses, plain and striped, and so fine they resemble crepe Georgette.

And certainly nothing quite so summery has yet appeared, as their great collars and cuffs, vestees, and sometimes sashes, of organdie. Prices $16.50 to $25.00. Dress sketched—$16.50.

Crepe de Chine and Taffeta Dresses, $18.75 to $25.00

Made in plaited styles or with plaited, ruffled or tucked tunics. Navy, brown, white, flesh and black.

Silk Dresses in Extra Sizes Tricotee, crepe Georgette, Canton crepe, crepe de chine and taffeta, many beaded and embroidered. Navy, brown, taupe and black. Prices—$40.00 to $165.00.

First Call for Dust Coats

Many of Which are Capes

Sure sign of summer—the motorists, tourists, travelers, hiker, and all good sports generally are in quest of Dust Coats.

Linen and Fine Linene Dust Coats and Capes

Capes of tan linene, $3.50; Coats of the same with collars that close up well at the throat, $3.75. Gray Linene Coats, $6.50. Tan Linen Coats—$8.50 and $10.00.

Mohair Coats, $12.00

Full enveloping Coats, of the durable dust-shedding mohair, in black, navy and gray.

Sports Coats

Unlined, hip-length, tan coating Sports Coats, $10.50; others, lined throughout, $12.00 and $15.00. Also a full assortment of these highly fashionable soft tan wools in the longer lengths, some button-trimmed—$22.50, $25.00 and $30.00.

The Strawbridge & Clothier Store has arranged new terms of payment—easier and more convenient than ever—for our customers who do not care to pay the entire price of Victrolas or other Phonographs at time of purchase.

Floramyne Perfume

A delightful odor sent from the well-known perfumer, L. T. Piver, Paris, the choice of discriminating American women. FLORAMYNE Extracts, $1.93 and $2.86; Toilet Water, $2.19; Vegetal, $1.36; Face Powder, $1.04; Sachet, 78c; Talcum Powder, 52c, and Bath Salts—$1.04.

Men's Blue Serge Suits $25

Through the co-operation of a manufacturer who has supplied us for a number of years, we are able to mark about 400 of the finest Blue Serge Suits any man could wish for at the remarkably low price of $25.00—thereby establishing a new standard of value-giving. They are carefully tailored, of fine-twill ALL-WOOL blue serge, in correct new single- and double-breasted, two- and three-button styles for young men and men of conservative taste.

Practically all sizes to begin with, in regular, stout, short, tall and slender proportions—but when such fine Suits as these are to be had at $25.00, men cannot expect the range of sizes to remain complete any great length of time.

Men's Straw Hats—Special!

No matter what a man's taste may be—for Sennit, Leghorn or Panama—he can be assured of finding a style and straw to suit his fancy in one of these three special Hats.

Panama Hats—$3.95

A special purchase of genuine South American Panama Hats which would otherwise be one-half more to three times this price.

Leghorn Hats—$4.95

These, too, constitute a special purchase. They are worth one-half more.

Sennit Hats—$2.65

Our own good "Wickham" Hats, in fine, medium or coarse sennit weaves—the best value obtainable anywhere in Philadelphia at four dollars or less.
