Getting Ready Now for Summer and Summer's First Holiday

It Is Pitiful if No One Understands You

But you can understand yourself, as Edison did, and "get there" if you have a good idea, and keep at it long enough to work it out. Most people who fail only work half-time, take too many holidays and are quitters. Blackberries are no good until they ripen.

John Wanamaker

May 24, 1921.

"Suzanne" Is a Demure Little Gingham Frock

will look very well on girls and young women who wear 14 to 20 sizes. It is cool and summery and youthful and pretty all at the same time in simple one-piece style with crisp and snowy organdie roll collar, cuffs and pipings on the two side pockets, and has a sash which is in the back. There is pink, light blue, cool green, lavender or black checks combined with white. You will find the dress only at Wanamaker's, and the price is $14.50. (Second Floor, Chestnut)

Crisp Dotted Swisses Make Most Delightful Frocks

And they are wonderfully fashionable this Summer, so much so that such a complete assortment as you will find here is quite rare. There are many combinations of colors that women tell us they can't get elsewhere. Dark grounds with white or colored dots, black with white or colored dots, colored and white grounds with white or colored dots. Prices are $1.75 and $2 a yard. (First Floor, Chestnut)

Dark Blue Kid Slippers for $10

The price is so very special on these pretty slippers it deserves emphasis. We have the same slipper on our shelves at a half more. It is this final lot the man who made them was willing to close out at a good deal less. Navy blue kid, finely fashioned with one instep strap, plain medium turned sole, baby French heel. Only a limited quantity at this special price of $10. (First Floor, Market)

Exceptional Nightgowns and Petticoats

"What unusually dainty gowns!" you may exclaim, as we did, until we learned that these particular nightgowns are designed by a woman specially for dainty women. Inexpensive though they are—$5 and $5.75 in this May Sale—every inch of lace, ribbon and material is just right—just what you would choose if you were having them made up yourself. Two new models, fashioned of fine nainsook, with good lace and ribbon trimming, are just long white petticoats are plentiful, pretty and inexpensive in the sale. Excellent cambrie models with flounces of good blind embroidery, lace-trimmed flounces, $1.85 to $4.50. Others up to $13.50. Good choosing yet of other specially priced garments in this last peak of the Sale. (Third Floor, Central)

The Newest Style in Envelope Handbags

It is an extremely flat shape, not much thicker than a card case, yet for all that it contains purse and mirror. Made of highly glazed auto leather in black and red, velvet calfskin in gray and brown and morocco in a dark blue. All finished with sterling silver point to the flap. Smart and dainty little bags for $5. (Main Floor, Chestnut)

Women's Fine White Serge Skirts, $12.75

They are of fine white serge, and the skirts are made in cluster box and knife pleats, with narrow waist and pearl buttons for trimming. They are beautifully tailored—and just what women want to wear now and during the Summer. (First Floor, Central)

Cool L. R. Corsets for Hot Days

Our L. R. corsetiere sends us some admirable hot-weather models of cool, open mesh. They will be of interest to many types of women—especially to those who garden, do housework, play tennis, or want to be active without feeling the restriction of the usual corset. All these are light, open-mesh corsets are $2 a pair. There is a topless model of pink mesh, with elastic insets for average figures; a low-bust model of white mesh, with long skirt and heavier boning. For fuller figures, and a model of white mesh, with medium bust and short skirt, which many women find most comfortable about the house, even though they wear a longer corset for dress. (Third Floor, Chestnut)

New Bedspreads $4.50 Each

Snow-white, double-bed size, in fine finish weaves, new out of the boxes and marked to sell at a good saving from former prices. Now $4.50 each. (Sixth Floor, Central)

Navy Blue Silk Gowns With Distinct Individuality

They are such gowns as a woman can put on and feel that she is suitably and becomingly dressed for the morning shopping tour, for an afternoon call or perhaps for an informal evening affair. More than this, they are different from the usual gowns of one's friends—they have few, if any duplicates, and many are copies of Paris models. You may choose from crepe de chine, Canton crepe or kitten's-ear crepe, in some cases quite plain, in others, beaded, braided, with drawn-work or eyelet embroidery with a color showing underneath. Some are specials, some are greatly lowered in price, $65, $85 and $100. (First Floor, Central)

