

Public Ledger Company
Published daily at Public Ledger Building
Subscription rates: $10.00 per annum in advance

WOMAN HAS ALWAYS BEEN MAN'S CHIEF INCENTIVE
Now That She is "Emancipated" It Remains to Be Seen Whether She Will Be His Spurring Rival

SETTLING DOWN?
JAPAN is getting out of regions in Siberia which her militarists and jingoes vowed to hold.

PENROSE'S OFFICE STAFF
It Requires Ten People, Some of Them Experts, to Handle His Business.

By GEORGE NOX McCAIN
SENATOR BOIES PENROSE employs an office staff of ten persons in Washington.

WILL IT BLOW OVER?
The Rev. William Underwood's Job—Death of E. J. Gibson

IN THE FOURTH WARD
If ANYTHING were needed to prove that the police in some important sections are getting out of the control of the Administration...

ARCHITECTURAL REPENTANCE
THE necessity of the City Hall annex having passed the stage of argument, it is fitting to emphasize the possibilities of ornamentation in the new building.

A HOMECOMING
IT MUST not happen again," said President Harding on a pier in New York yesterday at the last pitiful homecoming of soldiers who were among the first to die under the American flag in Europe.

MISS ALICE A. JOHNSON
On Home Economics
HOUSEHOLD mechanics such as painting and the ability to overhaul washing machines when they become faulty should be introduced as part of the roster of all girls in the second term of the third year of junior high school, according to Miss Alice A. Johnson, assistant on economics and domestic science in the public schools.

Health Is Important
"ON the other hand, we must not forget the importance of health instruction entirely in the pursuit of domestic science. This in the making of menus, which we teach in the second year, there are many who say that they have younger brothers or sisters who are not able to drink milk. In order to get around this we teach them the importance of milk in the diet and tell them the ways in which milk can be taken in other forms, such as custard and rice pudding.

HUMANISMS
By WILLIAM ATHERTON DU PUY
THE reporters at the State Department have established for themselves a very accurate and reliable barometer of the international situation.

NORMALCY OF ENGLISH
THOSE school teachers in this city who have formulated a creed to be memorized by pupils willing to speak and encourage others to speak better English have done something quite as worthy of attention as the book of manners recently issued by some of their associates to turn the youthful mind away from jazz and backward toward normal tastes.

MYSTERY OF THE BEES
VERY little while there is a startling disclosure of the varied interests of the State Government. The latest comes in an announcement from Harrisburg that the Department of Agriculture is about to issue a bulletin calling the attention of the farmers to the necessity of feeding their bees.

Where the Bees Get Stung
IF YOU happen to keep a bee, in your bonnet or otherwise, you will be interested in a coming bulletin of the State Department of Agriculture setting forth that early blossoms and late frosts, blooms destroyed and flowers delayed, are going to make this a hard summer for the industrious honey-maker.

CHINA SEES THE POINT
CHINA and Germany are at peace by reason of an agreement signed between the two nations at Peking on May 20. The quoted words are significant. Evidently the Chinese, who refused to become a party to the Treaty of Versailles at the time of its framing in 1919, experience the feeling that a one-sided peace lacks something of convincing values. There seems to have been in the republic no overwhelming disposition to reconcile antipathy to treating independently with Germany with a desire to end the state of war by resolution.

Answers to Yesterday's Quiz
1. Belgrade, on the Danube, is the capital of the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.
2. Jose Echegaray was a celebrated Spanish dramatist, especially noted for his powerful plays, "Gran Galateo," adapted in English under the title, "The World and His Wife." He was born in 1832 and died a few years ago.

What Do You Know?
1. What son of an American President became commander of armies hostile to the United States?
2. What was the first State to ratify the thirteenth constitutional amendment forbidding slavery in the United States?

What Keeps It Up?
IT WAS in June of last year that living costs in the United States reached the peak. The prices of the necessities of life were then approximately 85 degrees above the normal general schedule of 1914.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

DESPITE HIS handicapped partial deafness, Gibson was an indefatigable newspaper reporter. Martin Kane, wire chief of the Postal Company in the Senate press gallery, tells an interesting story of how Gibson once "scoped" the entire body of correspondents at the Press story of peculiar interest to Philadelphia and Pennsylvania.

NOW MY IDEA IS THIS
Daily Talks With Thinking Philadelphians on Subjects They Know Best

MISS ALICE A. JOHNSON
On Home Economics
HOUSEHOLD mechanics such as painting and the ability to overhaul washing machines when they become faulty should be introduced as part of the roster of all girls in the second term of the third year of junior high school, according to Miss Alice A. Johnson, assistant on economics and domestic science in the public schools.

What Do You Know?
QUIZ

- 1. What son of an American President became commander of armies hostile to the United States?
2. What was the first State to ratify the thirteenth constitutional amendment forbidding slavery in the United States?
3. Who wrote the novel, "Rhoda Fleming"?
4. Who is President of Cuba?
5. Name three kinds of palm trees.
6. For what was Lady Bancroft noted?
7. In what part of Ireland is the County Galway?
8. What is meant by jettisoning a cargo?
9. What is a motet in music?
10. When did Bismarck die?