The Coolest Dark Blue Silk a Woman Can Wear

There are many women who for business and professional wear want Summer dresses of cool, dark blue silk. Others want the same thing for traveling and shopping purposes. To them all we would recommend navy blue Japanese habutai silk. It is the coolest silk made, comes in beautiful dark blue colorings, is well made, a full yard wide and costs but $1.50 a yard. Smartly made, with a bit of washable white at the neck, it will make business and traveling frocks that for scorching days cannot be excelled. (First Floor, Chestnut)

A Protecting Dust Coat for the Motor Trip

Women who intend going down to the shore or other places on Decoration Day will find that a really serviceable dust coat is a most economical investment. Linene coats, made generously full, start as low as $3.50 and go up to $14.50. (First Floor, Central)

Belgian linen coats, Raglan shoulders and box-pleated back, $18.75. Dark colored striped mohair-and-linen coats, $20. Pongee coats and capes of the finer sort, which are also used for dress coats, $40 to $47.50. (Fourth Floor, Central)

Flags for Memorial Day

American flags should be properly made and of the right materials. The flags sold here answer that description. We have them in a large variety of sizes from the regulation silk flags for clubs and public buildings down to small hunting flags mounted on staffs for cemetery decoration. It is best to choose early. (Seventh Floor, Market and Central)

Prices Lend New Interest to These Floor Lamps

They are tall, slender floor reading lamps of the "bridge" variety, some of wood, all of them at such very special prices that they are worth seeing even apart from their own attractiveness. The $12.50 ones are of iron, in greenish effects. Those at $18.50 are solid mahogany. At $20, $30 and $40, they are of cast metal, both base and stand decorated to look like the most attractive painted woodwork. Any one needing such useful and decorative electric lamps should see them. Shades are from $3 up. (Fourth Floor, Central)

Klearflax Linen Rugs Are So Popular

Besides furnishing well, in their rich plain colors, these Klearflax linen rugs and carpets are wonderfully durable and easily cleaned.

Table with 2 columns: Rugs and Roll Goods, listing various sizes and prices.

Peter Pan Blouses

A new white tub silk blouse with pleating around the collar and cuffs and tiny pin tucks is $5.85.

A white crepe de chine blouse with frills down the front and pleatings around the collar and cuffs is $10.50.

And less expensive and quite practical are two new cotton blouses—one of plain white batiste with ric-rac trimming, the other with Irish picot trimming—$3 each. (Third Floor, Central)

Colored Handkerchiefs for Commencement Gifts

If you wish to give her something dainty and pretty you might choose one or a dozen of those attractive colored handkerchiefs for $1 each.

They are of sheer Irish linen, there are numbers of colors and designs from which to select, and they are all new.

Just as new and equally attractive are the initial handkerchiefs, also in color, with hand embroidered letters in monogram style. These are $4.50 for a box of six. (Main Floor, Central, and London Shop, The Gallery)

Take Your Pick at Once From the Sale of Cretonnes

If you have curtains to be made, or slip-ons or cushion covers—if you need cretonnes for any one of their hundred pleasant uses—now is the time to profit by our extraordinary sale of 18,000 Yards of Cretonnes at 28c, 48c and 60c

They are all much less than half the regular prices. They are all below pre-war prices. They are all good and tasteful patterns. This is a plentiful yardage in practically every pattern for any purpose. Most of them yard wide; a few are 30 inches. (Fifth Floor, Market)

The Day of the Garden and Concrete Garden Furniture

This is one kind of furniture that practically never wears out. No weather seems to affect it.

Everybody with a garden, a lawn or even a tiny patch of earth and who knows how to make the most of it is bound to like these pieces. One kind in white, made of crushed marble, sand and white cement; the other in gray, made of crushed granite, sand and gray cement. Both kinds are equally durable and can be had in identical pieces.

Flower pots, $3.75 to $80. Flower boxes, oblong, $3.75 to $40. Benches, $13.50 to $45. Bird baths on pedestals, $25 to $40. Bird baths without pedestals, $1.50 to $20. Sun dial pedestals, $12.50 to $30. Gazing globes and pedestals, $12 to $20. A new shipment of Carrara marble benches, $35, $42.50, $50, $55. (Fourth Floor, Chestnut)

Good and Ready With Men's Tropical Clothing

The hot wave found our Men's Clothing Store in full readiness with the tropical suits and garments that make for health, comfort and happiness. Though the heat was broken for a time it will soon be back and men do not need to be urged to wear suits of this kind. But it might be well to remind them that in tropical clothing, as well as in other clothing, there are different kinds. There is no better ready-to-wear tropical clothing than the kind shown here.

Palm Beach Suits in sand and gray shades, $20. In fancy mixed shades, $22.50. Mohair Suits in black and white stripes and fancy self-stripes, $25 and $30. Tropical Worestsuits in grays, browns and heather mixtures, $32 and $40. Knitted Sports Coats in grays, browns, blues and heather mixtures, $20. Also blue flannel sports coats, $18. White flannel and striped flannel trousers, $12. White duck trousers, $3.50. Khaki trousers, $2. The man who wants to make a good combination can have a blue serge or flannel suit, $32 to $50, in either a belted back or a plain model, and a pair of white or striped flannel trousers. A suit of this kind gives him an extra change. (Third Floor, Market)

Men's New Wash Ties Are the Best Yet

We do not recall ever having seen a collection of men's washable neckties as interesting as those just unboxed. The variety of designs and colorings is unusually large and many of the designs, notably in the better group, are totally different from anything we have had in wash ties. Prices, 50c and $1. (Main Floor, Market)

Men's White Sports Shirts in Three Good Styles

From now on men will have plenty of use for these shirts for golf, tennis and other sports, and many young men like them for other wear. Made of fine white cotton and in three styles, one with neckband, for separate collar; another with soft collar attached, and a third with soft collar attached that has points buttoned down. Price, $2.50. (Main Floor, Market)

A Mighty Smart New Oxford for Younger Men

We say younger men because they are the ones who best appreciate such fine fashion, but many another man will like this shoe because of the width of the toe and the general comfort and stability of it. Made of Scotch grain calfskin in a straight lace style with straight pinked cap, punched in the center; heavy single sole, stitched aloft; wide shank and low, broad heel. Around the vamp is a heavy harness stitching. See if you can match this shoe at $12 a pair! (Main Floor, Market)

A Little Rain Won't Hurt a Man's Good Straw Hat

These Lincoln-Bennett and Redleaf London straw hats, for example, are made to keep their shape and their finish even in damp weather. They are unexcelled in fashion, too, and are in such wide variety that no matter what a man's physique or features may be he can find one that seems as if made for him. Prices, $3 to $6. (Main Floor, Market)

Field Glasses

For travel a field glass will add to the pleasure. The glass used by the Army was the 6-power Victory Prism Binocular, which is best adapted for all purposes: price, $50. (Main Gallery, Chestnut)

Odd Bedspreads Lowered—Now $2 to $6 Each

Several kinds included, but not many of any one kind. Honeycombs, satin finished, Marseilles and printed muslins. Some in single, some in double sizes. A few may have lost their freshness, but all are in good condition, most of them practically perfect, now $2 to $6 each. They have been double and more. (Sixth Floor, Central)

Your Eyes

Doctors' offices are filled with people having their eyes examined, yet there are thousands who neglect their eyes. For a candid statement of what you need, come to the Optical Section or bring your prescription and get a smart, well-fitting frame that will suit the lines of your face. (Main Gallery, Chestnut)

A Fine Big Holiday Candy Box, $2.50 Complete

Just look what it holds—1 pound of assorted chocolates 1 pound of vanilla marshmallows 1 pound of assorted caramels 1 pound of cream mint 1 pound of assorted crisp wafers It's tied with red, white and blue—all ready to take with you or be sent with your card. (Down State Store, Chestnut)

Ice Cream for the Memorial Day Outing

It wouldn't be a picnic, or even a proper home celebration, without it. The Auto Vacuum Freezer is the only one for the automobile. Fill it with the ingredients before you start. No turning or trouble. In half an hour this freezer has automatically made the cream—and keeps it hard for eight hours. Twelve-dish size, $6. Twenty-four dish size, $10. The Wanamaker Freezer—best, quickest and most economical for home use—comes in ten sizes. 1 quart for $4.15, 2 quart for $4.90, 3 quart for $5.75, 4 quart for $7.15, up to 10 quart for $15. Ice cream salt, 30c for 10 pounds; $1.35 a bushel. (Fourth Floor, Market)
